HOUSE No. 2236

By Mr. Stanley of Waltham, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2236) of Thomas M. Stanley and others relative to adjunct faculty wages. Higher Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act to ensure minimum fair wages and employment stability for adjunct faculty.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 151 of the General Laws as appearing in the 2014 Edition is hereby amended by 2 adding after section 2B the following section:

3 SECTION 2C: Adjunct Faculty

4 (a) Colleges and universities shall pay adjunct faculty an amount per course equal to the 5 weighted average salary of a full time instructor, multiplied by an instruction factor, divided by 6 the standard number of courses in a yearly teaching period. The instruction factor shall be the 7 percentage of time an average full time instructor spends teaching courses, including preparation 8 and grading. The weighted average salary of a full time instructor shall be calculated as follows:

9 (1) For a college or university where at least 20 percent of full time faculty, as reported to 10 the US Department of Education’s Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System, are 11 classified as instructors, lecturers or no academic rank, the weighted average salary of a full time 12 instructor shall be calculated by adding the total salary outlays of a full time faculty classified as

13 instructors, lecturers, or no academic rank and dividing that sum by the total number of full time 14 faculty classified as instructors, lecturers or no academic rank.

15 (2) For a college or university where fewer than 20 percent of full time faculty, as 16 reported to the US Department of Education's Integrated Postsecondary Education Data System, 17 are classified as instructors, lecturers or no academic rank, the weighted average salary of a full 18 time instructor shall be calculated by adding the total salary outlays of full time faculty classified 19 as assistant professors, instructors, lecturers or no academic rank and dividing that sum by the 20 total number of full time faculty classified as such.

21 (b) Colleges and universities shall offer a given course to qualified adjunct faculty who 22 have taught the same course or similar course previously before hiring new faculty to teach the 23 course.

24 (c) Colleges and universities shall provide sufficient notice of teaching assignments and 25 the cancellation of said assignments. For purposes of this subsection, sufficient notice shall be 26 defined as no less than 90 days prior to the beginning of an academic term

27 (d) In the event a course assignment is cancelled 45 or more but fewer than 90 days prior 28 to the beginning of an academic term, colleges and universities shall provide the adjunct faculty
29 member an alternate course assignment or 25% of the salary for the course. In the event a course 30 assignment is cancelled fewer than 45 days prior to the beginning of an academic term, colleges
31 and universities shall provide the adjunct faculty member an alternate course assignment or 50% 32 of the salary for the course.
