The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act relative to employee settlements.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Except as required by law, a state agency, executive office, department, 2 board, commission, bureau, division or authority of the commonwealth, or of any political 3 subdivision thereof, acting in its capacity as an employer, may not enter into a contract, 4 severance or settlement agreement with an employee or former employee directing that 5 employee or former employee to agree to keep confidential the nature and terms of an agreement
6 portending to keep disclosed benefits received by the employee or preventing the employee 7 from freely expressing an opinion about the employer or an agent of the employer, unless the 8 employer shall create and make publicly available, as specified by section 10 of chapter 66 of the 9 General Laws, a detailed statement declaring why it is in the public’s best interest that the 10 employer and employee or former employee include such language into the contract, severance

- 11 or settlement agreement. The detailed statement shall be made available within 24 hours of the
- 12 contract, severance or settlement agreement becoming enforceable.
