SENATE . . . . . No. 2059

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Senate, May 3, 2017 -- The committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the Senate Bill establishing a sick leave bank for Gail Normandin, an employee of the Executive Office of Labor and Workforce Development (Senate, No. 2049),-- reports, recommending that the same ought to pass with an amendment substituting a new draft with the same title (Senate, No. 2059).

For the committee,

KAREN E. SPILKA

SENATE . . . . . No. 2059

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court
(2017-2018)

An Act establishing a sick leave bank for Gail Normandin, an employee of the Executive Office of Labor and Workforce Development

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to to establish forthwith a sick leave bank for a certain employee of the executive office of labor and workforce development , therefore, it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the executive office of labor and workforce development shall establish a sick leave bank for Gail Normandin, an employee of the office. Any employee of the office may voluntarily contribute 1 or more sick, personal or vacation days to the sick leave bank for use by Gail Normandin. If Gail Normandin terminates employment with the office or requests to dissolve the sick leave bank, any remaining time in the sick leave bank shall be transferred to the extended illness leave bank. Sick leave bank days shall not be used for absences unrelated to the illness or disability that necessitated the establishment of the sick leave bank as determined by the office.
