HOUSE No. 3612

By Mr. Fernandes of Falmouth, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3612) of Dylan Fernandes and others that the Municipal Police Training Committee be authorized to develop a fair and impartial policing course. Public Safety and Homeland Security.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act requiring implicit bias training for law enforcement officers.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 41 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 96B the 2 following section:-

3 Section 96C. The municipal police training committee, hereinafter the committee, shall 4 develop an in-person, fair and impartial policing course, based off of the similar, existing course 5 material on fair and impartial policing developed by the committee. The committee shall 6 establish the Massachusetts Policy and Procedures for Implicit Bias Training, which shall set 7 forth training requirements and establish minimum standards that law enforcement agencies
8 throughout the commonwealth shall implement in their practices and training of law enforcement 9 officers.

10 Every police officer employed on a full-time basis in the police department of any city or 11 town, the Massachusetts State Police department, the Massachusetts Environmental Police
12 department, or the University of Massachusetts police department shall attend a 3 hour, in-person

13 professional development and training course on fair and impartial policing developed by the 14 committee, at least once in every 3 year period of employment. Upon completion, participating 15 officers shall receive certificates of completion that they shall submit to the committee.

16 The course shall be incorporated into the committee's basic recruit officer training 17 curriculum. Every recruit officer in a police academy in the commonwealth shall, prior to 18 completing their police academy training, complete a 3 hour, in-person professional development 19 and training course on fair and impartial policing developed by the committee.

20 The committee shall promulgate rules and regulations necessary to carry out this section, 21 and shall begin offering and requiring fair and impartial policing courses as required by this 22 section in their 2018 training year.
