SENATE No. 2469

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court (2017-2018)

Resolve establishing a commission on tuition and fee-free and debt-free public higher education.

1 Resolved, There shall be a special commission on tuition and fee-free and debt-free 2 public higher education to consist of: the commissioner of higher education, or a designee, who 3 shall serve as chair; the president of the University of Massachusetts system or a designee; a 4 representative selected by the council of presidents of the state university system; a
5 representative selected by the Massachusetts Community Colleges executive office; the senate
6 and house chairs of the Joint Committee on Higher Education or their designees; and 5 persons 7 to be appointed by the commissioner of the department of higher education, 1 of whom shall be 8 selected from a list of 3 nominees submitted by the Massachusetts Teachers Association, 1 of 9 whom shall be selected from a list of 3 nominees submitted by the Massachusetts Budget and 10 Policy Center, 1 of whom shall be selected from a list of 3 nominees submitted by the Public
11 Higher Education Network of Massachusetts; 1 of whom shall be from the American Student 12 Assistance and 1 of whom shall be a student representative currently enrolled in a public higher 13 education institution in the commonwealth.

14 The commission shall examine and make recommendations on the creation of tuition and 15 fee-free and debt-free college programs in the Commonwealth including, but not limited to: (i)

16 student eligibility including possible requirements for state residency, maximum family income,
17 academic thresholds/GPA, and enrollment status (full-time or part-time); (ii) which public 18 institutions would be eligible, enrollment shifts that may occur, and the potential effect on 19 academic program quality; (iii) the cost to fund the various models explored, including the 20 ordering of state and federal aid required to be applied as “first dollar” or “last dollar” and the 21 cost of covering indirect costs such as books, housing, transportation or other significant 22 matriculation costs; (iv) the potential impact of debt-free college on student debt and degree 23 completion; and (iv) review of currently offered debt-free proposals in other states.

24 The first meeting of the commission shall take place within 45 days after the effective 25 date of this section. The commission shall file a report detailing its recommendations with the 26 clerks of the senate and house of representatives on or before July 31, 2018.
