An Act relative to veterans property tax abatements.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 5 of chapter 59 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2   Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the words “Twenty-second G”, in line 9,
3   the following:-

4           , Twenty-second H, Twenty-second I.

5           SECTION 2. Said section 5 of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 6   inserting after clause Seventeenth E, the following clause:-

7           Seventeenth F, Notwithstanding any provision of general or special law to the contrary,
8   an abatement granted pursuant to clause Seventeenth, Seventeenth C, Seventeenth C 1/2 or 9   Seventeenth D may be increased annually in the discretion of a city or town by an amount not to 10   exceed the increase in the cost of living as determined by the Consumer Price Index for such 11   year. This clause shall take effect in a city or town upon its acceptance by such city or town.

SECTION 3. Clause Eighteenth A of said section 5 of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 556, after the words “the property or,” the following:- 1 year after.

SECTION 4. Clause Twenty-second A of said section 5 of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 688, after the words “air force cross”, the following:-

, or who is or was a prisoner of war defined as any regularly appointed, enrolled, enlisted, or inducted member of the military forces of the United States who was captured, separated and incarcerated by an enemy of the United States during an armed conflict.

SECTION 5. Said section 5 of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out clauses Twenty-second F and Twenty-second G.

SECTION 6. Said section 5 of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is hereby amended by inserting after clause Twenty-second E, the following clauses:-

Twenty-second F, Real estate of soldiers and sailors who are veterans, as defined in clause Forty-third of section 7 of chapter 4, and their spouses who, according to the records of the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or of any branch of the armed forces of the United States by reason of injury received while in service and in the line of duty are paraplegics or have a disability rating of 100 per cent for service-connected blindness; provided, however, that the veteran or spouse shall be a legal resident of the commonwealth, the veteran's last discharge or release from the armed forces was under other than dishonorable conditions and the veteran was domiciled in the commonwealth for at least 6 months prior to entering service or resided in the commonwealth for 5 consecutive years prior to the date of filing for exemption pursuant to this clause; provided, further, that the real estate is occupied as the veteran's domicile; provided, further, that if the property is greater than a single-family house, then only that value of so much of the house as is occupied by the person as the person's domicile shall be exempted; and provided, further, that an exemption pursuant to this clause shall continue unchanged for the benefit of the surviving spouse after the death of the disabled veteran as long as the surviving spouse of the qualified veteran shall remain an owner and occupant of a domicile subject to the exemption.

No real estate shall be exempt if the assessors adjudge that it has been conveyed to a soldier or sailor to evade taxation.

After the assessors have allowed an exemption pursuant to this clause, no further evidence of the existence of the facts required by this clause shall be required in any subsequent year in the city or town in which the exemption has been allowed; provided, however, that the assessors may refuse to allow an exemption in any subsequent year if they become aware that the soldier or sailor did not satisfy all of the requisites of this clause at the time the exemption was first granted.

Two thousand dollars of this exemption or up to $175, whichever basis is applicable, shall be borne by the city or town and the balance shall be borne by the commonwealth; provided; however, that the state treasurer shall annually reimburse the city or town for the amount of the tax which otherwise would have been collected on account of this balance.

Twenty-second G, Real estate, in any city or town that accepts this clause, that is the residence or domicile of a soldier, sailor or veteran as defined in clause Forty-third of section 7 of chapter 4 or that was the residence or domicile of such soldier, sailor or veteran at the time of such soldier, sailor or veteran's death and that has been transferred or conveyed to a trust or conservatorship or through any other legal instrument passing ownership from the soldier, sailor or veteran to such soldier, sailor or veteran's spouse or surviving spouse; provided, however, that this abatement or exemption shall be equivalent in amount to and bound by all the applicable provisions of any single abatement or exemption under clauses Twenty-second to Twenty-second F, inclusive, that would be available to the residence or domicile were it not so transferred or conveyed; provided further, that the residence or domicile shall be entitled to lawfully retain that tax abatement or exemption until the later of the death of the soldier, sailor or veteran, or the death of such soldier, sailor or veteran's surviving spouse; and provided further, that the soldier, sailor or veteran or the surviving spouse shall remain residing in the residence or domicile until their respective deaths.

