Substituted by the House, on motion of Mr. Speliotis of Danvers, for a bill with the same title (House, No. 4341). June 4, 2018.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court
(2017-2018)

An Act authorizing the town of Falmouth to transfer a parcel of land commonly known as the Farley Bog.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the board of 2 selectmen of the town of Falmouth may sell a parcel of land, currently held for conservation, 3 known as the “Farley bog” and adjacent upland parcels located in East Falmouth, including, but 4 not limited to, the following parcels of land described as follows: (1) the land commonly 5 referred to as the Farley bog, assessor’s map 20 06 063 000, containing 12.5 acres more or less,
6 lying North of the road formerly known as the Meetinghouse Road in that part of Falmouth
7 known as Waquoit, together with the dike or dam at the South end of said bog; (2) a strip of land 8 15 feet in width adjacent to said bog on the South, adjoining said dike and running Westerly to 9 the Southwest corner of said bog; (3) a strip of land 200 feet in width, insofar as the ownership of 10 the town of Falmouth extends, on the west side of said bog; (4) a strip of land 100 feet in width
11 on the North and East sides of said bog insofar as the ownership of the town of Falmouth 12 extends; (5) any right, title or interest which the town may have in and to the stream known as 13 Childs river extending northerly from said Farley bog to certain bogs lying North of same and

14 called the Garner bogs; (6) all right, title or interest of the town of Falmouth in and to a strip of 15 land 50 feet in width along each side of said stream; (7) any swamp or bog owned by the town of 16 Falmouth through which said stream runs, and a strip of upland 50 feet in width adjacent to any 17 swamp or bog through which said stream runs, all as further described in and as may be limited 18 as to title within the deed dated April 29, 1981 and recorded with Barnstable county registry of 19 deeds in book 3292, page 22, to the care, custody, management and control of the Falmouth Rod 20 & Gun Club, Inc., for conservation, habitat improvement and recreation purposes; provided, that 21 a conservation restriction shall be held by the town of Falmouth acting through the Falmouth 22 conservation commission preserving the parcels described in this section in perpetuity for 23 conservation and recreation uses in accordance with sections 31 to 33, inclusive, of chapter 184
24 of the General Laws; and provided further, that the conservation restriction shall be subject to 25 and dedicated to the purposes of article 97 of the amendments to the Constitution of the 26 commonwealth.

27 SECTION 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
