

HOUSE No. 3819

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, May 29, 2019.

The committee on Ways and Means, to whom was referred the message from His Excellency the Governor recommending legislation relative to making appropriations for the fiscal year 2019 to provide for supplementing certain existing appropriations and for certain other activities and projects (House, No. 3702), reports, in part, that the accompanying bill (House, No. 3819) ought to pass [Total Appropriation: $40,195,029.00].

For the committee,

AARON MICHLEWITZ.

HOUSE No. 3819

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act making appropriations for the fiscal year 2019 to provide for supplementing certain existing appropriations and for certain other activities and projects.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to make supplemental appropriations for fiscal year 2019 and to make certain changes in law, each of which is immediately necessary to carry out those appropriations or to accomplish other important public purposes, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. To provide for supplementing certain items in the general appropriation act 2 and other appropriation acts for fiscal year 2019, the sums set forth in section 2 are hereby 3 appropriated from the General Fund unless specifically designated otherwise in this act or in 4 those appropriation acts, for the several purposes and subject to the conditions specified in this 5 act or in those appropriation acts, and subject to the laws regulating the disbursement of public 6 funds for the fiscal year ending June 30, 2019. These sums shall be in addition to any amounts 7 previously appropriated and made available for the purposes of those items. These sums shall be 8 made available until June 30, 2019, except as otherwise stated.

50 SECTION 3. Section 216 of chapter 6 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
51 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 3, the words “up to 4”.

52 SECTION 4. Said section 216 of said chapter 6, as so appearing, is hereby further 53 amended by inserting after the word “designee”, in line 22, the following words:- ; the secretary 54 of technology services and security or a designee; the executive director of the Massachusetts 55 Technology Park Corporation or a designee.

56 SECTION 5. Clause (2) of section 59 of chapter 23K of the General Laws, as amended 57 by section 24 of chapter 154 of the acts of 2018, is hereby further amended by striking out 58 subclause (a) and inserting in place thereof the following subclause:-

59 (a) 2 per cent to the Massachusetts Cultural and Performing Arts Mitigation Trust 60 Fund established in section 2GGGGG of chapter 29;.

61 SECTION 6. Chapter 29 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 62 section 2FFFFFF, inserted by section 7 of chapter 5 of the acts of 2019, the following section:-

63 Section 2GGGGG. (a)There shall be a Massachusetts Cultural and Performing Arts 64 Mitigation Trust Fund. All amounts credited to the fund shall be held in trust and shall be 65 available for expenditure, without further appropriation, by the Massachusetts cultural council.

66 The fund shall consist of: (i) monies transferred to the fund from the Gaming Revenue Fund 67 pursuant to subclause (a) of clause (2) of section 59 of chapter 23K; (ii) income derived from the 68 investment of amounts credited to the fund; and (iii) all other monies credited to or transferred to 69 the fund from any other fund or source. The comptroller may certify amounts for payment in 70 anticipation of expected receipts; provided, however, that no expenditure shall be made from the 71 fund that shall cause the fund to be deficient at the close of a fiscal year. Money remaining in the 72 fund at the close of a fiscal year shall not revert to the General Fund and shall be available for 73 expenditure in subsequent fiscal years.

74 (b) Expenditures from the fund shall be made in the following manner; provided, 75 however, that administrative and operational expenses shall not exceed 7 per cent of the total 76 assets of the fund in any 1 fiscal year: (i) one-quarter of all monies deposited into the fund 77 pursuant to subsection (a) shall be dedicated to the organizational support program of the 78 Massachusetts cultural council; and (ii) three-quarters of all monies deposited into the fund 79 pursuant to said subsection (a) shall be dedicated to support not-for-profit and municipally-80 owned performing arts centers impacted as a result of the operation of gaming facilities; 81 provided, however, that funds dedicated to such performing arts centers shall be to subsidize fees 82 paid to touring shows or artists. Funding dedicated to such performing arts centers shall be 83 allocated through a competitive grant process to be developed and administered by the 84 Massachusetts cultural council.

