An Act removing fees for security freezes and disclosures of consumer credit reports.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 50 of chapter 93 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2   Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting before the definition of “Consumer” the 3   following definition:-

4           “Breach of security”, shall have the same meaning as in section 1 of chapter 93H.

5           SECTION 2. Said section 50 of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby further 6   amended by inserting after the definition of “Person” the following definition:-

7           “Personal information”, shall have the same meaning as in section 1 of chapter 93H.

8           SECTION 3. Said chapter 93 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 51A
9   the following section:-

10          Section 51B. A user shall not obtain, use or seek the consumer report of a consumer in 11   connection with an application for credit unless the user obtains the written, verbal or electronic

PUBLISHED AS CORRECTED

12 consent of the consumer, as is appropriate in the manner in which an application for credit is 13 made.

14 A waiver of this section shall be void and a user shall not require or request that a 15 consumer waive this section. Failure to comply with this section shall constitute an unfair 16 practice pursuant to subsection (a) of section 2 of chapter 93A.

17 SECTION 4. Said chapter 93 is hereby amended by striking out section 56, as appearing 18 in the 2016 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

19 Section 56. (a) Every consumer reporting agency shall, upon request and proper 20 identification of any consumer, clearly and accurately disclose to the consumer:

21 (1) the nature, contents and substance of all information, except medical information, in 22 its file on the consumer at the time of the request, and which is obtainable based upon the 23 identifying information supplied by the consumer when making such request, and if such 24 consumer has made a written request, delivered a written copy, photocopy or electronic copy, of 25 all such information except any code identifications which are used solely for purposes of 26 transferring such information to and from consumer reporting agencies; provided, however, that 27 the names of the users corresponding to the code identifications shall be disclosed to the 28 consumer; and provided, further, that the agency shall provide a clear, simple and plain meaning 29 explanation of the information provided under this paragraph and such explanation shall be in a 30 readable format and type, which shall in no case be smaller than 10 point type;

31 (2) the sources of all credit information obtained through routine credit reporting or 32 through any other credit reporting techniques in the file at the time of the request, except that the 33 sources of information acquired solely for use in preparing an investigative consumer report and

34 actually used for no other purpose need not be disclosed; provided, however, that in the event an 35 action is brought pursuant to section 65, such sources shall be available to the plaintiff under 36 appropriate discovery procedures in the court in which the action is brought; and 37 (3) the recipients of any consumer report on the consumer which it has furnished for 38 employment purposes within the 2-year period preceding the request, and for any other purpose 39 within the 6-month period preceding the request.

40 (b) Every consumer reporting agency, upon contact by a consumer by phone, mail or 41 electronically, or in person regarding information which may be contained in the agency files 42 regarding that consumer, shall with each written disclosure, or in response to a request by the 43 consumer to be advised as to his rights, promptly advise the consumer of the consumer's rights 44 under this section. The written notice shall be in a clear and conspicuous format and be no 45 smaller than 10 point type. The notice shall inform the consumer of the consumer's rights under 46 this chapter, provided in a clear and conspicuous manner, in substantially the following manner:

47 "You have a right to obtain a copy of your credit file from a consumer credit reporting 48 agency. You may be charged a reasonable fee not exceeding $8. There is no fee, however, if you 49 have been turned down for credit, employment, insurance, or rental dwelling because of 50 information in your credit report within the preceding 60 days. The consumer credit reporting 51 agency must provide someone to help you interpret the information in your credit file. Each 52 calendar year you are entitled to receive, upon request, one free consumer credit report.

53 You have a right to dispute inaccurate information by contacting the consumer reporting 54 agency directly, either in writing, by electronic mail, through the credit reporting agency website, 55 or by telephone. The consumer reporting agency shall provide, upon request and without

PUBLISHED AS CORRECTED

56 unreasonable delay, a live representative of the consumer reporting agency to assist in dispute 57 resolution whenever possible and practicable, or to the extent consistent with federal law.
58 However, neither you nor any credit repair company or credit service organization has the right 59 to have accurate, current, and verifiable information removed from your credit report. In most 60 cases, under state and federal law, the consumer credit reporting agency must remove accurate, 61 negative information from your report only if it is over 7 years old, and must remove bankruptcy 62 information only if it is over 10 years old.

