4 "Person with a developmental disability," (1) an individual 5 years of age or older with a severe, chronic disability that: (i) is attributable to a mental or physical impairment or 6 combination of mental and physical impairments; (ii) is manifested before the individual attains age 22; (iii) is likely to continue indefinitely; (iv) results in substantial function limitations in 3

8 or more of the following areas of major life activity: (1) self-care; (2) receptive and expressive language; (3) learning; (4) mobility; (5) self-direction; (6) capacity for independent living; and

(7) economic self-sufficiency; and (v) reflects the individual's need for a combination and sequence of special, interdisciplinary or generic services, individualized supports or other forms of assistance that are of a lifelong or extended duration and are individually planned and

- coordinated; or (2) an individual under the age of 5 who has a substantial developmental delay or 14 specific congenital or acquired condition with a high probability that the condition will result in developmental disability if services are not provided. A person who has a developmental 15 disability may be considered to be mentally ill; provided, however, that no person with a 16 17 developmental disability shall be considered to be mentally ill solely by the reason of the 18 person's developmental disability.
 - SECTION 2: This act shall take effect on January 1, 2020.
