By Mr. Rogers of Cambridge, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 2338) of David M. Rogers and others relative to establishing reasonable limitations on the solitary confinement of inmates 21 years of age or younger. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act establishing reasonable limitations on the solitary confinement of inmates 21 years of age or younger.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 39 of chapter 127 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2012

2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place

- 3 thereof the following 2 paragraphs:-
- At the request of the superintendent of any correctional institution of the commonwealth, the commissioner may authorize the transfer, for such period as he may determine, to a segregated unit within any correctional institution of the commonwealth, of any inmate over 21 years of age whose continued retention in the general institution population is detrimental to the program of the institution.
- 9 At the request of the superintendent of any correctional institution of the commonwealth, 10 the commissioner may authorize the transfer, for no longer than 48 hours, to a segregated unit 11 within any correctional institution of the commonwealth, of any inmate 21 years of age or

12	younger who poses an immediate and substantial threat to the safety of other inmates or officers.
13	If after 48 hours, in the opinion of the superintendent, conclusive evidence exists, as documented
14	in a written report, that the inmate continues to pose an immediate and substantial threat to other
15	inmates or officers, the inmate may remain in the segregated unit up to an additional 24 hours.
16	The written report shall include reasons why the superintendent believes the inmate continues to
17	pose an immediate and substantial threat to the safety of other inmates or officers.
18	SECTION 2. Section 40 of said chapter 127, as so appearing, is hereby amended by
19	striking out the first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 2 paragraphs:-
20	For the enforcement of discipline, an inmate over 21 years of age in any correctional
21	institution of the commonwealth may, at the discretion of its superintendent, be confined, for a
22	period not to exceed 15 days for any one offense, to an isolation unit.
23	Any inmate, 21 years old or younger in any correctional institution, who poses an
