CHARLES D. BAKER
GOVERNOR

OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR
COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS
STATE HOUSE · BOSTON, MA 02133
(617) 725-4000

KARYN POLITO
LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

December 13, 2017

To the Honorable Senate and House of Representatives,

Our National Guard includes the oldest serving units in the United States Military. Since 1636, the Guard has been a vital resource for the nation and for the Commonwealth. In support of our national defense, the Guard provides well-equipped, well-trained soldiers and airmen to support national security objectives and interests. As Governor and Commander-in-Chief, it is my honor to oversee the Guard's state mission: assisting civil authorities in the preservation of life and property. We are fortunate to have been able to offer this sort of assistance not only to cities and towns in the Commonwealth, but also to our fellow citizens across the United States. Most recently, members of the Guard deployed to Puerto Rico to assist with hurricane recovery efforts.

When Guard members are in federal service, they are subject to the Uniform Code of Military Justice. However, when Guard members are in state service, there is no Code of Military Justice governing their conduct. This makes Massachusetts an outlier among our fellow states: we are one of only a handful of states that do not have a state Code of Military Justice. It also creates a situation in which people may be treated unequally based on whether they are serving in a federal capacity or in a state capacity.

Accordingly, I am submitting for your consideration "An Act Establishing the Massachusetts Code of Military Justice." This legislation is modeled on the American Bar

Association's Model State Code of Military Justice. It establishes a series of military crimes that parallel those found in the Uniform Code of Military Justice. It also establishes procedures for the convening and conduct of courts-martial. Should a Guard member commit a non-military crime, that person would be prosecuted in state court by the appropriate District Attorney or the Attorney General, just as they are today. Courts-martial would be limited to the specific military offenses set forth in the legislation.

This legislation also makes a number of updates to the National Guard's enabling statute, Chapter 33 of our General Laws. These updates modernize and streamline parts of the statute, and clarify the delegation of authority by the Commander-in-Chief to The Adjutant General. They include an increase to the minimum daily pay for soldiers and airmen performing state active duty from $100 per day to $200 per day. This would make the statewide minimum pay in Massachusetts the highest in the nation, ensuring appropriate compensation for members of the Guard, particularly benefiting those of junior rank.

I urge your prompt enactment of this legislation to ensure that we provide an appropriate framework for military justice. Updating our laws will ensure the Nation's oldest militia will continue to fulfill its missions and that the brave men and women of our Guard continue to lead the way while upholding the highest of standards.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles D. Baker,
Governor

462 (a) In this Act, unless the context otherwise requires:

463 (1) The term “accuser” means a person who signs and swears to charges, any person 464 who directs that charges nominally be signed and sworn to by another, and any other person who 465 has an interest other than an official interest in the prosecution of the accused.

466 (2) The term “cadet,” “candidate,” or “midshipman” means a person who is enrolled 467 in or attending a state military academy, a regional training institute, or any other formal 468 education program for the purpose of becoming a commissioned officer in the state military 469 forces.

470 (3) The term “classified information” means —

471 (A) any information or material that has been determined by an official of the United 472 States or any state pursuant to law, an Executive order, or regulation to require protection against 473 unauthorized disclosure for reasons of national or state security, and

474 (B) any restricted data, as defined in section 11(y) of the Atomic Energy Act of 1954
475 (42 U.S.C. § 2014(y)).

476 (4) The term “code” means this Act.

477 (5) The term “commanding officer” includes only commissioned officers of the state
478 military forces and shall include officers in charge only when administering nonjudicial
479 punishment under article 15 of this code. The term ‘commander’ has the same meaning as 480 ‘commanding officer’ unless the context otherwise requires.

481 (6) The term “convening authority” includes, in addition to the person who convened 482 the court, a commissioned officer commanding for the time being or a successor in command to 483 the convening authority.

484 (7) The term “day” means calendar day and is not synonymous with the term “unit 485 training assembly.” Any punishment authorized by this article which is measured in terms of 486 days shall, when served in a status other than annual field training, be construed to mean 487 succeeding duty days.

488 (8) The term “duty status other than state active duty” means any other type of duty
489 not in federal service and not full-time duty in the active service of the state; under an order

(B) certified as a non-federally recognized judge advocate, by the state judge advocate as defined in Massachusetts General Laws Chapter 33, as competent to perform such military justice duties required by this Code. If there is no such judge advocate available, then such certification may be made by such senior judge advocate of the commander of another force in the state military forces, as the convening authority directs.

(11) The term "may" is used in a permissive sense. The phrase "no person may . . . ." means that no person is required, authorized, or permitted to do the act prescribed.

(12) The term "military court" means a court-martial or a court of inquiry.

534 proceedings; or

540           (21)   “State active duty” means full-time duty in the state military forces under an order
541   of the Commander-in-chief or otherwise issued by authority of law, and paid by state funds, and

543           (22)   “Senior force judge advocate” means the senior judge advocate of the commander
544   of the same force of the state military forces as the accused and who is that commander’s chief 545   legal advisor.

547   title 32, United States Code, and any other military force organized under the Constitution and 548   laws of Massachusetts, not to include the unorganized militia when not in a status subjecting
549   them to exclusive jurisdiction under chapter 47 of title 10, United States Code. The unorganized 550   militia or any other name of any state force that does not meet this definition shall not be part of 551   the “state military forces” under this Code.

552           (24)   The term “superior commissioned officer” means a commissioned officer superior 553   in rank or command.

554           (25)   “Senior force commander” means the commander of the same force of the state 555   military forces as the accused.

556           Article 2. Persons subject to this code; jurisdiction

(a) This code applies to all members of the state military forces. This code does not apply to members serving in a title 10 status.

(b) Subject matter jurisdiction is established if a nexus exists between an offense, either military or non-military, and the state military force. Courts-martial have primary jurisdiction of military offenses as defined in article 1(a) (14) of this code. A proper civilian court has primary jurisdiction of a non-military offense when an act or omission violates both this code and local criminal law, foreign or domestic. In such a case, a court-martial may be initiated only after the civilian authority has declined to prosecute or dismissed the charge, provided jeopardy has not attached. Jurisdiction over attempted crimes, conspiracy crimes, solicitation, and accessory crimes must be determined by the underlying offense.