63         If you have notified a consumer credit reporting agency in writing that you dispute the 64 accuracy of information in your file, the consumer credit reporting agency must then, within 30
65 business days, reinvestigate and modify or remove inaccurate information. The consumer credit 66 reporting agency may not charge a fee for this service. Any pertinent information and copies of 67 all documents you have concerning a dispute should be given to the consumer credit reporting 68 agency.

69         If reinvestigation does not resolve the dispute to your satisfaction, you may send a 70 statement to the consumer credit reporting agency to keep in your file, explaining why you think 71 the record is inaccurate. The consumer credit reporting agency must include your statement 72 about the disputed information in a report it issues about you.

73         You have a right to receive a record of all inquiries relating to a credit transaction 74 initiated in the 6 months preceding your request, or 2 years in the case of a credit report used for 75 employment purposes. This record shall include the recipients of any consumer credit report.

76         You have the right to opt out of any prescreening lists compiled by or with the assistance 77 of a consumer credit reporting agency by calling the agency's toll-free telephone number, or

PUBLISHED AS CORRECTED

78 contacting the agency electronically or in writing. You may be entitled to collect compensation, 79 in certain circumstances, if you are damaged by a person's negligent or intentional failure to 80 comply with the credit reporting act.

81         You have a right to request a "security freeze" on your consumer report. The security 82 freeze will prohibit a consumer reporting agency from releasing any information in your 83 consumer report without your express authorization. A security freeze shall be requested by 84 sending a request either by certified mail, overnight mail, regular stamped mail or electronically 85 to a consumer reporting agency, or as authorized by regulation. The security freeze is designed to 86 prevent credit, loans or services from being approved in your name without your consent. You 87 should be aware that using a security freeze may delay, interfere with, or prevent the timely 88 approval of any subsequent request or application you make regarding new loans, credit, 89 mortgage, insurance, government services or payments, rental housing, employment, investment, 90 license, cellular phone, utilities, digital signature, internet credit card transactions, or other 91 services, including an extension of credit at point of sale.

92         When you place a security freeze on your consumer report, within 3 business days of 93 receiving your request for a security freeze, the consumer reporting agency shall send a written 94 or electronic confirmation of the security freeze and shall provide you with a personal 95 identification number or password to use if you choose to remove the freeze on your consumer 96 report or to authorize the release of your consumer report to a specific party or for a specified 97 period of time after the freeze is in place. To provide that authorization, you must contact the 98 consumer reporting agency and provide the following:-

PUBLISHED AS CORRECTED

99 (1) the personal identification number or password provided by the consumer reporting 100 agency;

101 (2) proper identification to verify your identity; and

102 (3) the third party or parties who are to receive the consumer report or the specified 103 period of time for which the report shall be available to authorized users of the consumer report.

104 A consumer reporting agency that receives a request from a consumer to lift a freeze on a 105 consumer report in writing by certified mail shall comply with the request not later than 3 106 business days after receiving the request; provided however, a consumer reporting agency that 107 receives such request electronically or by telephone shall comply with the request as soon as 108 practicable and without unreasonable delay, but not later than 15 minutes after receiving the 109 request.

110 A security freeze shall not apply to a person or entity, or to its affiliates, or collection 111 agencies acting on behalf of the person or entity, with which you have an existing account, that 112 requests information relative to your consumer report for the purposes of reviewing or collecting 113 the account. "Reviewing the account" includes activities related to account maintenance, 114 monitoring, credit line increases, and account upgrades and enhancements."

115 SECTION 5. Section 57 of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 116 striking out, in line 13, the word "only." and inserting in place thereof the following words:- 117 only; or

118 (4) by electronic means if the consumer has made a written, verbal or electronic request, 119 with proper identification.

120 SECTION 6. Section 62A of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 121 inserting after the words “requests, or by”, in line 10, the following words:- , or by secure 122 website, telephone or.

123 SECTION 7. Said section 62A of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby further 124 amended by striking out the third paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 125 paragraph:-

126 A consumer reporting agency shall place a security freeze on a consumer report not later 127 than 3 business days after receiving a written request from the consumer by mail. A consumer 128 reporting agency that receives such request electronically or by telephone shall comply with the 129 request no later than 1 business day after receiving the request. The consumer reporting agency 130 shall send a written or electronic confirmation of the security freeze to the consumer within 3 131 business days after receiving the request and shall provide the consumer with a unique personal 132 identification number or a unique password, or both, to be used by the consumer for the purpose 133 of providing authorization for the removal or lifting of the security freeze.

