The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court
(2017-2018)

An Act to promote and enhance civic engagement.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 29 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after
2           section 2YYYY the following section:-

3           Section 2ZZZZ. There shall be a Civics Project Trust Fund. The commissioner of 4           elementary and secondary education shall administer the fund. Money deposited in the fund shall
5           be used to implement section 2 of chapter 71 and may include grants or other funding to support
6           professional development in relation to said section 2 of said chapter 71 and the development of 7           the history and social science curriculum framework.

8           Money deposited in the fund shall consist of: (i) revenue from appropriations or other
9           money authorized by the general court and specifically designated to be credited to the fund; (ii)
10          interest earned on such revenues; and (iii) funds from other sources. Funds received from 11          nonpublic entities shall be received through a request for proposal process directed and managed
12          by the state treasurer and receiver general. Amounts received from private sources shall be 13          approved by the state treasurer subject to review before being deposited in the fund. Amounts

14 credited to the fund shall not be subject to further appropriation and any money remaining in the 15 fund at the end of a fiscal year shall not revert to the General Fund.

16 Prior to funds being deposited into the Civics Project Trust Fund, the state treasurer and 17 receiver general shall conduct a review of the external sources of revenue. The review shall 18 consider whether the pledged funds are accompanied by conditions, explicit or implicit, on the 19 implementation of civics education programming that are detrimental to the neutral and rigorous
20 teaching of civics or that in any way influence the direction of civics education policy. The 21 review shall be sent to the department of elementary and secondary education, the house and 22 senate committees of ways and means and the joint committee on education prior to the 23 disbursement of funds.

24 Annually not later than October 1, the commissioner shall report to the clerks of the 25 senate and house of representatives, the joint committee on education and the house and senate
26 committees on ways and means on the fund's activity. The report shall include, but not be limited
27 to, revenue received by the fund, revenue and expenditure projections for the next fiscal year and 28 details of all expenditures from the fund.

29 SECTION 2. Chapter 71 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section
30 2, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

31 Section 2. (a) For purposes of this section, the following words shall have the following
32 meanings unless the context clearly requires otherwise:

33 “Board”, the board of elementary and secondary education.

34 “Department”, the department of elementary and secondary education.

35 “Framework”, the history and social science curriculum framework.

36 “Student-led civics project”, a project-based approach that involves a student-led inquiry
37 process and use of interdisciplinary concepts structured around complex questions and engaging 38 tasks and challenges.

39 (b) The board shall ensure that all public schools provide instruction in American history
40 and civics as required subjects to promote civic service and a greater knowledge thereof and to 41 prepare students, morally and intellectually, for the duties of citizenship. Such education shall 42 include instruction on the constitution of the United States, the bill of rights, the declaration of 43 independence, the constitution of the commonwealth, local history and government and a
44 program relating to the flag of the United States of America including, but not limited to, proper
45 etiquette and the correct use and display of the flag, the importance of participation in the 46 electoral process and the provisions of 4 U.S.C. 7 to 9, inclusive, and 36 U.S.C. 170 and 171.

47 (c) The department shall ensure that the framework includes: (i) American history; (ii)
48 local history; (iii) the function and composition of the branches of local, state and federal 49 government; (iv) the constitution of the United States, the bill of rights, the declaration of
50 independence and the constitution of the commonwealth; (v) the electoral process; (vi) the roles
51 and responsibilities of a citizen in a democracy; (vii) the development of media literacy skills to
52 access, analyze and evaluate media as it relates to history and civic education; (viii) community
53 diversity and the role it plays in the democratic process; (ix) knowledge of the ways in which 54 civic participation has been restricted throughout history; and (x) opportunities to identify and
55 debate issues relative to power, economic status and the common good in democracy.

(d) The board shall adopt a policy that requires every public school student to have the opportunity to participate in at least 2 student-led civics projects, at least 1 of which shall be completed after the eighth grade and shall be a high school graduation requirement. Student-led projects may be individual, small group, class wide or completed as part of required coursework. Projects may include, but shall not be limited to including, student-centered exploration of the connections between federal, state and local policies and an issue that impacts the student's community.

(e) Subject to sufficient resources in the Civics Project Trust Fund established in section 2ZZZZ of chapter 29, the department may establish regional civics councils to monitor and provide resources for civics education and the implementation of student-led civics projects to public schools.

Regional civics councils shall consist of representatives from: (i) institutions of higher education; (ii) nonprofits; (iii) the business community; (iv) government, which may include elected officials; (v) elementary and secondary institutions, which may include parents, principals, school administrators, teachers and school committee members; (vi) at least 2 secondary school students; and (vii) organized labor. If a regional civics council provides voting rights to any member of the regional civics council, then voting rights shall also be extended to any secondary school students who are serving on the council. Regional civics councils shall solicit student input from students in their service areas.

The department may promulgate regulations or guidelines consistent with this subsection to identify the size, membership, service area, selection process and responsibilities for regional civics councils.

(f) The department may establish an annual convention to assess the current state of civic education, to share evidence-based best practices and to make recommendations to the board. The department shall provide outreach to regional civics councils to attend and participate in the convention.