Article 3. Jurisdiction to try certain personnel

(a) Each person discharged from the state military forces who is later charged with having fraudulently obtained a discharge is, subject to article 43 of this code, subject to trial by court-martial on that charge and is, after apprehension, subject to this code while in custody under the direction of the state military forces for that trial. Upon conviction of that charge that person is subject to trial by court-martial for all offenses under this code committed before the fraudulent discharge.

(b) No person who has deserted from the state military forces may be relieved from amenability to the jurisdiction of this code by virtue of a separation from any later period of service.

Article 4. [Reserved]

Article 5. Territorial applicability of the code

(a) This code has applicability at all times and in all places subject to the personal jurisdiction as provided in Art. 2, or, if not in a duty status, that there is a nexus between the act or omission constituting the offense and the efficient functioning of the state military forces; however, this grant of military jurisdiction shall neither preclude nor limit civilian jurisdiction over an offense, which is limited only by the prohibition of double jeopardy.

(b) Courts-martial and courts of inquiry may be convened and held in units of the state military forces while those units are serving outside the State with the same jurisdiction and powers as to persons subject to this code as if the proceedings were held inside the State, and offenses committed outside the State may be tried and punished either inside or outside the State.

Article 6. Judge Advocates

(a) The senior force judge advocates in each of the state's military forces or that judge advocate's delegates shall make frequent inspections in the field in supervision of the administration of military justice in that force.

(b) Convening authorities shall at all times communicate directly with their judge advocates in matters relating to the administration of military justice. The judge advocate of any command is entitled to communicate directly with the judge advocate of a superior or subordinate command, or with the State Judge Advocate.

(c) No person who has acted as member, military judge, trial counsel, defense counsel, or investigating officer, or who has been a witness, in any case may later act as a judge advocate to any reviewing authority upon the same case.

599           PART II. APPREHENSION AND RESTRAINT

600           Article 7. Apprehension

601           (a)     Apprehension is the taking of a person into custody.

602           (b)     Any person authorized by this code or by chapter 47 of title 10, United States
603 Code, or by regulations issued under either, to apprehend persons subject to this code, any 604 marshal of a court- martial appointed pursuant to the provisions of this code, and any peace
605 officer or civil officer having authority to apprehend offenders under the laws of the United 606 States or of a State, may do so upon probable cause that an offense has been committed and that 607 the person apprehended committed it.

608           (c)     Commissioned officers, warrant officers, petty officers, and noncommissioned
609 officers have authority to quell quarrels, frays, and disorders among persons subject to this code 610 and to apprehend persons subject to this code who take part therein.

611           (d)     If an offender is apprehended outside the State, the offender's return to the area
612 must be in accordance with normal extradition procedures or by reciprocal agreement.

613           (e)     No person authorized by this article to apprehend persons subject to this code or 614 the place where such offender is confined, restrained, held, or otherwise housed may require 615 payment of any fee or charge for so receiving, apprehending, confining, restraining, holding, or 616 otherwise housing a person except as otherwise provided by law.

617           Article 8. [Reserved]

618           Article 9. Imposition of restraint

(a) Arrest is the restraint of a person by an order, not imposed as a punishment for an offense, directing him or her to remain within certain specified limits. Confinement is the physical restraint of a person.

(b) An enlisted member may be ordered into arrest or confinement by any commissioned officer by an order, oral or written, delivered in person or through other persons subject to this code. A commanding officer may authorize warrant officers, petty officers, or noncommissioned officers to order enlisted members of the commanding officer's command or subject to the commanding officer's authority into arrest or confinement.

(c) A commissioned officer, a warrant officer, or a civilian subject to this code or to trial there under may be ordered into arrest or confinement only by a commanding officer to whose authority the person is subject, by an order, oral or written, delivered in person or by another commissioned officer. The authority to order such persons into arrest or confinement may not be delegated.

(d) No person may be ordered into arrest or confinement except for probable cause.

(e) This article does not limit the authority of persons authorized to apprehend offenders to secure the custody of an alleged offender until proper authority may be notified.

Article 10. Restraint of persons charged with offenses

Any person subject to this code charged with an offense under this code may be ordered into arrest or confinement, as circumstances may require. When any person subject to this code is placed in arrest or confinement prior to trial, immediate steps shall be taken to inform the person of the specific wrong of which the person is accused and diligent steps shall be taken to try the person or to dismiss the charges and release the person.

Article 11. Place of Confinement; Reports and receiving of prisoners

(a) If a person subject to this code is confined before, during, or after trial, confinement shall be in a state, county or local civilian or military confinement facility.

(b) No person authorized to receive prisoners pursuant to subsection (a) may refuse to receive or keep any prisoner committed to the person's charge by a commissioned officer of the state military forces, when the committing officer furnishes a statement, signed by such officer, of the offense charged against the prisoner, unless otherwise authorized by law.

(c) Every person authorized to receive prisoners pursuant to subsection (a) to whose charge a prisoner is committed shall, within twenty-four (24) hours after that commitment or as soon as the person is relieved from guard, report to the commanding officer of the prisoner the name of the prisoner, the offense charged against the prisoner, and the name of the person who ordered or authorized the commitment.

Article 12. Confinement with enemy prisoners prohibited

No member of the state military forces may be placed in confinement in immediate association with enemy prisoners.

Article 13. Punishment prohibited before trial

No person, while being held for trial or awaiting a verdict, may be subjected to punishment or penalty other than arrest or confinement upon the charges pending against the person, nor shall the arrest or confinement imposed upon such person be any more rigorous than the circumstances required to insure the person's presence, but the person may be subjected to minor punishment during that period for infractions of discipline.

Article 14. Delivery of offenders to civil authorities

(a) A person subject to this code accused of an offense against civil authority may be delivered, upon request, to the civil authority for trial or confinement.

(b) When delivery under this article is made to any civil authority of a person undergoing sentence of a court-martial, the delivery, if followed by conviction in a civil tribunal, interrupts the execution of the sentence of the court-martial, and the offender after having answered to the civil authorities for the offense shall, upon the request of competent military authority, be returned to the place of original custody for the completion of the person's sentence.

