The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court
(2017-2018)

An Act relative to self-service storage facilities.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter 105A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after Section 8 the 2 following new Section:-

3 Section 9. Every operator shall keep or cause to be kept, in permanent form, a register in 4 which shall be recorded the true name or name in ordinary use and last known address of every 5 occupant in the self-service storage facility, together with a true and accurate record of the unit
6 assigned to such person and of time frame when such unit is assigned under the rental agreement.
7 The entry of the names of the occupants of said unit shall be made by said occupant, except that 8 when five or more members of a business, fraternal, or social group or other group having a 9 common interest are engaging units, they may designate one person to make said entry on their 10 behalf and prior to occupancy. Until the entry of such name and the record of the unit has been 11 made, such person shall not be allowed to occupy privately any unit upon the licensed premises.

12 Such register shall be retained by the operator for a period of at least one year after the date of 13 the last entry therein, and shall be open to the inspection of the licensing authorities, their agents
14 and the police. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not 15 less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than 16 three months, or both.
