The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act relative to the electronic filing of and public access to statements of financial interests.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 3 of chapter 268B of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out paragraph (d) and inserting in place thereof 3 the following paragraph:-

4 (d) make statements and reports filed with the commission available:

5 (1) at the commission during regular business hours at a charge not to exceed the actual 6 administrative and material costs required in reproducing said statements and reports; and

7 (2) on the world wide web for statements of financial interests that are required to be filed 8 electronically pursuant to section 5A; provided, however, that the commission shall be 9 authorized to exempt from public disclosure those portions of a statement of financial interests
10 filed pursuant to sections 5 and 5A which contain the home address of the filer;

11 SECTION 2. Section 5 of said chapter 268B, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 12 striking out, in line 36, the word “a” and inserting in place thereof the following words:- an 13 electronic.

14 SECTION 3. Said section 5 of said chapter 268B, as so appearing, is hereby further 15 amended by striking out the last paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 16 paragraph:-

17 Failure of a reporting person to file a statement of financial interests in the manner 18 required by this section or section 5A within 10 days after receiving notice as provided in 19 subsection (f) of section 3, or the filing of an incomplete statement of financial interests after 20 receipt of such a notice, is a violation of this chapter and the commission may initiate appropriate 21 proceedings pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of this chapter.

22 SECTION 4. Said chapter 268B, as so appearing, is hereby further amended by inserting 23 after section 5 the following section:

24 Section 5A. (a) The commission shall develop and maintain an electronic reporting 25 system for the submission, retrieval, storage and public disclosure of statements of financial 26 interests required to be filed with the commission by candidates, public officials and public 27 employees pursuant to section 5.

28 (b) Candidates, public officials and public employees required to file statements of 29 financial interests pursuant to section 5 shall file such statements as required by the electronic 30 reporting system developed by the commission.

31 (c) The commission shall provide the public access via the world wide web to all 32 statements of financial interests submitted by candidates, public officials and public employees 33 to the commission pursuant to section 5 not later than 3 days after the information is received by 34 the commission.

35 (d) The commission shall develop or employ encryption technology and other means of 36 ensuring the integrity of transmitted data that may be used by filers in lieu of a handwritten 37 signature for verification purposes and to constitute a signature under the penalties of perjury. In 38 furtherance of the development and maintenance of such reporting system, the commission may 39 contract with private vendors and specify the format and method in which the data is to be filed.

40 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 2018.
