The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act to protect victims of rape and children conceived during the commission of said offense.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to protect rape victims and their children and to ensure that convicted rapists cannot use the court system to further assault said rape victim, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Subsection (a) of section 3 of chapter 209C of the General Laws, as 2 appearing in the 2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the last sentence.

4 SECTION 2. The first paragraph of subsection (e) of section 10 of said chapter 209C, as 5 so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last sentence.

6 SECTION 3. Said chapter 209C is hereby amended by inserting after section 10 the 7 following section:-

8 Section 10A. (a) (1) Upon or after the adjudication of an assault or rape under 9 section 13B to 13B 3/4, inclusive, 13F, 13H, or 22 to 23B, inclusive, of chapter 265, or section 2, 10 3, 4 or 17 of chapter 272, a court in which the defendant in any such matter files a petition to 11 determine paternity or for any matters related to the custody of or visitation with a child shall 12 hold a hearing to determine if the child was conceived during the commission of said offense.

14 (2) If the court finds upon a showing by a preponderance of evidence that a child was 15 conceived during the commission of said offense and the defendant is the biological source of 16 the child's conception: (1) a presumption shall be established that the defendant is unfit and it is 17 not in the best interests of the child to be placed in sole custody, shared legal custody, or shared 18 physical custody with the defendant; provided that, the only way such presumption may be 19 overcome with regard to shared legal custody or shared physical custody but not sole custody
20 only upon petition by the rape victim and a written finding by the Judge on a clear and 21 convincing evidence standard that the defendant is a fit parent and as such shared legal custody
22 or shared physical custody is by the Judge's written finding of facts in the best interests of the 23 child.; (2) the court may require the convicted defendant to pay monetary restitution for the 24 consequences of conception during nonconsensual sexual conduct (pursuant to MGL Ch 119A)
25 and any modification of an order or judgment resulting from such support action; (3)

26 the court may make a new custody order as to the legal and physical custodial rights of 27 the defendant; and (4) the court may modify any previous award granted to the defendant for sole 28 custody, shared legal custody or shared physical custody of the child.

29 (b) Notwithstanding section 10, no court shall make an order providing visitation rights 30 to a person who is the biological source of a child's conception if that person was convicted of,
31 was granted a continuance without a finding for or otherwise pleaded guilty to an assault or rape
32 under section 13B to 13B 3/4, inclusive, 13F, 13H, or 22 to 23B, inclusive, of chapter 265, or 33 section 2, 3, 4 or 17 of chapter 272 and is seeking to obtain visitation with the child who was 34 conceived during the commission of that offense.

35 (c) In cases where there has been no conviction, continuance without a finding for or 36 otherwise a plea of guilty to an assault or rape under section 13B to 13B 3/4, inclusive, 13F, 37 13H, or 22 to 23B, inclusive, of chapter 265, or section 2, 3, 4 or 17 of chapter 272, upon any 38 complaint to establish paternity and any request for custody or visitation under said complaint, 39 the court shall consider evidence that such conduct occurred that would constitute a crime under 40 said sections. If a court finds by clear and convincing evidence that such conduct occurred and 41 a preponderance of evidence that the child that is the subject of the complaint was conceived
42 during the commission of such conduct, (1) a presumption shall be established that the defendant 43 is unfit and it is not in the best interests of the child to be placed in sole custody, shared legal 44 custody, or shared physical custody with the defendant; provided that, the only way such 45 presumption may be overcome with regard to shared legal custody or shared physical custody
46 but not sole custody only upon petition by the rape victim and a written finding by the Judge on a 47 clear and convincing evidence standard that the defendant is a fit parent and as such shared legal 48 custody or shared physical custody is (by the Judge's written finding of facts) in the best interests

49 of the child; (2) the court may require the convicted defendant to pay monetary restitution for the
51 and any modification of an order or judgment resulting from such support action; (3)

52 the court may make a new custody order as to the legal and physical custodial rights of 53 the defendant; and (4) the court may modify any previous award granted to the defendant for sole
54 custody, shared legal custody or shared physical custody of the child and (5) visitation may only 55 be ordered upon petition by the rape victim and a written finding by the Judge that such 56 visitation is in the best interest of the child.

57 SECTION 4. Chapter 215 is hereby amended by inserting in section 3 the following 58 section (d) and renaming the current section (d) section (e):

59 In consideration of a petition to dispense with parental rights to consent to an adoption, if 60 that person was convicted of, was granted a continuance without a finding for or otherwise 61 pleaded guilty to an assault or rape under section 13B to 13B 3/4, inclusive, 13F, 13H, or 22 to 62 23B, inclusive, of chapter 265, or section 2, 3, 4 or 17 of chapter 272 or if after a hearing the 63 court finds by clear and convincing evidence that conduct occurred that would constitute a crime 64 under said sections and the court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the child that is 65 the subject of the petition to dispense with need for the consent of said parent was conceived 66 during the commission of such offense or conduct, there shall be an irrebuttable presumption that 67 said parent is unfit and that it is in the best interests of the child to dispense with the need for 68 consent to adoption by the parent who committed such offense or conduct.