134 SECTION 8. The fifth paragraph of said section 62A of said chapter 93, as so appearing, 135 is hereby amended by adding the following sentence:- A consumer reporting agency that 136 receives such request electronically or by telephone shall comply with the request as soon as 137 practicable and without unreasonable delay, not later than 15 minutes of receiving the request.

138 SECTION 9. Said section 62A of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby further 139 amended by inserting after the word “writing”, in line 43, the following words:- or 140 electronically.

141 SECTION 10. Said section 62A of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby further 142 amended by striking out the ninth paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following 2 143 paragraphs:-

144 A consumer reporting agency shall remove a security freeze within 3 business days of 145 receiving a written request for removal from a consumer who provides both proper identification 146 and the personal identification number or password provided by the consumer reporting agency 147 pursuant to this section. A consumer reporting agency shall remove a security freeze within 15 148 minutes of receiving an electronic or telephone request for removal from a consumer who 149 provides both proper identification and the personal identification number or password provided 150 by the consumer reporting agency pursuant to this section.

151 A consumer reporting agency need not remove a security freeze within the time provided 152 in this section if failure to do so resulted from: (i) an act of God, war, natural disaster or strike; 153 (ii) unauthorized or illegal acts by a third party; (iii) operational interruption; (iv) governmental 154 action; (v) regularly scheduled maintenance, except during normal business hours, of, or updates 155 to the consumer reporting agency's systems; (vi) commercially reasonable maintenance or repair 156 of the consumer reporting agency's systems that is unexpected or unscheduled; or (vii) receipt of 157 a removal request outside of normal business hours.

158 SECTION 11. Said section 62A of said chapter 93, as so appearing, is hereby further 159 amended by striking out the eleventh paragraph and inserting the following 2 paragraphs:-

160 A consumer reporting agency shall not charge a fee to any consumer who elects to freeze, 161 lift or remove a security freeze from a consumer report.

162 A consumer reporting agency that compiles and maintains files on consumers on a 163 nationwide basis and receives a request by a consumer for a security freeze shall identify, to the 164 best of its knowledge, any other consumer reporting agency that compiles and maintains files on 165 consumers on a nationwide basis and inform consumers of appropriate websites, toll-free 166 telephone numbers and mailing addresses that would permit the consumer to place, lift or 167 remove a security freeze from such other consumer reporting agency. The consumer reporting 168 agencies subject to this section may establish a centralized source, including, but not limited to, a 169 website, that directs a consumer to such websites, toll-free telephone numbers and mailing 170 addresses.

171 SECTION 12. Said chapter 93 is hereby further amended by inserting after section 62A
172 the following section:-

173 Section 62B. (a) For the purposes of this section, the following words shall have the 174 following meanings:-

175 “Protected consumer”, an individual who is under 16 years of age at the time a request 176 for the placement of a security freeze is made, or an incapacitated person or a protected person as 177 such are defined in section 5-101 of article V of chapter 190B.

178 “Record”, a compilation of information that identifies a protected consumer created by a 179 consumer reporting agency solely for the purpose of complying with this section. This record 180 may not be created or used to consider the protected consumer’s credit worthiness, credit 181 standing, credit capacity, character, general reputation, personal characteristics or mode of living.

182 “Representative”, a person who provides to a consumer reporting agency sufficient proof 183 of authority to act on behalf of a protected consumer.

184 “Security freeze”, (1) if a consumer reporting agency does not have a file that pertains to 185 a protected consumer, a restriction that; (i) is placed on the protected consumer’s record in 186 accordance with this section, and (ii) except as otherwise provided in this section, prohibits the 187 consumer reporting agency from releasing the protected consumer’s record; or (2) if a consumer 188 reporting agency has a file that pertains to the protected consumer, a restriction that prevents the 189 consumer reporting agency from releasing the protected consumer’s consumer report or any 190 information derived from the protected consumer’s consumer report.

