HOUSE No. 3379

By Ms. Malia of Boston, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3379) of Elizabeth A. Malia and others relative to promoting family relationships during incarceration by providing for training for correctional officers. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act reducing recidivism and promoting family relationships during incarceration.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 36C of chapter 127 of the General Laws, as appearing in section 92 of chapter 69
2 of the acts of 2018, is hereby amended by inserting after the third paragraph the following
3 paragraphs:-

4 Notwithstanding any general or special law or rule or regulation to the contrary, every 5 guard, corrections officer and employee of a correctional institution, jail or house of correction
6 shall attend a training session and receive educational information regarding: (1) the importance
7 of ongoing visitation to individuals who are incarcerated as related to reducing recidivism,
8 violence and increasing successful re-entry; and (2) the importance of civility and respectful
9 conduct toward family members and other members of the public who visit individuals who are 10 incarcerated so as to encourage visitation on a regular basis while maintaining security.

11 Training materials and educational information shall be developed in consultation with 12 representatives of the Massachusetts Bar Association, the Women’s Bar Association, Prisoners

13 Legal Services, the Criminal Justice Reform Caucus, ex-prisoners community based 14 organizations, and community based re-entry programs. Prior to implementation, the training 15 materials shall be submitted to the joint committee on the judiciary and the joint committee on 16 public safety and homeland security.