PART III. NON-JUDICIAL PUNISHMENT

Article 15. Commanding officer's non-judicial punishment

(a) Under such regulations as prescribed, any commanding officer (and for purposes of this article, officers-in-charge) may impose disciplinary punishments for minor offenses without the intervention of a court-martial pursuant to this article. The Commander-in-chief, The Adjutant General, or an officer of a general or flag rank in command may delegate the powers under this article to a principal assistant who is a member of the state military forces.

679           (b)     Any commanding officer may impose upon enlisted members of the officer's
680   command —

681           (1)     an admonition;

682           (2)     a reprimand;

683           (3)     the withholding of privileges for not more than six (6) months;

684           (4)     the forfeiture of pay of not more than seven (7) days' pay;

685           (5)     a fine of not more than seven (7) days' pay;

686           (6)     a reduction to the next inferior pay grade, if the grade from which demoted is 687   within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer subordinate to 688   the one who imposes the reduction;

689           (7)     extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than fourteen (14)
690   days, which need not be consecutive; and

691           (8)     restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for 692   not more than fourteen (14) days, which need not be consecutive.

693           (c)     Any commanding officer of the grade of major or lieutenant commander, or 694   above may impose upon enlisted members of the officer's command —

695           (1)     any punishment authorized in subsections (b)(1), (2), and (3);

696           (2)     the forfeiture of not more than one-half (1/2) of one (1) month's pay per month
697   for two (2) months;

698           (3)     a fine of not more than one (1) month's pay;

699           (4)     a reduction to the lowest or any intermediate pay grade, if the grade from which 700 demoted is within the promotion authority of the officer imposing the reduction or any officer
701 subordinate to the one who imposes the reduction, but an enlisted member in a pay grade above
702 E-4 may not be reduced more than two (2) pay grades;

703           (5)     extra duties, including fatigue or other duties, for not more than forty-five (45)
704 days which need not be consecutive; and

705           (6)     restriction to certain specified limits, with or without suspension from duty, for 706 not more than sixty (60) days which need not be consecutive.

707           (d)     The Commander-in-chief, The Adjutant General, an officer exercising general
708 court-martial convening authority, or an officer of a general or flag rank in command may 709 impose —

710           (1)     upon officers of the officer's command —

711           (A)     any punishment authorized in subsections (c)(1), (2), (3), and (6); and

712           (B)     arrest in quarters for not more than thirty (30) days which need not be 713 consecutive.

714           (2)     upon enlisted members of the officer's command —

715           (A)     any punishment authorized in subsection (c).

716           (e)     Whenever any of those punishments are combined to run consecutively, the total 717 length of the combined punishment cannot exceed the authorized duration of the longest punishment in the combination, and there must be an apportionment of punishments so that no single punishment in the combination exceeds its authorized length under this article.

(f) Prior to the offer of non-judicial punishment, the commanding officer shall determine whether arrest in quarters or restriction shall be considered as punishments. Should the commanding officer determine that the punishment options may include arrest in quarters or restriction, the accused shall be notified of the right to demand trial by court-martial. Should the commanding officer determine that the punishment options will not include arrest in quarters or restriction, the accused shall be notified that there is no right to trial by courts-martial in lieu of non-judicial punishment.

(g) The officer who imposes the punishment, or the successor in command, may, at any time, suspend, set aside, mitigate, or remit any part or amount of the punishment and restore all rights, privileges, and property affected. The officer also may —

(1) mitigate reduction in grade to forfeiture of pay;

(2) mitigate arrest in quarters to restriction; or

(3) mitigate extra duties to restriction.

The mitigated punishment shall not be for a greater period than the punishment mitigated. When mitigating reduction in grade to forfeiture of pay, the amount of the forfeiture shall not be greater than the amount that could have been imposed initially under this article by the officer who imposed the punishment mitigated.

(h) A person punished under this article who considers the punishment unjust or disproportionate to the offense may, through the proper channel, appeal to the next superior

739 authority within fifteen (15) days after the punishment is either announced or sent to the accused,
740 as the commander may determine. The appeal shall be promptly forwarded and decided within 741 15 days, but the person punished may in the meantime be required to undergo the punishment
742 adjudged. The superior authority may exercise the same powers with respect to the punishment 743 imposed as may be exercised under subsection (g) by the officer who imposed the punishment.
744 Before acting on an appeal from a punishment, the authority that is to act on the appeal may refer 745 the case to a judge advocate for consideration and advice.

746 (i) The imposition and enforcement of disciplinary punishment under this article for 747 any act or omission is not a bar to trial by court-martial or a civilian court of competent 748 jurisdiction for a serious crime or offense growing out of the same act or omission and not 749 properly punishable under this article; but the fact that a disciplinary punishment has been 750 enforced may be shown by

751 the accused upon trial and, when so shown, it shall be considered in determining the 752 measure of punishment to be adjudged in the event of a finding of guilty.

753 (j) Whenever a punishment of forfeiture of pay is imposed under this article, the

1156           The military judge of a court-martial or a summary court-martial may, for reasonable 1157 cause, grant a continuance to any party for such time, and as often, as may appear to be just.

1158           Article 41. Challenges

1159           (a)

1160           (1)     The military judge and members of a general or special court-martial may be 1161 challenged by the accused or the trial counsel for cause stated to the court. The military judge or the court shall determine the relevancy and validity of challenges for cause and may not receive a challenge to more than one person at a time. Challenges by the trial counsel shall ordinarily be presented and decided before those by the accused are offered.

(2) If exercise of a challenge for cause reduces the court below the minimum number of members required by article 16 of this code, all parties shall, notwithstanding article 29 of this code, either exercise or waive any challenge for cause then apparent against the remaining members of the court before additional members are detailed to the court. However, peremptory challenges shall not be exercised at that time.

(1) Each accused and the trial counsel are entitled initially to three (3) peremptory challenges of members of the court. The military judge may not be challenged except for cause.

(2) If exercise of a peremptory challenge reduces the court below the minimum number of members required by article 16 of this code, the parties shall, notwithstanding article 29 of this code, either exercise or waive any remaining peremptory challenge, not previously waived, against the remaining members of the court before additional members are detailed to the court.

