[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 4474 OF 2015-2016.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act relative to innocent spouses.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 62C of the General Laws, as appearing the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby 2 amended by striking out section 84 and inserting in place thereof the following new section:-

3 Section 84. Relief from joint and several liability on joint return

4 (a) Notwithstanding section 6 of chapter 62C an individual who has made a joint return 5 may elect to seek relief under the procedures prescribed under subsection (b), subsection (c), or 6 both subsections, concurrently.

7 (b) (1) An individual filing a joint return under this chapter for the taxable year shall 8 be relieved of liability for an understatement of tax, including interest, penalties and other 9 amounts, for the taxable year on which such understatement was reported, to the extent such 10 liability is attributable to such understatement, if:

11 (i) the understatement is attributable to erroneous items of the other individual 12 filing the joint return,

13 (ii) the individual seeking relief from liability establishes that in signing the return 14 he or she did not know, and had no reason to know, that there was such understatement,

15 (iii) taking into account all the facts and circumstances, it is inequitable to hold 16 the individual seeking relief from liability liable for the deficiency attributable to such 17 understatement, and

18 (iv) the individual seeking relief from liability elects, in such form as the 19 commissioner may prescribe, the application of this subsection not later than 2 years after the 20 commissioner has begun collection activities with respect to the individual making the election.

21 (2) If an individual who, but for clause (ii) of paragraph (1), would be relieved of liability 22 under paragraph (1) establishes that in signing the return such individual did not know, and had 23 no reason to know, the extent of such understatement, then such individual shall be relieved of 24 liability for the tax including interest, penalties and other amounts for such taxable year to the 25 extent that such liability is attributable to the portion of such understatement of which such 26 individual did not know and had no reason to know.

27 (c) (1) If an individual who has made a joint return for a taxable year elects the 28 application of this subsection, the individual's liability for a deficiency which is assessed with 29 respect to the return shall not exceed the portion of such deficiency properly allocable to the 30 individual under paragraphs (8) through (12), inclusive.

31 (2) Each individual who elects the application of this subsection shall have the burden of 32 proof with respect to establishing the portion of a deficiency allocable to such individual.

33 (3) An individual shall only be eligible to elect the application of this subsection if:

34 (i) at the time such election is filed, such individual is no longer married to, or is 35 legally separated from, the individual with whom such individual filed the joint return to which 36 the election relates, or

37 (ii) such individual was not a member of the same household as the individual 38 with whom such joint return was filed at any time during the 12-month period ending on the date 39 such election is filed.

40 (4) If the commissioner demonstrates that assets were transferred between individuals 41 filing a joint return as part of a fraudulent scheme by such individuals, an election under this 42 subsection by either individual shall be invalid, and section 6 of chapter 62C shall apply to the 43 joint return.

44 (5) An election under this subsection for any taxable year may be made at any time after 45 a deficiency for such year is asserted but not later than 2 years after the commissioner has begun 46 collection activities with respect to the individual making the election.

47 (6) If the commissioner demonstrates that an individual making an election under this 48 subsection had actual knowledge, at the time such individual signed the return, of an item giving 49 rise to a deficiency or portion thereof, which is not allocable to such individual under paragraphs 50 8 through 12, inclusive, such election shall not apply to such deficiency or portion. This

51 subparagraph shall not apply where the individual with actual knowledge establishes that such 52 individual signed the return under duress.

53 (7) Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the portion of the deficiency 54 for which the individual electing the application of this subsection is liable, without regard to this 55 paragraph, shall be increased by the value of a disqualified asset transferred to the individual. For 56 purposes of this paragraph:

57 (i) The term “disqualified asset” means a property or right to property transferred 58 to an individual making the election under this subsection with respect to a joint return by the 59 other individual filing such joint return if the principal purpose of the transfer was the avoidance 60 of tax or payment of tax.

61 (ii) A transfer, other than a transfer pursuant to a decree of divorce or separate 62 maintenance or a written instrument incident to such a decree or to a transfer which an individual 63 establishes did not have as its principal purpose the avoidance of tax or payment of tax, which is 64 made less than one year before the first letter of proposed deficiency which allows the taxpayer 65 an opportunity for administrative review in the department of revenue is sent shall be presumed 66 to have as its principal purpose the avoidance of tax or payment of tax.

67 (8) The portion of a deficiency on a joint return allocated to an individual shall be the 68 amount which bears the same ratio to such deficiency as the net amount of items taken into 69 account in computing the deficiency and allocable to the individual bears to the net amount of all 70 items taken into account in computing the deficiency.

71 (9) If a deficiency or portion thereof is attributable to the disallowance of a credit or a tax 72 other than the tax imposed by chapter 62, required to be included with the joint return, and such

73 item is allocated to one individual under paragraph (10), such deficiency or portion thereof shall 74 be allocated to such individual. Any such item shall not be taken into account under paragraph 75 (8).

76 (10) (i) Except as provided in paragraphs (11) and (12), an item giving rise to a 77 deficiency on a joint return shall be allocated to individuals filing the return in the same manner
78 as it would have been allocated if the individuals had filed separate returns for the taxable year.

79 (ii) An item otherwise allocable to an individual under clause (i) shall be allocated 80 to the other individual filing the joint return to the extent the item gave rise to a tax benefit on the 81 joint return to the other individual.

82 (iii) The commissioner may provide for an allocation of an item in a manner not 83 otherwise prescribed by this paragraph if the commissioner establishes that such allocation is 84 appropriate due to fraud of one or both individuals.

85 (11) If an item of deduction or credit is disallowed in its entirety solely because a separate 86 return is filed, such disallowance shall be disregarded and the item shall be computed as if a joint 87 return had been filed and then allocated appropriately between the spouses.

88 (12) If the liability of a child of a taxpayer is included on a joint return, such liability
89 shall be disregarded in computing the separate liability of either spouse and such liability shall be 90 allocated appropriately between the spouses.

91 (d) If after taking into account all the facts and circumstances, the commissioner 92 determines it is inequitable to hold the individual liable for a deficiency, or portion thereof, and

93 relief is not available to such individual under subsection (b) or (c), the commissioner may 94 relieve such individual of such liability.

95 (e) (1) Except as provided in paragraphs (2) and (3), notwithstanding any general or 96 special law to the contrary, other than section 6 of chapter 58A, section 37 of chapter 62C or 97 sections 37A and 37C of chapter 62C, credit or refund shall be allowed or made to the extent 98 attributable to the application of this section.

99 (2) In the case of an election under subsection (b) or (c) or of a request for equitable relief 100 under subsection (d), if a decision of a court in a prior proceeding for the same taxable year has 101 become final, such decision shall be conclusive except with respect to the qualification of the 102 individual for relief which was not an issue in such proceeding. This paragraph shall not apply if 103 the court determines that the individual participated meaningfully in such prior proceeding.

104 (3) No credit or refund shall be allowed as a result of an election under subsection (c).

105 (f) The commissioner shall prescribe such regulations as are necessary to carry out the 106 provisions of this section, including:

107 (1) regulations providing methods for allocation of items other than the methods under 108 paragraph (10) subsection (c), and

109 (2) regulations providing the opportunity for an individual to have notice of, and an 110 opportunity to participate in, any administrative proceeding with respect to an election made 111 under subsection (b) or (c) or a request for equitable relief made under subsection (d) by the 112 other individual filing the joint return.
