In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act relative to civic education in public schools.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

2 The department of elementary and secondary education shall develop a model 3 curriculum, which shall be included within the history and/or social science curriculum. The 4 topics addressed shall include: (i) the history of voting as a constitutional right; (ii) the process of 5 registering to vote, with explanations of registration deadlines and election day education, the 6 initiative petition and referendum process and the overall election process, including descriptions 7 of the various elected offices and their terms; (iii) the makeup and role of the 3 branches of 8 government: executive, legislative, and judicial and the 3 levels of government: local, state, and 9 federal government; (iv) the history of political movements and current events, and (v) civic

- 10 related, service-learning projects. The department shall establish standards to evaluate this
- 11 curriculum and thereafter create a pilot program to be implemented for school districts.