(3) Whenever additional members are detailed to the court, and after any challenges for cause against such additional members are presented and decided, each accused and the trial counsel are entitled to three (3) peremptory challenges against members not previously subject to peremptory challenge.

Article 42. Oaths or Affirmations

(a) Before performing their respective duties, military judges, general and special courts-martial members, trial counsel, defense counsel, reporters, and interpreters shall take an oath or affirmation in the presence of the accused to perform their duties faithfully. The form of the oath or affirmation, the time and place of the taking thereof, the manner of recording the same, and whether the oath or affirmation shall be taken for all cases in which these duties are to be performed or for a particular case, shall be as prescribed in regulation or as provided by law. These regulations may provide that an oath or affirmation to perform faithfully the duties as a military judge, trial counsel, or defense counsel may be taken at any time by any judge advocate or other person certified or designated to be qualified or competent for the duty, and if such an oath or affirmation is taken, it need not again be taken at the time the judge advocate or other person is detailed to that duty.

(b) Each witness before a court-martial shall be examined under oath or affirmation.

Article 43. Statute of limitations

(a) A person charged with absent without leave or missing movement may be tried and punished at any time without limitation.

(1) Except as otherwise provided in this article, a person charged with an offense is not liable to be tried by court-martial if the offense was committed more than 6 years before the receipt of sworn charges and specifications by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction over the command.

(2) A person charged with an offense is not liable to be punished under section 15 of this chapter if the offense was committed more than two years before the imposition of punishment.

(c) Periods in which the accused is absent without authority or fleeing from justice shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation prescribed in this section.

(d) Periods in which the accused was absent from territory in which the United States has the authority to apprehend him, or in the custody of civil authorities, or in the hands of the enemy, shall be excluded in computing the period of limitation prescribed in this article.

(e) When the United States is at war or when the Commander-in-chief declares a state of emergency in accordance with state law, the running of any statute of limitations applicable to any offense under this chapter—

(1) involving fraud or attempted fraud against the United States, any state, or any agency of either in any manner, whether by conspiracy or not;

(2) committed in connection with the acquisition, care, handling, custody, control, or disposition of any real or personal property of the United States or any state; or

(3) committed in connection with the negotiation, procurement, award, performance, payment, interim financing, cancellation, or other termination or settlement, of any contract, subcontract, or purchase order which is connected with or related to the prosecution of the war, or with any disposition of termination inventory by any war contractor or Government agency; is suspended until three (3) years after the termination of hostilities as proclaimed by the President, by a joint resolution of Congress or by the Commander-in-chief.

(f)

1224           (1)     If charges or specifications are dismissed as defective or insufficient for any cause
1225     and the period prescribed by the applicable statute of limitations —

1226           (A)     has expired; or.

1227           (B)     will expire within 180 days after the date of dismissal of the charges and 1228     specifications, trial and punishment under new charges and specifications are not barred by the 1229     statute of limitations if the conditions specified in paragraph (2) are met.

1230           (2)     The conditions referred to in paragraph (1) are that the new charges and 1231     specifications must —

1232           (A)     be received by an officer exercising summary court-martial jurisdiction over the 1233     command within 180 days after the dismissal of the charges or specifications; and

1234           (B)     allege the same acts or omissions that were alleged in the dismissed charges or 1235     specifications (or allege acts or omissions that were included in the dismissed charges or 1236     specifications).

1237           Article 44. Former jeopardy

1238           (a)     No person may, without his consent, be tried a second time for the same offense.

1239           (b)     No proceeding in which an accused has been found guilty by a court-martial upon 1240     any charge or specification is a trial in the sense of this article until the finding of guilty has 1241     become final after review of the case has been fully completed.

1242           (c)     A proceeding which, after the introduction of evidence but before a finding, is 1243     dismissed or terminated by the convening authority or on motion of the prosecution for failure of

1244 available evidence or witnesses without any fault of the accused is a trial in the sense of this 1245 article.

1246 Article 45. Pleas of the accused

1247 (a) If an accused after arraignment makes an irregular pleading, or after a plea of 1248 guilty sets up matter inconsistent with the plea, or if it appears that the accused has entered the 1249 plea of guilty improvidently or through lack of understanding of its meaning and effect, or if the
1250 accused fails or refuses to plead, a plea of not guilty shall be entered in the record, and the court 1251 shall proceed as though the accused had pleaded not guilty.

1252 (b) With respect to any charge or specification to which a plea of guilty has been 1253 made by the accused and accepted by the military judge or by a court-martial without a military 1254 judge, a finding of guilty of the charge or specification may be entered immediately without 1255 vote. This finding shall constitute the finding of the court unless the plea of guilty is withdrawn
1256 prior to announcement of the sentence, in which event, the proceedings shall continue as though 1257 the accused had pleaded not guilty.

1258 Article 46. Opportunity to obtain witnesses and other evidence

1259 The trial counsel, the defense counsel, and the court-martial shall have equal opportunity
1260 to obtain witnesses and other evidence as prescribed by regulations and provided by law. Process 1261 issued in court-martial cases to compel witnesses to appear and testify and to compel the 1262 production of other evidence shall apply the principles of law and the rules of courts-martial
1263 generally recognized in military criminal cases in the courts of the armed forces of the United 1264 States, but which may not be contrary to or inconsistent with this code. Process shall run to any 1265 part of the United States, or the Territories, Commonwealths, and possessions, and may be

1266 executed by civil officers as prescribed by the laws of the place where the witness or evidence is 1267 located or of the United States.

1268 Article 47. Refusal to appear or testify

1269 (a) Any person not subject to this code who —

1270 (1) has been duly subpoenaed to appear as a witness or to produce books and records
1271 before a court-martial or court of inquiry, or before any military or civil officer designated to 1272 take a deposition to be read in evidence before such a court;

1273 (2) has been duly paid or tendered the fees and mileage of a witness at the rates
1274 allowed to witnesses attending a criminal court of the State; and

1275 (3) willfully neglects or refuses to appear, or refuses to qualify as a witness or to 1276 testify or to produce any evidence which that person may have been legally subpoenaed to 1277 produce;

1278 may be punished by the military court in the same manner as a criminal court of the State.

1279 (b) The fees and mileage of witnesses shall be advanced or paid out of the 1280 appropriations for the compensation of witnesses.

