An Act limiting the retention of fingerprints.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1            Subsection (e) of section 167A of chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2            2014 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting, in line 81, after the words “Fair Credit
3            Reporting Acts” the following words :-

4            “; provided further, that fingerprints originally obtained by a state agency for purposes of 5            a background check required by Chapter 459 of the Acts of 2012, as amended by Chapter 77 of 6            the Acts of 2013, or by Chapter 234 of the Acts of 2014, shall be expunged from all state records
7            after the person has ended his or her employment or service necessitating said background check;
8            and provided further, that applicants subject to a background check required by Chapter 459 of 9            the Acts of 2012, as amended by Chapter 77 of the Acts of 2013, or by Chapter 234, shall be 10           given information explaining for what and by whom their fingerprints will be retained; and

11 provided further that the department of criminal justice information services establish an optional 12 process for any employee, whose background check has indicated no criminal record, to have 13 their fingerprint cards and results expunged from the national crime information databases and 14 from the state identification section of the state police; provided further that such employee 15 electing to have his fingerprint cards and results expunged shall be subject to a fingerprint-based 16 check no less than every 3 years to maintain employment."
