The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act providing for the distribution of information on personal rights and resources be provided to those in the Criminal Offender Record Information (CORI) system.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 124 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding 2 the following subsection:-

3 (v) maintain a packet of informational materials, which shall be provided to persons 4 committed to the custody of the department prior to their release from a correctional facility.

5 Such informational materials shall contain, at a minimum: (i) a summary of how and by whom 6 the committed person’s criminal offender record information may be accessed and distributed 7 pursuant to sections 167 to 178B, inclusive, of chapter 6; (ii) an explanation of the process for 8 filing a complaint with the department of criminal justice information services regarding the 9 content of, dissemination of, or access to criminal offender record information; (iii) an

10 explanation of the right to have certain records sealed pursuant to section 100A of chapter 276

11 and a step by step explanation of the process for sealing such records; (iv) an explanation of the 12 duration of criminal offender record information; (v) contact information for relevant employees 13 and offices of the department; (vi) a list of websites with important background on, and 14 explanations of, criminal offender record information; and (vi) a list of answers to frequently 15 asked questions about criminal offender record information.

16 SECTION 2. Chapter 276 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 17 section 100D the following section:-

18 Section 100E. The commissioner of probation shall maintain a packet of informational 19 materials, which every probation officer shall provide to each probationer immediately upon a 20 probationer's assignment to the probation officer's care. Such informational materials shall 21 contain, at a minimum: (i) a summary of how and by whom the probationer's criminal offender 22 record information may be accessed and distributed pursuant to sections 167 to 178B, inclusive, 23 of chapter 6; (ii) an explanation of the process for filing a complaint with the department of 24 criminal justice information services regarding the content of, dissemination of, or access to 25 criminal offender record information; (iii) an explanation of the right to have certain records 26 sealed pursuant to section 100A and a step by step explanation of the process for sealing such 27 records; (iv) an explanation of the duration of criminal offender record information; (v) contact 28 information for relevant employees and offices of the office of probation; (vi) a list of websites 29 with important background on, and explanations of, criminal offender record information; and 30 (vi) a list of answers to frequently asked questions about criminal offender record information;
31 provided, however, that a probation officer shall not be required to provide such informational 32 materials to probationers who have received the same such materials from the department of 33 corrections within the past year.

34 SECTION 3. The department of correction shall, in coordination with the department of 35 criminal justice information services and the office of probation, develop the informational
36 materials required by sections 1 and 2 on or before the first of January of the year following 37 enactment.

38

39 SECTION 4. The department of correction shall, in coordination with the department of 40 criminal justice information services and the office of probation, provide the informational 41 materials required by sections 1 and 2 to those persons who were previously in the custody of the 42 department of correction but were released from such custody prior to the effective date of said
43 sections 1 and 2, by mailing the informational materials to the person's last known mailing 44 address. Such mailings shall be completed on or before the end of December of the year in which 45 this legislation is enacted.

46

47 SECTION 5. Sections 1 and 2 shall take effect on the first of January of the year 48 following enactment.