1281 Article 48. Contempts

1282 A military judge or summary court-martial officer may punish for contempt any person 1283 who uses any menacing word, sign, or gesture in its presence, or who disturbs its proceedings by 1284 any riot or disorder.

1285           (a) A person subject to this code may be punished for contempt by confinement not to 1286 exceed thirty (30) days or a fine of one hundred dollars ($100), or both.

1287           A person not subject to this code may be punished for contempt by a military court in the 1288 same manner as a criminal court of the State.

1289           Article 49. Depositions

1290           (a)     At any time after charges have been signed as provided in article 30 of this code,
1291 any party may take oral or written depositions unless the military judge or summary court-1292 martial officer hearing the case or, if the case is not being heard, an authority competent to 1293 convene a court- martial for the trial of those charges forbids it for good cause.

1294           (b)     The party at whose instance a deposition is to be taken shall give to every other 1295 party reasonable written notice of the time and place for taking the deposition.

1296           (c)     Depositions may be taken before and authenticated by any military or civil officer
1297 authorized by the laws of the State or by the laws of the place where the deposition is taken to 1298 administer oaths.

1299           (d)     A duly authenticated deposition taken upon reasonable notice to the other parties,
1300 so far as otherwise admissible under the rules of evidence, may be read in evidence or, in the 1301 case of audiotape, videotape, digital image or file, or similar material, may be played in evidence
1302 before any military court, if it appears —

1303           (1)     that the witness resides or is beyond the State in which the court is ordered to sit,
1304 or beyond one hundred (100) miles from the place of trial or hearing Section 848, Art. 48;

1305           (2)     that the witness by reason of death, age, sickness, bodily infirmity, imprisonment,
1306 military necessity, non amenability to process, or other reasonable cause, is unable or refuses to 1307 appear and testify in person at the place of trial or hearing; or 1308           (3)     that the present whereabouts of the witness is unknown.

1309           Article 50. Admissibility of records of courts of inquiry

1310           (a)     In any case not extending to the dismissal of a commissioned officer, the sworn 1311 testimony, contained in the duly authenticated record of proceedings of a court of inquiry, of a 1312 person whose oral testimony cannot be obtained, may, if otherwise admissible under the rules of 1313 evidence, be read in evidence by any party before a court-martial if the accused was a party 1314 before the court of inquiry and if the same issue was involved or if the accused consents to the 1315 introduction of such evidence.

1316           (b)     Such testimony may be read in evidence only by the defense in cases extending to 1317 the dismissal of a commissioned officer.

1318           (c)     Such testimony may also be read in evidence before a court of inquiry.

1319           Article 50a. Defense of lack of mental responsibility

1320           (a)     It is an affirmative defense in a trial by court-martial that, at the time of the 1321 commission of the acts constituting the offense, the accused, as a result of a severe mental 1322 disease or defect, was unable to appreciate the nature and quality or the wrongfulness of the acts.
1323 Mental disease or defect does not otherwise constitute a defense.

1324           (b)     The accused has the burden of proving the defense of lack of mental 1325 responsibility by clear and convincing evidence.

1326           (c)     Whenever lack of mental responsibility of the accused with respect to an offense
1327 is properly at issue, the military judge shall instruct the members of the court as to the defense of 1328 lack of mental responsibility under this article and charge them to find the accused —

1329           (1)     guilty;

1330           (2)     not guilty; or

1331           (3)     not guilty only by reason of lack of mental responsibility.

1332           (d)     Subsection (c) does not apply to a court-martial composed of a military judge
1333 only. In the case of a court-martial composed of a military judge only or a summary court-
1334 martial officer, whenever lack of mental responsibility of the accused with respect to an offense
1335 is properly at issue, the military judge or summary court-martial officer shall find the accused —

1336           (1)     guilty;

1337           (2)     not guilty; or

1338           (3)     not guilty only by reason of lack of mental responsibility.

1339           (e)     Notwithstanding the provisions of article 52 of this code, the accused shall be 1340 found not guilty only by reason of lack of mental responsibility if —

1341           (1)     a majority of the members of the court-martial present at the time the vote is taken
1342 determines that the defense of lack of mental responsibility has been established; or

(2) in the case of a court-martial composed of a military judge only or a summary court-martial officer, the military judge or summary court-martial officer determines that the defense of lack of mental responsibility has been established.

Article 51. Voting and rulings

(a) Voting by members of a general or special court-martial on the findings and on the sentence shall be by secret written ballot. The junior member of the court shall count the votes. The count shall be checked by the president, who shall forthwith announce the result of the ballot to the members of the court.

(b) The military judge shall rule upon all questions of law and all interlocutory questions arising during the proceedings. Any such ruling made by the military judge upon any question of law or any interlocutory question other than the factual issue of mental responsibility of the accused is final and constitutes the ruling of the court. However, the military judge may change the ruling at any time during the trial. Unless the ruling is final, if any member objects thereto, the court shall be cleared and closed and the question decided by a voice vote as provided in article 52 of this code, beginning with the junior in rank.

(c) Before a vote is taken on the findings, the military judge shall, in the presence of the accused and counsel, instruct the members of the court as to the elements of the offense and charge them —

(1) that the accused must be presumed to be innocent until his guilt is established by legal and competent evidence beyond reasonable doubt;

1363           (2)     that in the case being considered, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the guilt of 1364 the accused, the doubt must be resolved in favor of the accused and the accused must be 1365 acquitted;

1366           (3)     that, if there is a reasonable doubt as to the degree of guilt, the finding must be in 1367 a lower degree as to which there is no reasonable doubt; and

1368           (4)     that the burden of proof to establish the guilt of the accused beyond reasonable 1369 doubt is upon the State.

1370           (d)     Subsections (a), (b), and (c) do not apply to a court-martial composed of a 1371 military judge only. The military judge of such a court-martial shall determine all questions of 1372 law and fact arising during the proceedings and, if the accused is convicted, adjudge an 1373 appropriate sentence. The military judge of such a court-martial shall make a general finding and 1374 shall in addition, on request, find the facts specially. If an opinion or memorandum of decision is 1375 filed, it will be sufficient if the findings of fact appear therein.

