The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

An Act establishing a sick leave bank for Elizabeth O'Brien, an employee of the Department of the Attorney General.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to establish forthwith a sick leave bank for for a certain employee of the department of the attorney general, therefore, it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the department of the attorney
2 general shall establish a sick leave bank for Elizabeth O'Brien, an employee of the department.
3 Any employee of the department may voluntarily contribute 1 or more sick, personal or vacation
4 days to the sick leave bank for use by Elizabeth O'Brien. If Elizabeth O'Brien terminates
5 employment with the department or requests to dissolve the sick leave bank, any remaining time
6 in the sick leave bank shall be transferred to the department paid leave bank. Sick leave bank
7 days shall not be used for absences unrelated to the illness or disability that necessitated the 8 establishment of the sick leave bank as determined by the department.
