The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninetieth General Court
(2017-2018)

An Act relative to advertising by a justice of the peace.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 207 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 2 58 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

3 Section 58. A justice of the peace or other person authorized to solemnize marriages may 4 advertise his or her name or any trade name, business address, telephone number, rate of 5 compensation as provided by law, regular hours of availability and any ability in a second 6 language and any present or former professional affiliation, in any public media, such as 7 telephone directory, electronic or computer accessed justice of the peace directory, newspaper or 8 other periodical, radio or television or through written, electronic, computer-accessed or similar 9 types of communication, including websites. Any person who advertises to perform or to procure 10 the performance of a marriage ceremony by any other means shall be punished by a fine of not

11 less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars. This section shall not be construed to prohibit 12 the use of a business card by a justice of the peace or other person authorized to perform 13 marriage ceremonies; and provided, further said card shall not display the seal of the 14 Commonwealth.