1376           Article 52. Number of votes required

1377           (a)     No person may be convicted of an offense except as provided in article 45(b) of 1378 this code or by the concurrence of all of the members present at the time the vote is taken.

1379           (b)     All other questions to be decided by the members of a general or special court-1380 martial shall be determined by a majority vote, but a determination to reconsider a finding of 1381 guilty or to reconsider a sentence, with a view toward decreasing it, may be made by any lesser 1382 vote which indicates that the reconsideration is not opposed by the number of votes required for 1383 that finding or sentence. A tie vote on a challenge disqualifies the member challenged. A tie vote

1384 on a motion relating to the question of the accused's sanity is a determination in favor of the 1385 accused. A tie vote on any other question is a determination in favor of the accused.

1386 Article 53. Court to announce action

1387 A court-martial shall announce its findings and sentence to the parties as soon as 1388 determined.

1389 Article 54. Record of trial

1390 (a) Each general and special court-martial shall keep a separate record of the 1391 proceedings in each case brought before it, and the record shall be authenticated by the signature
1392 of the military judge. If the record cannot be authenticated by the military judge by reason of his 1393 death, disability, or absence, it shall be authenticated by the signature of the trial counsel or by 1394 that of a member, if the trial counsel is unable to authenticate it by reason of his death, disability, 1395 or absence. In a court-martial consisting of only a military judge, the record shall be 1396 authenticated by the court reporter under the same conditions which would impose such a duty
1397 on a member under this subsection.

1398 (b)

1399 (1) A complete verbatim record of the proceedings and testimony shall be prepared in 1400 each general and special court-martial case resulting in a conviction; and

1401 (2) In all other court-martial cases, the record shall contain such matters as may be 1402 prescribed by regulations.

1403           (c)     Each summary court-martial shall keep a separate record of the proceedings in 1404 each case, and the record shall be authenticated in the manner as may be prescribed by 1405 regulations.

1406           (d)     A copy of the record of the proceedings of each general and special court-martial
1407 shall be given to the accused as soon as it is authenticated.

1408           PART VIII. SENTENCES

1409           Article 55. Cruel and unusual punishments prohibited

1410           Punishment by flogging, or by branding, marking, or tattooing on the body, or any other
1411 cruel or unusual punishment may not be adjudged by a court-martial or inflicted upon any person
1412 subject to this code. The use of irons, single or double, except for the purpose of safe custody, is 1413 prohibited.

1414           Article 56. Maximum limits

1415           (a)     The punishment which a court-martial may direct for an offense may not exceed 1416 such limits as prescribed by this code, but in no instance may a sentence exceed more than ten 1417 (10) years for a military offense, nor shall a sentence of death be adjudged. A conviction by 1418 general court-martial of any military offense for which an accused may receive a sentence of 1419 confinement for more than one (1) year is a felony offense. Except for convictions by a summary
1420 court-martial, all other military offenses are misdemeanors. Any conviction by a summary court-
1421 martial is not a criminal conviction. The limits of punishment for violations of the punitive 1422 articles prescribed herein shall be as prescribed by the manual for courts-martial of the

1423 Commonwealth of Massachusetts in effect at the time of the offense, but in no instance shall any 1424 punishment exceed ten (10) years confinement.

1425 Article 56a. [Reserved]

1426 Article 57. Effective date of sentences

1427 (a) Whenever a sentence of a court-martial as lawfully adjudged and approved 1428 includes a forfeiture of pay or allowances in addition to confinement not suspended, the 1429 forfeiture may apply to pay or allowances becoming due on or after the date the sentence is 1430 approved by the convening authority. No forfeiture may extend to any pay or allowances accrued 1431 before that date.

1432 (b) Any period of confinement included in a sentence of a court-martial begins to run 1433 from the date the sentence is adjudged by the court-martial, but periods during which the 1434 sentence to confinement is suspended or deferred shall be excluded in computing the service of 1435 the term of confinement.

1436 (c) All other sentences of courts-martial are effective on the date ordered executed.

1437

1438 Article 57a. Deferment of sentences

1439 (a) On application by an accused who is under sentence to confinement that has not 1440 been ordered executed, the convening authority or, if the accused is no longer under that person's 1441 jurisdiction, the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction over the command to which 1442 the accused is currently assigned, may in that person's sole discretion defer service of the 1443 sentence to confinement. The deferment shall terminate when the sentence is ordered executed.

1444 The deferment may be rescinded at any time by the person who granted it or, if the accused is no
1445 longer under that person's jurisdiction, by the person exercising general court-martial jurisdiction
1446 over the command to which the accused is currently assigned.

1447 (b)

1448 (1) In any case in which a court-martial sentences an accused referred to in paragraph

1449 (2) to confinement, the convening authority may defer the service of the sentence to 1450 confinement, without the consent of the accused, until after the accused has been permanently
1451 released to the state military forces by a State, the United States, or a foreign country referred to 1452 in that paragraph.

1453 (2) Paragraph (1) applies to a person subject to this code who —

1454 (A) while in the custody of a State, the United States, or a foreign country is 1455 temporarily returned by that State, the United States, or a foreign country to the state military 1456 forces for trial by court-martial; and

1457 (B) after the court-martial, is returned to that State, the United States, or a foreign 1458 country under the authority of a mutual agreement or treaty, as the case may be.

1459 (3) In this subsection, the term "State" includes the District of Columbia and any 1460 Commonwealth, Territory, or possession of the United States.

1461 (c) In any case in which a court-martial sentences an accused to confinement and the 1462 sentence to confinement has been ordered executed, but in which review of the case under article

1463 67(a) of this code is pending, The Adjutant General may defer further service of the sentence to 1464 confinement while that review is pending.

1465 .

1466 Article 58. Execution of confinement

1467 (a) A sentence of confinement adjudged by a court-martial, whether or not the 1468 sentence includes discharge or dismissal, and whether or not the discharge or dismissal has been 1469 executed, may be carried into execution by confinement in any place authorized by this code.
1470 Persons so confined are subject to the same discipline and treatment as persons regularly
1471 confined or committed to that place of confinement.

1472 (b) No place of confinement may require payment of any fee or charge for so 1473 receiving or confining a person except as otherwise provided by law.