(g) A school committee may designate a student outreach officer who shall be responsible, to the extent possible, for ensuring that a student advisory committee, established under section 38M, for that school committee exists and that the student advisory committee is informed of the agenda of the school committee.

(h) Subject to sufficient resources in the Civics Project Trust Fund, the department shall create tools aligned with the framework to support districts in the implementation of this section. The department may collaborate with institutions of higher education and other stakeholder organizations to assist in evaluating the achievement of objectives outlined in this section.

(i) Subject to sufficient resources in the Civics Project Trust Fund, the department shall establish the Edward Moore Kennedy and Edward William Brooke III civics challenge. The challenge shall be available to all eighth grade students and may include a competitive evaluation of a civics project, which may be a student-led civics project, through a process determined by the department. The challenge may be also provided on a regional or statewide level.

(j) The state secretary shall establish the high school voter challenge. The first 2 full weeks in March and the last 2 full weeks in September shall be high school voter challenge weeks.

During voter challenge weeks, voter outreach coordinators may hold voter registration drives and provide outreach to eligible students to register or preregister to vote on any participating high school campus at locations and times deemed appropriate by the school administrator which shall be reasonably accessible to eligible students. Enrolled student in a high school may serve as voter outreach coordinators. Voter outreach coordinators may be selected by either a school administrator or a peer nomination process.

(k) The board shall provide opportunities for educators to receive professional development in civics education.

SECTION 3. There shall be within the department of elementary and secondary education shall a special commission to develop a proposal for the establishment of a program of civic education and public service for youths. The commission shall consist of: the commissioner of elementary and secondary education or a designee, who shall serve as chair; 2 members of the senate, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader; the commissioner of higher education or a designee; the president of the Massachusetts Teachers Association or a designee; the president of the American Federation of Teachers Massachusetts or a designee; the president of the Massachusetts Association of School Committees or a designee; the president of the Massachusetts Association of School Superintendents or a designee; and 9 persons to be appointed by the governor 1 of whom shall be a representative from Facing History and Ourselves National Foundation, Inc.; 1 of whom shall be a representative from the Massachusetts Council for the Social Studies, Inc.; 1 of whom shall be a representative from the Massachusetts Service Alliance, Inc.; 1 of whom shall be a representative from the Massachusetts National Guard; 1 of whom shall be a representative of the Massachusetts Civics Learning Coalition; 1 of whom shall be a representative of the Massachusetts AFL-CIO; 1 of whom shall be a representative from the business community; 1 of whom shall be a representative of a civil rights organization; 1 of whom shall be a representative of a disability rights organization; and 2 of whom shall have demonstrated experience in and a commitment to public service and civic education.

The commission shall investigate and study communities, states and countries that have public service requirements for youths and organizations that promote service in the commonwealth and the United States including, but not limited to, AmeriCorps and the Peace Corps.

The study shall consider: (i) preferred timing and delivery of civics education and engagement in public service; (ii) the recommended agency to administer the program; (iii) recommended funding mechanisms; (iv) ways to ensure quality programming; (v) recommended incentives to encourage participation and success; (vi) whether the service participation should be mandatory; (vii) recommendations on ways to include civil discourse around controversial topics into civics education; and (viii) other topics deemed fitting by the commission.

The commission shall report its findings and recommendations, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry those recommendations into effect, by filing the same with the chairs of the senate and house committees on ways and means, the clerks of the senate and house of representatives, senate and house chairs of the joint committee on education, the senate and house chairs of the joint committee on higher education, the secretary of education and the governor not later than January 1, 2019.

SECTION 4. The state secretary shall disseminate information to cities and towns to promote youth membership on municipal boards, committees and commissions as a means to promote civic engagement. The secretary shall disseminate information under this section not later than December 1, 2018.

SECTION 5. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, subsection (c) of section 2 of chapter 71 of the General Laws shall be consistent with structured learning time requirements as required under 603 CMR 27.00.

SECTION 6. The department of elementary and secondary education shall conduct a study on the full implementation of this act. The study shall include: (i) a breakdown of costs funded through the Civics Project Trust Fund established in section 2ZZZZ of chapter 29 of the General Laws and the degree to which those funds supported municipal and school district activities related to this act; (ii) a description of the municipal and school district activities funded; (iii) an analysis of municipal and school district activities to promote the implementation of this act; and (iv) recommended funding levels for the Civics Project Trust Fund to provide ongoing support for the projects and activities related to this act.

The report shall be filed with the clerks of the senate and house of representatives, the house and senate committees on ways and means and the joint committee on education not later than 9 months after full implementation of this act.

SECTION 7. Subsection (h) and (k) of section 2 of chapter 71 of the General Laws shall take effect for the 2020-2021 academic year.

SECTION 8. The requirement that all public high school students complete a student-led civics project as a condition of graduation under subsection (d) of section 2 of chapter 71 of the General Laws shall apply to all public high school students entering high school on or after academic year 2018-2019.

166           SECTION 9. Subsection (i) of said section 2 of said chapter 71 shall take effect for the 167   2022-2023 academic year.