85 (c) The Massachusetts cultural council shall report annually not later than March 1 to the 86 house and senate committees on ways and means on the fund. The report shall include, but not 87 be limited to, revenue received by the fund, revenue and expenditure projections for the 88 forthcoming fiscal year and details of all expenditures from the fund.

89 SECTION 7. Section 28 of chapter 119 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
90 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out subsection (a) and inserting in place thereof 91 the following subsection:-

92 (a) During the pendency of an action brought under section 24, temporary orders 93 providing for the support of a child may be entered. The court may thereafter enter a judgment 94 against the party chargeable with support. Any order of support entered under this section shall 95 conform to and be enforced under section 12 of chapter 119A. When the court makes an order of 96 support, the court shall determine whether health care coverage for the child is available at 97 reasonable cost and accessible to the child pursuant to section 12 of chapter 119A, and if such 98 coverage is available, enter an order for health care coverage in accordance with said section. If 99 the court determines that an order for health care coverage is not in the best interest of the child 100 or creates an undue hardship for either parent, the court shall enter written findings.

101 SECTION 8. Subsection (a) of section 12 of chapter 119A of the General Laws, as so 102 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 2, the words “, section 40 of chapter 201”.

103 SECTION 9. Said subsection (a) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so 104 appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out, in lines 11 to 13, the words “, unless the 105 obligor and obligee agree in writing that the obligee shall obtain health care coverage for his 106 child or children or that such coverage will be provided by other means”.

107 SECTION 10. Subsection (b) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is 108 hereby amended by striking out paragraph (5) and inserting in place thereof the following 5 109 paragraphs:-

110 (5) Any judgment or order shall include the name, address and social security number of 111 the obligor, if known; and the name, address and federal employer identification number of the 112 obligor's employer; and such other information as the IV-D agency requires to assist it in 113 collecting support payments. With respect to any order for income withholding made payable to 114 the IV-D agency, the issuing court shall provide to the IV-D agency a copy of the judgment or 115 order for support and the order for income withholding, and shall also provide the address and 116 social security number of the obligee, date of birth and social security number of the child and 117 such other information as the IV-D agency requires to assist it in collecting support payments; 118 provided, however, that such information need not be included in the order for income 119 withholding.

120 Each such judgment or order shall also include a provision for health care coverage for 121 the child in accordance with this section; and may require the obligor to pay an amount toward 122 the cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical expenses on behalf of the child.
123 The court shall enter an order that requires the obligor or the obligee to provide health care
124 coverage if such coverage is available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child. If the court 125 determines that an order for health care coverage is not in the best interest of the child or creates 126 an undue hardship for the obligor or the obligee, then the court shall enter written findings.

127 If the child is enrolled in Medicaid, the court shall order the obligee to maintain such 128 coverage for so long as the child remains eligible, provided that if private health insurance is

129 available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child, the court may also order 130 the obligor to enroll the child in such insurance.

131 If health care coverage pursuant to this section is not available to the obligor or the 132 obligee at the time the order is entered, the court shall order the parties to notify the IV-D agency 133 if such coverage becomes available. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage 134 shall be deemed reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage 135 does not exceed 8 per cent of the gross income of said party; (ii) health care coverage shall be 136 deemed accessible to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the primary 137 residence of the child; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available 138 through employment, union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by 139 the Title XIX agency; and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at 140 reasonable cost to obligors or obligees who receive Medicaid on behalf of themselves or the 141 child.

142 If the IV-D agency is responsible for enforcing the order, the court shall order the obligor
143 and the obligee to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and terms of health 144 care coverage. If the obligor is required to provide health care coverage for a child of the 145 obligor's through an employment-related health plan and if the IV-D agency has the name and 146 address of the employer, the IV-D agency shall transfer the national medical support notice, as 147 required by Title IV, Part D of the Social Security Act, to the employer notifying the employer to 148 enroll the child in a health care plan provided by the employer for which the obligor is eligible. If 149 the obligee is required to provide health care coverage, the IV-D agency may transmit such 150 national medical support notice to the employer of the obligee and the provisions of this section 151 with respect to the notice shall apply to such obligee and such employer. The notice may be

152 transmitted to the employer by any method, including paper, facsimile, magnetic tape or other 153 electronic means.