1474 Article 58a. Sentences: reduction in enlisted grade upon approval

1475 (a) A court-martial sentence of an enlisted member in a pay grade above E-1, as 1476 approved by the convening authority, that includes —

1477 (1) a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge; or

1478 (2) confinement;

1479 reduces that member to pay grade E-1, effective on the date of that approval.

1480 (b) If the sentence of a member who is reduced in pay grade under subsection (a) is 1481 set aside or disapproved, or, as finally approved, does not include any punishment named in 1482 subsection (a)

1483           (1)     or (2), the rights and privileges of which the person was deprived because of that 1484 reduction shall be restored, including pay and allowances.

1485           Article 58b. Sentences: forfeiture of pay and allowances during confinement

1486           (a)

1487           (1)     A court-martial sentence described in paragraph (2) shall result in the forfeiture of 1488 pay, or of pay and allowances, due that member during any period of confinement or parole. The 1489 forfeiture pursuant to this article shall take effect on the date determined under article 57(a) of 1490           this code and may be deferred as provided by that article. The pay and allowances

1491 forfeited, in the case of a general court-martial, shall be all pay and allowances due that member
1492 during such period and, in the case of a special court-martial, shall be two-thirds (2/3) of all pay 1493 due that member during such period.

1494           (2)     A sentence covered by this article is any sentence that includes —

1495           (A)     confinement for more than six (6) months; or

1496           (B)     confinement for six (6) months or less and a dishonorable or bad-conduct 1497 discharge or dismissal.

1498           (b)     In a case involving an accused who has dependents, the convening authority or 1499 other person acting under article 60 of this code may waive any or all of the forfeitures of pay
1500 and allowances required by subsection (a) for a period not to exceed six (6) months. Any amount 1501 of pay or allowances that, except for a waiver under this subsection, would be forfeited shall be

1502 paid, as the convening authority or other person taking action directs, to the dependents of the 1503 accused.

1504 (c) If the sentence of a member who forfeits pay and allowances under subsection (a) 1505 is set aside or disapproved or, as finally approved, does not provide for a punishment referred to 1506 in subsection (a) (2), the member shall be paid the pay and allowances which the member would 1507 have been paid, except for the forfeiture, for the period during which the forfeiture was in effect.

1508 PART IX. POST-TRIAL PROCEDURE AND REVIEW OF COURTS-MARTIAL

1509 Article 59. Error of law; lesser included offense

1510 (a) A finding or sentence of a court-martial may not be held incorrect on the ground
1511 of an error of law unless the error materially prejudices the substantive rights of the accused.

1512 (b) Any reviewing authority with the power to approve or affirm a finding of guilty
1513 may approve or affirm, instead, so much of the finding as includes a lesser included offense.

1514 Article 60. Reserved

1515 Article 61. Withdrawal of appeal

1516 (a) In each case subject to appellate review under this code, the accused may file with 1517 the convening authority a statement expressly withdrawing the right of the accused to such 1518 appeal. Such a withdrawal shall be signed by both the accused and his defense counsel and must 1519 be filed in accordance with appellate procedures as provided by law.

1520 (b) The accused may withdraw an appeal at any time in accordance with appellate 1521 procedures as provided by law.

1522 Article 62. Appeal by the State

1523 (a)

1524 (1) In a trial by court-martial in which a punitive discharge may be adjudged, the 1525 State may appeal the following, other than a finding of not guilty with respect to the charge or 1526 specification by the members of the court-martial, or by a judge in a bench trial so long as it is 1527 not made in reconsideration:

1528 (A) An order or ruling of the military judge which terminates the proceedings with 1529 respect to a charge or specification.

1530 (B) An order or ruling which excludes evidence that is substantial proof of a fact 1531 material in the proceeding.

1532 (C) An order or ruling which directs the disclosure of classified information.

1533 (D) An order or ruling which imposes sanctions for nondisclosure of classified
1534 information.

1535 (E) A refusal of the military judge to issue a protective order sought by the State to 1536 prevent the disclosure of classified information.

1537 (F) A refusal by the military judge to enforce an order described in subparagraph

1538 (E) that has previously been issued by appropriate authority.

1539 (2) An appeal of an order or ruling may not be taken unless the trial counsel provides 1540 the military judge with written notice of appeal from the order or ruling within seventy-two (72)
1541 hours of the order or ruling. Such notice shall include a certification by the trial counsel that the

1542 appeal is not taken for the purpose of delay and, if the order or ruling appealed is one which 1543 excludes evidence, that the evidence excluded is substantial proof of a fact material in the 1544 proceeding.

1545 (3) An appeal under this article shall be diligently prosecuted as provided by law.

1546 (b) An appeal under this article shall be forwarded to the court prescribed in article 1547 67a of this code. In ruling on an appeal under this article, that court may act only with respect to 1548 matters of law.

1549 (c) Any period of delay resulting from an appeal under this article shall be excluded
1550 in deciding any issue regarding denial of a speedy trial unless an appropriate authority
1551 determines that the appeal was filed solely for the purpose of delay with the knowledge that it 1552 was totally frivolous and without merit.

1553 Article 63. Rehearings

1554 Each rehearing under this code shall take place before a court-martial composed of 1555 members not members of the court-martial which first heard the case. Upon a rehearing the 1556 accused may not be tried for any offense of which he or she was found not guilty by the first 1557 court-martial, and no sentence in excess of or more severe than the original sentence may be 1558 approved, unless the sentence is based upon a finding of guilty of an offense not considered upon 1559 the merits in the original proceedings, or unless the sentence prescribed for the offense is 1560 mandatory. If the sentence approved after the first court-martial was in accordance with a pretrial 1561 agreement and the accused at the rehearing changes a plea with respect to the charges or 1562 specifications upon which the pretrial agreement was based, or otherwise does not comply with the pretrial agreement, the approved sentence as to those charges or specifications may include any punishment not in excess of that lawfully adjudged at the first court-martial.

Article 64. Review by the Senior Force Judge Advocate

(a) Each general and special court-martial case in which there has been a finding of guilty shall be reviewed by the senior force judge advocate, or a designee. The senior force judge advocate, or designee, may not review a case under this subsection if that person has acted in the same case as an accuser, investigating officer, member of the court, military judge, or counsel or has otherwise acted on behalf of the prosecution or defense. The senior force judge advocate's review shall be in writing and shall contain the following:

(1) Conclusions as to whether —

(A) the court had jurisdiction over the accused and the offense;

(B) the charge and specification stated an offense; and

(C) the sentence was within the limits prescribed as a matter of law.

