The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to establishing a special commission to study the efficacy of funding the construction of public safety buildings through the sales tax.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 There shall be a special commission established pursuant to section 2A of chapter 4 of 2 the General Laws to study the efficacy of funding the construction of public safety buildings 3 through the sales tax. The commission shall consist of 2 members of the house of 4 representatives, 1 of whom shall be nominated by the minority leader, 2 members of the senate, 1
5 of whom shall be nominated by the minority leader, the commissioner of public safety or a 6 designee, the commissioner of revenue, the director of the department of labor relations and 4 7 members to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be a representative of the 8 Massachusetts Chiefs of Police Association Incorporated and 1 of whom shall be a representative 9 from the Professional Fire Fighters of Massachusetts. The members of the commission may elect

10 a member to serve as chair. As part of its study and investigation, the commission shall review
11 the efficacy of the Massachusetts School Building Authority's dedicated revenue stream 12 allocated from the sales tax. Further, the commission shall compare the needs of constructing or 13 renovating public safety buildings in the commonwealth with the goals and purposes of the 14 Massachusetts School Building Authority. The commission shall recommend a percentage of the 15 sales tax to be dedicated to such funding and provide reasons for such recommendation.
