SENATE No. 1119

By Mr. Brady, a petition (accompanied by bill, Senate, No. 1119) of Michael D. Brady, Viriato M. deMacedo, Jennifer L. Flanagan, Jack Lewis and other members of the General Court for legislation to establish three new commissions on the status of women and girls. Municipalities and Regional Government.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act establishing three new commissions on the status of women and girls.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) There shall be an Eastern Regional commission on the status of women
2 which shall consist of 9 persons to be appointed by the commission on the status of women
3 established in section 66 of chapter 3 of the General Laws. The Eastern Regional commission 4 shall conduct an ongoing study of all matters concerning women in Eastern Regional 5 communities. The Eastern Regional commission shall report its findings to the commission on 6 the status of women annually, not later than June 2, and shall recommend solutions to the 7 problems facing women in Eastern Regional communities. The commission on the status of 8 women shall make appointments to the Eastern Regional commission from a pool of applicants 9 who reside in Eastern Regional communities. For the purpose of this act, “Eastern Regional 10 communities” shall include: the towns of Avon, Brookline, Canton, Cohasset, Dedham, 11 Foxborough, Holbrook, Hull, Milton, Plainville, Sharon, Stoughton, and Westwood, and the 12 cities of Boston, Braintree, Chelsea, Quincy, Randolph, Revere, Weymouth, and Winthrop.

13 (b) Members shall serve for 3-year terms and shall continue in office until their 14 successors are appointed. Members shall not be reappointed for more than 2 consecutive terms;
15 provided, however, that former members may reapply to serve on the commission after 1 year
16 has passed since their last term. Of the initial members appointed to the Eastern Regional 17 commission on the status of women, 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 1 year, 3
18 members shall be appointed for a term of 2 years, and 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 19 3 years.

20 (c) Vacancies in the membership of the Eastern Regional commission on the status of 21 women shall be filled by the commission on the status of women for the balance of the unexpired
22 term.

23 (d) In making appointments to the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women,
24 the commission on the status of women shall consult with women's organizations. Nominations
25 shall be solicited between August 1 and September 16 annually through an open application that 26 is widely distributed throughout the Eastern Regional communities. Members of the commission 27 shall be diverse and represent different Eastern Regional communities.

28 (e) Members shall serve on the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women as 29 volunteers and shall not be compensated.

30 (f) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women shall elect from among its 31 members a chair, a vice chair, a treasurer, and any other officers as it deems necessary.

32 (g) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women shall meet at least 4 times
33 a year, at the members' discretion. Members of the commission on the status of women may 34 attend the meetings of the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women.

35 (h) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women may accept and solicit 36 funds, including any gifts, donations, grants or bequests and federal funds for any of the purposes
37 of this act. The funds shall be deposited in a separate account to be expended at the discretion of 38 the commission.

39 (i) The Eastern Regional commission on the status of women may: (i) use voluntary and 40 uncompensated services of private individuals, agencies and organizations as may, from time to 41 time, be offered or required; (ii) recommend policies and make recommendations to state and 42 local agencies and officers to effectuate the purposes of the commission; (iii) enact by-laws for 43 its own governance; (iv) hold regular public meetings, conduct fact-finding hearings and hold 44 other public forums as it deems necessary; and (v) take other actions as it deems necessary to 45 effectuate its purposes.

46 SECTION 2. (a) There shall be an Upper Middlesex commission on the status of 47 women which shall consist of 9 persons to be appointed by the commission on the status of 48 women established in section 66 of chapter 3 of the General Laws. The Upper Middlesex 49 commission shall conduct an ongoing study of all matters concerning women in Upper 50 Middlesex communities. The Upper Middlesex commission shall report its findings to the 51 commission on the status of women annually, not later than June 2, and shall recommend 52 solutions to the problems facing women in Upper Middlesex communities. The commission on 53 the status of women shall make appointments to the Upper Middlesex commission from a pool 54 of applicants who reside in Upper Middlesex communities. For the purpose of this act, "Upper 55 Middlesex communities" shall include: the towns of Acton, Arlington, Ashby, Ayer, Bedford, 56 Belmont, Billerica, Boxborough, Burlington, Carlisle, Chelmsford, Concord, Dracut, Dunstable, 57 Groton, Lexington, Lincoln, Littleton, North Reading, Pepperell, Reading, Shirley, Stoneham,

58 Tewksbury, Townsend, Tyngsborough, Wakefield, Westford, Wilmington, Winchester, and the 59 cities of Cambridge, Everett, Lowell, Malden, Medford, Melrose, Newton, Somerville, Waltham, 60 Watertown, and Woburn.

61 (b) Members shall serve for 3-year terms and shall continue in office until their 62 successors are appointed. Members shall not be reappointed for more than 2 consecutive terms;
63 provided, however, that former members may reapply to serve on the commission after 1 year
64 has passed since their last term. Of the initial members appointed to the Upper Middlesex
65 commission on the status of women, 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 1 year, 3
66 members shall be appointed for a term of 2 years, and 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 67 3 years.

