[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE SENATE, NO. 1242 OF 2013-2014.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act relative to accrued sick time of certain state employees.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 7 of the General Laws, is hereby amended by striking out in its 2 entirety Section 28 and inserting in place thereof the following new section: -

3 CHAPTER 7. Executive Office For Administration And Finance

4 Chapter 7: Section 28. Department of personnel administration; research; technical 5 advisors; rules and regulations

6 Section 28. The personnel administrator may carry on departmental research, tending to 7 greater co-ordination and standardization of personnel administration, including the making of 8 examinations and investigations, the employment of technical advisers for such purposes, and the 9 making of recommendations based thereon.

10 Subject to approval of the commissioner of administration and the governor, the said
11 administrator shall make, and from time to time may amend, rules which shall regulate vacation 12 leave, sick leave and other leave with pay and overtime compensation, maintenance charges, or 13 payments in lieu thereof, travel and meals for persons traveling within or without the 14 commonwealth; provided, however, that all authorized travel shall be administered and 15 coordinated by the state purchasing agent in a cost-effective manner, for permanent and 16 temporary employees and for officers other than those exempted by such rules; provided, 17 however, that such rules regulating sick leave shall provide that any such officer or employee 18 who, while in the performance of duty, shall receive bodily injuries resulting from acts of 19 violence of any patient or prisoner in his custody, and who as a result of such injury shall be 20 entitled to weekly cash benefits under chapter one hundred and fifty-two, may be paid the 21 difference between such benefits and his regular pay, without use of any sick leave credit to 22 which he may have been entitled prior to such injury, and notwithstanding the fact that such 23 injury shall be for less than eight days duration; and provided, further, that rules and rates 24 established pursuant to the provisions of this section relative to the reimbursement for the 25 expenses of meals for persons traveling within or without the commonwealth at the expense 26 thereof shall apply to all offices, departments, boards, commissions, and other agencies of the 27 commonwealth which receive state appropriations. Such rules regulating vacation leave shall 28 provide for the accrual of such leave by managers on a monthly basis, beginning with the first 29 working day of the calendar month on or after the date of initial employment, with the annual 30 rate of accrual as determined by such rules to be pro rated for such calendar month, and for each 31 calendar month thereafter. Such rules regulating vacation leave and sick leave shall provide that 32 employees be credited with all prior service performed by them while employed by or attached

33 to the general court or either branch thereof, the executive and judicial branches, and the offices 34 of the constitutional officers, as though such prior service were performed in the service of the 35 department in which they are employed, and said eligible credit shall be made retroactively
36 available for a period not less than three years, effective immediately upon passage of this act; 37 provided, however, that such credit shall not be given to any such employee re-entering the 38 service of the commonwealth after having been separated from such service for a period in 39 excess of three years, and In the event of a conflict between the terms of a collective bargaining 40 agreement and any rule or regulation made pursuant to this paragraph, the terms of the collective 41 bargaining agreement shall prevail.

42 Before making any such rule or amendment thereto, and before making any 43 determination of the hours of work of any class under authority of section thirty A of chapter one 44 hundred and forty-nine, the personnel administrator shall, not later than thirty days before the 45 date on which the proposed rule, amendment or determination is to become effective, cause a 46 notice thereof to be posted in a conspicuous place in the office of each appointing authority of 47 the commonwealth, and shall, not later than fifteen days before the said date, hold a public 48 hearing thereon. Such notice shall set forth the proposed rule, amendment or determination, and 49 shall specify the hour, day and place of the said public hearing. Any such officer or employee 50 desiring to testify at the said hearing shall, with the prior consent of his appointing authority, be 51 allowed to attend the same without loss of pay.

52 The personnel administrator may, with approval of the commissioner of administration 53 and the governor, make rules for the prevention of accidents and industrial or occupational 54 diseases in any employment or place of employment maintained by the commonwealth. The said
55 administrator shall investigate any written complaint filed with him by any officer or employee

56 of the commonwealth, describing in detail and with supporting evidence, any allegedly unsafe or 57 insanitary condition relating to the work of such officer or employee; and the said administrator 58 shall in writing report his findings and recommendations thereon to the commissioner of 59 administration and the governor, to the officer or employee who shall have filed such complaint, 60 and to the appointing authority concerned. The commissioner of labor and industries and the 61 commissioner of public health shall furnish the said administrator with such advice and 62 assistance as he may request for the purpose of administering the provisions of this paragraph.

63 Subject to the approval of the commissioner of administration and the governor, the said 64 administrator, in making or amending the rules and regulations provided by this section may 65 make reasonable differences between the rules and regulations applicable to employees and the 66 rules and regulations applicable to managers.

67 All rules, amendments thereto, and determinations made in accordance with this section 68 shall be open to public inspection in the files of the department, and copies thereof shall be 69 available to officers and employees of the commonwealth upon request. Such rules and 70 amendments thereto shall comply with filing provisions of section five of chapter thirty A and 71 such regulations shall not take effect until so filed.

72 Said administrator may enter into agreements with the federal government and other 73 public agencies, departments, boards, commissions, divisions, bureaus, authorities or other 74 instrumentalities of the commonwealth for the conduct of training for state managerial personnel.