(2) A response to each allegation of error made in writing by the accused.

(3) If the case is sent for action under subsection (b), a recommendation as to the appropriate action to be taken and an opinion as to whether corrective action is required as a matter of law.

(b) The record of trial and related documents in each case reviewed under subsection (a) shall be sent for action to The Adjutant General, if —

(1) the judge advocate who reviewed the case recommends corrective action;

1583           (2)     the sentence approved under article 60(c) of this code extends to dismissal, a bad-
1584 conduct or dishonorable discharge, or confinement for more than six (6) months; or 1585           (3)     such action is otherwise required by regulations of The Adjutant General.

1586           (c)

1587           (1)     The Adjutant General may —

1588           (A)     disapprove or approve the findings or sentence, in whole or in part;

1589           (B)     remit, commute, or suspend the sentence in whole or in part;

1590           (C)     except where the evidence was insufficient at the trial to support the findings, 1591 order a rehearing on the findings, on the sentence, or on both; or 1592           (D)     dismiss the charges.

1593           (2)     If a rehearing is ordered but the convening authority finds a 1594 rehearing impracticable, the convening authority shall dismiss the charges.

1595           (3)     If the opinion of the senior force judge advocate, or designee, in the senior force 1596 judge advocate's review under subsection (a) is that corrective action is required as a matter of 1597 law and if The Adjutant General does not take action that is at least as favorable to the accused 1598 as that recommended by the judge advocate, the record of trial and action thereon shall be sent to 1599 the Commander-in-chief for review and action as deemed appropriate.

1600           (d)     The senior force judge advocate, or a designee, may review any case in which 1601 there has been a finding of not guilty of all charges and specifications. The senior force judge 1602 advocate, or designee, may not review a case under this subsection if that person has acted in the

1603 same case as an accuser, investigating officer, member of the court, military judge, or counsel or 1604 has otherwise acted on behalf of the prosecution or defense. The senior force judge advocate's 1605 review shall be limited to questions of subject matter jurisdiction.

1606 (e) The record of trial and related documents in each case reviewed under subsection
1607 (d) shall be sent for action to The Adjutant General.

1608 (1) The Adjutant General may —

1609 (A) when subject matter jurisdiction is found to be lacking, void the court-martial ab
1610 initio, with or without prejudice to the Government, as The Adjutant General deems appropriate; 1611 or

1612 (B) return the record of trial and related documents to the senior force judge
1613 advocate for appeal by the Government as provided by law.

1614 Article 65. Disposition of records after review by the convening authority

1629 Government counsel to represent the State in the review or appeal of cases specified in article
1630 67a of this code and before any Federal court when requested to do so by the State Attorney
1631 General. Appellate Government counsel must be a member in good standing of the bar of the 1632 highest court of the State to which the appeal is taken.

1639 cases specified in subsections (b) and (c) of this article.

1640 (e) An accused may be represented by civilian appellate counsel at no expense to the 1641 State.

Article 71. Execution of sentence; suspension of sentence

(a) If the sentence of the court-martial extends to dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge and if the right of the accused to appellate review is not waived, and an appeal is not withdrawn under article 61 of this code, that part of the sentence extending to dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge may not be executed until there is a final judgment as to the legality of the proceedings. A judgment as to the legality of the proceedings is final in such cases when review is completed by an appellate court prescribed in article 67a. of this code, and is deemed final by the law of state where the judgment was had. —

(b) If the sentence of the court-martial extends to dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge and if the right of the accused to appellate review is waived, or an appeal is withdrawn under article 61 of this code, that part of the sentence extending to dismissal or a dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge may not be executed until review of the case by the senior force judge advocate and any action on that review under article 64 of this code is completed. Any other part of a court-martial sentence may be ordered executed by the convening authority or other person acting on the case under article 60 of this code when so approved under that article.

Article 72. Vacation of suspension

(a) Before the vacation of the suspension of a special court-martial sentence, which as approved includes a bad-conduct discharge, or of any general court-martial sentence, the officer having special court-martial jurisdiction over the probationer shall hold a hearing on an alleged violation of probation. The probationer shall be represented at the hearing by military counsel if the probationer so desires.

1664           (b)     The record of the hearing and the recommendation of the officer having special
1665 court- martial jurisdiction shall be sent for action to the officer exercising general court-martial
1666 jurisdiction over the probationer. If the officer vacates the suspension, any unexecuted part of the

1680           (b)     The Commander-in-chief may, for good cause, substitute an administrative form

(a) Under such regulations as may be prescribed, all rights, privileges, and property affected by an executed part of a court-martial sentence which has been set aside or disapproved, except an executed dismissal or discharge, shall be restored unless a new trial or rehearing is ordered and such executed part is included in a sentence imposed upon the new trial or rehearing.

(b) If a previously executed sentence of dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge is not imposed on a new trial, the Commander-in-chief, if authorized, may substitute therefore a form of discharge authorized for administrative issuance unless the accused is to serve out the remainder of the accused's enlistment.

(c) If a previously executed sentence of dismissal is not imposed on a new trial, the Commander-in-chief, if authorized, may substitute therefore a form of discharge authorized for administrative issue, and the commissioned officer dismissed by that sentence may be reappointed by the Commander-in-chief alone to such commissioned grade and with such rank as in the opinion of the Commander-in-chief that former officer would have attained had he or she not been dismissed. The reappointment of such a former officer shall be without regard to the existence of a vacancy and shall affect the promotion status of other officers only insofar as the Commander-in-chief may direct. All time between the dismissal and there appointment shall be considered as actual service for all purposes, including the right to pay and allowances.

Orders

1715 dishonorable or bad-conduct discharge. The accused may be required to begin such leave on the 1716 date on which the sentence is approved under article 60 of this code or at any time after such 1717 date, and such leave may be continued until the date on which action under this article is 1726 proceed in accordance with state law and regulation applicable to the person's lack of capacity.