191 “Sufficient proof of authority”, documentation that shows a representative has authority 192 to act on behalf of a protected consumer, including but not limited to, an order issued by a court 193 of law, a lawfully executed and valid power of attorney or a written, notarized statement signed 194 by a representative that expressly describes the authority of the representative to act on behalf of 195 a protected consumer.

196 “Sufficient proof of identification”, information or documentation that identifies a 197 protected consumer or a representative of a protected consumer, including but not limited to, a 198 social security number or a copy of a social security card issued by the social security 199 administration, a certified or official copy of a birth certificate issued by the entity authorized to 200 issue the birth certificate, or a copy of a driver’s license, an identification card issued by the 201 motor vehicle administration, or any other government issued identification.

202 (b) This section shall not apply to the use of a protected consumer’s consumer report or 203 record by any of the following:-

204 (1) a person or agent thereof, or an assignee of a financial obligation owing by the 205 consumer to such person or agent thereof, or a prospective assignee of a financial obligation

PUBLISHED AS CORRECTED

206 owing by the consumer to that person or agent thereof in conjunction with the proposed purchase 207 of the financial obligation, with which the consumer has or had, prior to assignment, an account 208 or contract, including a demand deposit account, or to whom the consumer issued a negotiable 209 instrument, for the purposes of reviewing the account or collecting the financial obligation owing 210 for the account, contract or negotiable instrument. For purposes of this paragraph, "reviewing the 211 account" shall include activities related to account maintenance, monitoring, credit line increases 212 and account upgrades and enhancements; or access to said account by a subsidiary, affiliate, 213 agent, assignee or prospective assignee of a person, or agent thereof, to whom access has been 214 granted for purposes of facilitating the extension of credit or other permissible use;

215 (2) any federal, state or local agency, law enforcement agency, or trial court acting 216 pursuant to a court order, warrant or subpoena;

217 (3) the Massachusetts child support agency under Title IV-D of the Social Security Act, 218 42 U.S.C. et seq.;

219 (4) the executive office of health and human services or its agents or assigns acting to 220 investigate Medicaid fraud;

221 (5) the department of revenue or its agents or assignees acting to investigate or collect 222 delinquent taxes or unpaid court orders or to fulfill any of its other statutory responsibilities;

223 (6) a person using credit information for the purposes of prescreening as provided for by 224 the federal Fair Credit Reporting Act;

225 (7) any person administering a credit file monitoring subscription service to which the 226 protected consumer has subscribed or the protected consumer's representative has subscribed on 227 the protected consumer's behalf;

228 (8) a person who, upon request from the protected consumer or the protected consumer's 229 representative, provides the protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative with 230 a copy of the protected consumer's consumer report;

231 (9) to the extent otherwise allowed by statute, any property and casualty insurer licensed 232 by the commonwealth for use in rating or underwriting insurance policies;

233 (10) a check services or fraud prevention services company that issues reports on 234 incidents of fraud or authorizations for the purpose of approving or processing negotiable 235 instruments, electronic funds transfers, or similar payment methods;

236 (11) a deposit account information service company that issues reports regarding account 237 closures due to fraud, substantial overdrafts, automated teller machine abuse or similar 238 information regarding a consumer to inquiring banks or other financial institutions for use only 239 in reviewing an individual's request for a deposit account at the inquiring bank or financial 240 institution;

241 (12) an insurance company for the purpose of conducting the insurance company's 242 ordinary business;

243 (13) a consumer reporting agency that only resells credit information by assembling and 244 merging information contained in a database of another consumer reporting agency or multiple 245 consumer reporting agencies and that does not maintain a permanent database of credit

246 information from which new consumer reports are produced, except that such financial 247 institution or consumer reporting agency shall be subject to any security freeze placed on a 248 consumer report by another consumer reporting agency from which it obtains information; or 249 (14) a consumer reporting agency's database or file that consists of information that; (a) 250 concerns and is used for criminal record information, fraud prevention or detection, personal loss 251 history information, or employment, tenant or individual background screening, and (b) is not 252 used for credit granting purposes.

253 (c) A consumer reporting agency shall place a security freeze on a consumer report for a 254 protected consumer if: (1) the consumer reporting agency receives a written, electronic or verbal 255 request from the protected consumer, or, if required by law, their representative, for the 256 placement of the security freeze; and (2) the protected consumer's representative submits to the 257 consumer reporting agency (i) sufficient proof of identification of the protected consumer, (ii) 258 sufficient proof of identification of the protected consumer's representative, and (iii) sufficient 259 proof of authority to act on behalf of the protected consumer.