68 (c) Vacancies in the membership of the Upper Middlesex commission on the status of 69 women shall be filled by the commission on the status of women for the balance of the unexpired
70 term.

71 (d) In making appointments to the Upper Middlesex commission on the status of women,
72 the commission on the status of women shall consult with women's organizations. Nominations
73 shall be solicited between August 1 and September 16 annually through an open application that 74 is widely distributed throughout the Upper Middlesex communities. Members of the 75 commission shall be diverse and represent different Upper Middlesex communities.

76 (e) Members shall serve on the Upper Middlesex commission on the status of women as 77 volunteers and shall not be compensated.

78 (f) The Upper Middlesex commission on the status of women shall elect from among its 79 members a chair, a vice chair, a treasurer, and any other officers as it deems necessary.

80 (g) The Upper Middlesex commission on the status of women shall meet at least 4 times
81 a year, at the members' discretion. Members of the commission on the status of women may 82 attend the meetings of the Eastern Regional commission on the status of women.

83 (h) The Upper Middlesex commission on the status of women may accept and solicit 84 funds, including any gifts, donations, grants or bequests and federal funds for any of the purposes
85 of this act. The funds shall be deposited in a separate account to be expended at the discretion of 86 the commission.

87 (i) The Upper Middlesex commission on the status of women may: (i) use voluntary and 88 uncompensated services of private individuals, agencies and organizations as may, from time to 89 time, be offered or required; (ii) recommend policies and make recommendations to state and 90 local agencies and officers to effectuate the purposes of the commission; (iii) enact by-laws for 91 its own governance; (iv) hold regular public meetings, conduct fact-finding hearings and hold 92 other public forums as it deems necessary; and (v) take other actions as it deems necessary to 93 effectuate its purposes.

94 SECTION 3. (a) There shall be a Plymouth County commission on the status of women
95 which shall consist of 9 persons to be appointed by the commission on the status of women
96 established in section 66 of chapter 3 of the General Laws. The Plymouth County commission
97 shall conduct an ongoing study of all matters concerning women in Plymouth County 98 communities. The Plymouth County commission shall report its findings to the commission on 99 the status of women annually, not later than June 2, and shall recommend solutions to the 100 problems facing women in Plymouth County communities. The commission on the status of 101 women shall make appointments to the Plymouth County commission from a pool of applicants

102 who reside in Plymouth County communities. For the purpose of this act, “Plymouth County 103 communities” shall include all municipalities located in Plymouth County.

104 (b) Members shall serve for 3-year terms and shall continue in office until their 105 successors are appointed. Members shall not be reappointed for more than 2 consecutive terms;
106 provided, however, that former members may reapply to serve on the commission after 1 year
107 has passed since their last term. Of the initial members appointed to the Plymouth County
108 commission on the status of women, 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 1 year, 3 109 members shall be appointed for a term of 2 years, and 3 members shall be appointed for a term of 110 3 years.

111 (c) Vacancies in the membership of the Plymouth County commission on the status of 112 women shall be filled by the commission on the status of women for the balance of the unexpired 113 term.

114 (d) In making appointments to the Plymouth County commission on the status of 115 women, the commission on the status of women shall consult with women's organizations.
116 Nominations shall be solicited between August 1 and September 16 annually through an open
117 application that is widely distributed throughout the Plymouth County communities. Members 118 of the commission shall be diverse and represent different Plymouth County communities.

119 (e) Members shall serve on the Plymouth County commission on the status of women as 120 volunteers and shall not be compensated.

121 (f) The Plymouth County commission on the status of women shall elect from among its 122 members a chair, a vice chair, a treasurer, and any other officers as it deems necessary.

123 (g) The Plymouth County commission on the status of women shall meet at least 4 times
124 a year, at the members' discretion. Members of the commission on the status of women may 125 attend the meetings of the Plymouth County commission on the status of women.

126 (h) The Plymouth County commission on the status of women may accept and solicit 127 funds, including any gifts, donations, grants or bequests and federal funds for any of the purposes
128 of this act. The funds shall be deposited in a separate account to be expended at the discretion of 129 the commission.

130 (i) The Plymouth County commission on the status of women may: (i) use voluntary and 131 uncompensated services of private individuals, agencies and organizations as may, from time to 132 time, be offered or required; (ii) recommend policies and make recommendations to state and 133 local agencies and officers to effectuate the purposes of the commission; (iii) enact by-laws for 134 its own governance; (iv) hold regular public meetings, conduct fact-finding hearings and hold 135 other public forums as it deems necessary; and (v) take other actions as it deems necessary to 136 effectuate its purposes.

137 SECTION 4. Section 2 shall go into effect January 1, 2018.

138 SECTION 5. Section 3 shall go into effect January 1, 2018.
