HOUSE No. 3753

By Mr. Barrett of North Adams, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 3753) of John Barrett, III and others for legislation to limit consumer exposure to deceptive calling practices. Consumer Protection and Professional Licensure.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act to limit consumer exposure to deceptive calling practices.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 159C of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after the definition of “Office”, the following 2 3 definitions:-

4 “Personal identifying information”, any name or telephone number that may be used, 5 alone or in conjunction with any other information, to assume the identity of a person or persons.

6 “Pose”, to falsely represent oneself, directly or indirectly, as another person or persons.

7 SECTION 2. Section 4 of said chapter 159C, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 8 adding the following sentence:- The telephone number listed in the caller identification service 9 or device shall be a valid telephone number attributable and traceable back to the calling party.

10 SECTION 3. Said chapter 159C is hereby amended by inserting after section 4 the 11 following 2 sections:-

12 Section 4A. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, a person shall 13 not, with the intent to deceive, defraud, harass, cause harm or wrongfully obtain anything of 14 value, including, but not limited to, financial resources or personal identifying information:

15 (1) make, place or initiate a call or text message or engage in conduct which results in 16 the display of misleading, false or inaccurate caller identification, or caller ID, information on 17 the receiving party's telephone or device or otherwise circumvent caller identification 18 technology;

19 (2) cause to be displayed a Massachusetts area code on the recipient's caller ID unless the 20 person making, placing or initiating the call or text message maintains a physical presence in the 21 commonwealth; or

22 (3) obtain or use personal identifying information about a person without the express 23 authorization of such person in order to pose or assist another to pose as such person in making, 24 placing or initiating a call or text message.

25 A violation of this section shall be considered an unfair and deceptive act or practice in 26 violation of chapter 93A. This section shall not apply to:

27 (1) lawfully authorized investigative, protective or intelligence activity of a law
28 enforcement agency, a State, or a political subdivision of a State, or of an intelligence agency of 29 the United States; or

30 (2) activity engaged in pursuant to a court order that specifically authorizes the use of 31 caller ID manipulation.

32 Section 4B. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, providers of 33 telephone services in the commonwealth shall implement effective caller authentication 34 technology for all networks to ensure the legitimacy of caller identification numbers provided by 35 their systems to consumers.

36 SECTION 4. Section 8 of said chapter 159C is hereby amended by adding the following 37 subsection:-

38 (d) Aggrieved persons, public interest groups, municipalities of the commonwealth, the 39 department of telecommunications and cable or the attorney general's office may initiate 40 proceedings relating to violations of section 4A. Violations of said section 4A, in actions 41 brought pursuant to this subsection, shall be punished by fines of not more than $10,000 per each 42 deceptive call; provided that said fine shall be not less than $5,000 for each deceptive call 43 involving a consumer age 65 years or older.

44 SECTION 5. There shall be established a special legislative commission pursuant to 45 section 2A of chapter 4 of the General Laws to study methods for and effects of implementing 46 the requirements of section 4B of chapter 159C of the General Laws. The commission shall 47 consist of: 2 members of the house of representatives, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the 48 speaker of the house and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the house; 2 49 members of the senate, 1 of whom shall be appointed by the president of the senate and 1 of 50 whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate; the attorney general or a designee; 51 and 2 persons to be appointed by the governor, 1 of whom shall be a representative of the 52 telecommunications industry, and 1 of whom shall be a consumer protection advocate. The 53 commission shall submit a report to the governor and the clerks of the house of representatives

54 and the senate not later than 1 year after the effective date of this act detailing their findings and 55 recommendations.

56 SECTION 6. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, providers of 57 telephone services in the commonwealth shall implement effective caller authentication
58 technology for all networks to ensure the legitimacy of caller ID numbers provided by their 59 systems to consumers pursuant to section 4B of chapter 159C of the General Laws not later than 60 June 30, 2019.

61 SECTION 7. The office of consumer affairs and business regulation shall promulgate 62 regulations to implement sections 4A and 4B of chapter 159C of the General Laws not later than 63 3 months after the effective date of this act.