154 SECTION 11. The third paragraph of subsection (c) of said section 12 of said chapter 155 119A, as so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 3 sentences.

156 SECTION 12. Subsection (d) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is 157 hereby amended by striking out the fifth sentence and inserting in place thereof the following 158 sentence:- When said agency ascertains that an obligor has failed to comply with a judgment or 159 order for health care coverage and health care coverage is available to the obligor at reasonable 160 cost and accessible to the child, the IV-D agency shall send notice of the judgment or national 161 medical support notice to the employer or to a provider of health care coverage together with 162 notice of the provisions of subsection (f).

163 SECTION 13. Said subsection (d) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so 164 appearing, is hereby further amended by striking out the last sentence and inserting in place 165 thereof the following sentence:- The obligor may contest an order for health care coverage by 166 requesting that the court that issued the order determine whether such coverage is available to the 167 obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; provided however, that the obligor shall 168 bear the burden of proving that such coverage is not available at reasonable cost or accessible to 169 the child; and provided further, that the provider of health care coverage shall maintain coverage 170 for the child under the order pending a modification of the order.

171 SECTION 14. Said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is hereby further 172 amended by striking out subsection (k) and inserting in place thereof, the following subsection:-

173 (k) Upon receipt of the national medical support notice or upon application of the 174 employee pursuant to the order for health care coverage, the employer shall enroll the child in 175 the health care plan. The national medical support notice shall have the same effect as an 176 enrollment application signed by the employee and shall operate to enroll the child in the health 177 care plan. The employer shall comply with the requirements of the national medical support 178 notice, as set forth in the instructions incorporated into such notice. Where health care coverage 179 is provided by the obligor, the employer or the provider of health care coverage shall furnish the 180 obligee with such information as may be necessary for the child to obtain benefits through the 181 plan and shall permit the obligee or, with the approval of the obligee, the provider of medical 182 services to submit claims for covered services without the approval of the obligor. A claim 183 submitted in accordance with this subsection shall be payable, as appropriate, directly to the 184 obligee, to the provider of medical services or, if the individual has assigned the individual's 185 rights to medical support pursuant to Title XIX of the Social Security Act, to the division of 186 medical assistance. In any case where the division of medical assistance has been assigned the 187 rights of an individual covered for health benefits from the provider of health care coverage and 188 eligible for medical assistance under Title XIX of the Social Security Act, the provider of health 189 care coverage shall apply to the division the same requirements applicable to an agent or 190 assignee of any other individual so covered.

191 SECTION 15. Subsection (m) of said section 12 of said chapter 119A, as so appearing, is 192 hereby amended by striking out the last sentence.

193 SECTION 16. The first paragraph of section 28 of chapter 208 of the General Laws, as so 194 appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences.

195 SECTION 17. Said section 28 of said chapter 208, as so appearing, is hereby further 196 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

197 When the court makes an order for maintenance or support of a child, the court shall 198 include a provision requiring either parent to provide health care coverage for the child, if such 199 coverage is available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; and may require the obligor 200 to pay an amount toward the cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured medical expenses 201 on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care coverage is not in the 202 best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent, then the court shall enter 203 written findings.

204 If the child is enrolled in Medicaid, the court shall order the obligee to maintain such 205 coverage for so long as the child remains eligible; provided, that if private health insurance is 206 available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child, the court may also order 207 the obligor to enroll the child in such insurance.

208 If the IV-D agency as set forth in chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the 209 court shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and 210 terms of health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be 211 deemed reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does
212 not exceed 8 per cent of the gross income of said party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed
213 accessible to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the primary residence
214 of the child; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through 215 employment, union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title

216 XIX agency; and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to 217 parents who receive Medicaid on behalf of themselves or the child.

218 SECTION 18. The fifth paragraph of section 32 of chapter 209 of the General Laws, as 219 so appearing, is hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences.

220 SECTION 19. Said section 32 of said chapter 209, as so appearing, is hereby further 221 amended by inserting after the fifth paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

222 When the court makes an order for maintenance or support on behalf of a spouse or child, 223 said court shall include a provision requiring either parent to provide health care coverage for the 224 child, if such coverage is available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; and may require
225 the obligor to pay an amount toward the cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured
226 medical expenses on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care
227 coverage is not in the best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent,
228 then the court shall enter written findings.