260 If a consumer reporting agency does not have a file that pertains to a protected consumer 261 when the consumer reporting agency receives a request described in this section, the consumer 262 reporting agency shall create a record for the protected consumer.

263 A consumer reporting agency shall place a security freeze on a consumer report for a 264 protected consumer within 30 days of receiving a request for a security freeze on a consumer 265 report by a protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative.

266 (d) To remove a security freeze that is placed pursuant to this section, the protected 267 consumer's representative or the protected consumer shall submit a request for the removal of the 268 security freeze to the consumer reporting agency in writing, electronically or by telephone. In the 269 case of a request by a protected consumer's representative, sufficient proof of identification of 270 the protected consumer and the representative, and sufficient proof of authority to act on behalf 271 of the protected consumer shall be presented before the security freeze is lifted. In the case of a 272 request by a protected consumer who is subject to a security freeze, sufficient proof of 273 identification of the protected consumer and proof that the protected consumer is no longer a 274 protected consumer, including but not limited to, an order issued by a court, shall be presented 275 before the security freeze is lifted.

276 A consumer reporting agency shall remove the security freeze on a consumer report not 277 later than 30 business days after receiving a request to remove the security freeze from the 278 protected consumer or the protected consumer's representative.

279 A consumer reporting agency may remove a security freeze for a protected consumer or 280 delete a record of a protected consumer if the security freeze was placed or the record was 281 created based on a material misrepresentation of fact by the protected consumer or the protected 282 consumer's representative. A consumer reporting agency shall notify the protected consumer's 283 representative in writing or electronically 30 business days prior to removing a security freeze on 284 the protected consumer's consumer report or deleting a record of the protected consumer.

285 SECTION 13. Subsection (b) of section 3 of chapter 93H of the General Laws, as 286 appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out lines 45 through 52, 287 inclusive and inserting in place thereof the following two paragraphs:-

288 The notice to be provided to the resident shall include, but shall not be limited to; (i) the 289 consumer's right to obtain a police report, (ii) how a consumer requests a security freeze and the

290 necessary information to be provided when requesting the security freeze, (iii) and mitigation 291 services to be provided pursuant to this chapter; provided, however, that said notice shall not 292 include the nature of the breach or unauthorized acquisition or use, or the number of residents of 293 the commonwealth affected by said breach or unauthorized access or use. The person or agency 294 breached shall provide a sample copy of the notice it intends to distribute to consumers to the 295 attorney general and the office of consumer affairs and business regulation. The office of 296 consumer affairs and business regulation shall make available electronic copies of the breach 297 notices on its website and post the breach notice within 24 hours of receipt from the person or 298 agency. As practicable and as such not to impede active investigation by the attorney general, the 299 office of consumer affairs and business regulation shall update the breach notice on its website 300 over time as new information is discovered through the investigation process. The attorney 301 general shall provide information to consumers through its website on how consumers can access 302 the data breach notices posted by the office of consumer affairs and business regulation.

303         The notice to be provided under this section shall not be delayed on grounds that the total
304 number of residents affected is not yet ascertained. In such case, and where otherwise necessary 305 to update or correct the information required, a person or agency shall provide additional notice 306 as soon as practicable and without unreasonable delay upon learning such additional information.

307         [NO SECTION 14.]

308         SECTION 15. Said section 3 of said chapter 93H, as so appearing, is hereby further 309 amended by adding the following subsection:-

310         (d) If the person or agency that is breached is owned by another person or corporation, 311 the notice to the consumer shall include the name of parent or affiliated corporation.

PUBLISHED AS CORRECTED

312 SECTION 16. Said section 3 of said chapter 93H, as so appearing, is hereby further 313 amended by adding the following subsection:-

314 (e) If the breach of security includes a social security number, the person or agency shall 315 offer to each resident whose personal information, including social security number, was 316 breached or is reasonably believed to have been breached, credit monitoring services at no cost 317 to such resident for a period of 1 year. Such person or agency shall provide all information 318 necessary for such resident to enroll in such services and shall include information on how such 319 resident can place a security freeze on such resident's consumer report.