Twenty-second H, Real estate of the owner, lessor or sublessor of a dwelling unit rented to soldiers and sailors who are veterans, as defined in clause Forty-third of section 7 of chapter 4, their spouses and dependents as defined by section 152 of the Internal Revenue Code of the United States, as amended and in effect for the taxable year, who are legal residents of the commonwealth, whose last discharge or release from the armed forces was under other than dishonorable conditions, and who were domiciled in Massachusetts for at least 6 months prior to entering such service, or who have resided in the commonwealth for 5 consecutive years next prior to date of filing for exemption under this clause; provided: (A) that such real estate is occupied as a domicile by the veteran, their spouse or dependent; (B) that if said property be greater than a single-family house then only that value of so much of said house as is occupied by the veteran, their spouse or dependent as a domicile; and (C) that said dwelling unit is leased at a reduced rate of $200 per month below fair market rent, defined as the small area fair market rent as established by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to section 888.113(c) of Title 24 of the Code of Federal Regulations or, if no small area fair market rent exists for such dwelling unit, then the fair market rent as published by the United States Department of Housing and Urban Development pursuant to 1437f of Title 42 of the United States Code. The amount of actual taxes due shall not be reduced by more than $1,000 under this clause. This clause shall take effect upon its acceptance by any city or town.

Twenty-second I, Real estate to the full amount of the taxable valuation of real property of the surviving parents or guardians of soldiers and sailors, members of the National Guard and veterans who: (i) during active duty service, suffered an injury or illness documented by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs or a branch of the armed forces which was a proximate cause of their death; or (ii) are missing in action with a presumptive finding of death as a result of active duty service as members of the armed forces of the United States; provided, however, that the real estate shall be occupied by the surviving parents or guardians as the surviving parents' or guardians' domicile; and provided further, that the surviving parents or guardians shall have been domiciled in the commonwealth for the 5 consecutive years immediately before the date of filing for an exemption pursuant to this clause or the soldier or sailor, member of the National Guard or veteran was domiciled in the commonwealth for at least 6 months before entering service.

Surviving parents or guardians eligible for an exemption pursuant to this clause shall be eligible regardless of when the soldier, sailor, member of the National Guard or veteran died or became missing in action with a presumptive finding of death; provided, however, that the exemption shall only apply to tax years beginning on or after January 1, 2019. Such exemption shall be available until such time as the surviving parents or guardians die.

102           No real estate shall be so exempt which has been conveyed to the surviving parents or 103   guardians to evade taxation. This clause shall take effect upon its acceptance by any city or town.

104           Twenty-second J, The exemptions, abatements, amounts of the exemptions and 105   abatements borne by a city or town and reimbursement limits set forth in clauses Twenty-second,
106   Twenty-second A, Twenty-second B, Twenty-second C, Twenty-second E and Twenty-second F
107   shall be increased annually by an amount equal to the increase in the Consumer Price Index
108   published by the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, for such year.
109   The department of revenue shall annually inform each city or town of the amount of this 110   increase.

111           Twenty-second K, Notwithstanding this section, in any city or town which accepts this 112   clause, the exemptions available pursuant to clauses Twenty-second, Twenty-second A, Twenty-113   second B, Twenty-second C, Twenty-second D, Twenty-second E, Twenty-second F, Twenty-114   second H and Twenty-second I may be granted to otherwise eligible persons who have resided in 115   the commonwealth for 1 year prior to the date of filing for exemptions pursuant to the applicable 116   clause.

117           SECTION 7. Clause Fifty-fifth of said section 5 of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is 118   hereby amended by striking out the second paragraph.

119           SECTION 8. Section 5N of said chapter 59, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 120   striking out, in lines 16 and 43, the figure “$1,000” and inserting in place thereof the following 121   figure:- $1,500.

122           SECTION 9. Section 6 of chapter 64H, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking 123   out subsection (u) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

124           (u) Sale or lease of a motor vehicle purchased by or leased to and for the use of a person
125   who has suffered loss, or permanent loss of use of, both legs or both arms or one leg and one arm 126   or purchased by or leased to and for the use of a veteran who has been determined to be 127   permanently disabled by the medical advisory board established pursuant to section 8C of 128   chapter 90 and has been issued a disabled veteran number plate pursuant to section 2 of said
129   chapter 90. This exemption shall apply to 1 motor vehicle only owned or leased and registered 130   for the personal, noncommercial use of such person.

131           SECTION 10. This act shall take effect on July 1, 2018.
