An Act relative to firearm owners protection.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 140 of the Massachusetts General Laws shall be amended by 2 inserting the following new section;

3 Section 131Z: Notwithstanding any general, special law or regulation to the contrary any 4 person, not being a resident of the Commonwealth, who is not otherwise prohibited under federal 5 law from transporting, shipping, or receiving a weapon shall be entitled to transport a weapon for 6 any lawful purpose from any place where he or she may lawfully possess and carry such weapon
7 to any other place where he may lawfully possess and carry such weapon.

8 During such transportation the weapon shall be unloaded. Neither the weapon nor any 9 ammunition being transported shall be readily accessible or directly accessible from the 10 passenger compartment of such transporting vehicle: Provided, That in the case of a vehicle 11 without a compartment separate from the driver’s compartment the weapon and ammunition 12 shall be contained in a locked container other than the glove compartment or console.

13           If a person is found to be in compliance and exempt under this section no persons or 14 property shall be detained, held or confiscated unless an arrestable offense exists outside of the 15 parameters of this section.

16           If a person who is exempt under this section is unexpectedly delayed in their travel
17 including but no limited to mechanical, weather, illness, flight or other commercial travel delays
18 such person shall retain the protections of this section