229 If the child is enrolled in Medicaid, the court shall order the obligee to maintain such 230 coverage for so long as the child remains eligible; provided, that if private health insurance is 231 available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child, the court may also order 232 the obligor to enroll the child in such insurance.

233 If the IV-D agency as set forth in chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the 234 court shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and 235 terms of health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be 236 deemed reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does 237 not exceed 8 per cent of the gross income of said party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed

238 accessible to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the primary residence
239 of the child; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through 240 employment, union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title
241 XIX agency; and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to 242 parents who receive Medicaid on behalf of themselves or the child.

243 SECTION 20. The first paragraph of section 37 of said chapter 209, as so appearing, is 244 hereby amended by striking out the last 2 sentences.

245 SECTION 21. Said section 37 of said chapter 209, as so appearing, is hereby further 246 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

247 When the court makes an order for support or maintenance on behalf of a child, said 248 court shall include a provision requiring either parent to provide health care coverage for the 249 child, if such coverage is available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; and may require
250 the obligor to pay an amount toward the cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured
251 medical expenses on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care
252 coverage is not in the best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent,
253 then the court shall enter written findings.

254 If the child is enrolled in Medicaid, the court shall order the obligee to maintain such 255 coverage for so long as the child remains eligible, provided that if private health insurance is 256 available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child, the court may also order 257 the obligor to enroll the child in such insurance.

258 If the IV-D agency as set forth in chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the 259 court shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and

260 terms of health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be 261 deemed reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does 262 not exceed 8 per cent of the gross income of said party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed
263 accessible to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the primary residence
264 of the child; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through 265 employment, union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title
266 XIX agency; and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to 267 parents who receive Medicaid on behalf of themselves or the child.

268 SECTION 22. The first paragraph of section 9 of chapter 209C, as so appearing, is 269 hereby amended by striking out the seventh and eighth sentences.

270 SECTION 23. Said section 9 of said chapter 209C, as so appearing, is hereby further 271 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs:-

272 When the court makes an order or judgment for maintenance or support of a child, said 273 court shall include a provision requiring either parent to provide health care coverage for the 274 child, if such coverage is available at reasonable cost and accessible to the child; and may require
275 the obligor to pay an amount toward the cost of health care coverage or toward uninsured
276 medical expenses on behalf of the child. If the court determines that an order for health care
277 coverage is not in the best interest of the child or creates an undue hardship for either parent,
278 then the court shall enter written findings.

279 If the child is enrolled in Medicaid, the court shall order the obligee to maintain such 280 coverage for so long as the child remains eligible, provided that if private health insurance is

281 available to the obligor at reasonable cost and accessible to the child, the court may also order 282 the obligor to enroll the child in such insurance.

283 If the IV-D agency as set forth in chapter 119A is responsible for enforcing the order, the 284 court shall order the parents to notify the IV-D agency of any changes in the availability and 285 terms of health care coverage. For the purposes of this section: (i) health care coverage shall be 286 deemed reasonable in cost if the cost to the party ordered to provide health care coverage does 287 not exceed 8 per cent of the gross income of said party; (ii) health care coverage shall be deemed
288 accessible to the child if covered services are available within 15 miles of the primary residence
289 of the child; (iii) health care coverage includes private health insurance available through 290 employment, union affiliation or otherwise, and public health coverage administered by the Title
291 XIX agency; and (iv) private health insurance shall be deemed not available at reasonable cost to 292 parents who receive Medicaid on behalf of themselves or the child.

293 SECTION 24. The first paragraph of section 12A of chapter 494 of the acts of 1978 is 294 hereby amended by striking out the words “and until July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 1 of 295 chapter 159 of the acts of 2018, and inserting in place thereof the following words:- and until 296 July 31, 2020.

297 SECTION 25. The last paragraph of said section 12A of said chapter 494 is hereby 298 amended by striking out the words “July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 2 of said chapter 159, and 299 inserting in place thereof the following words:- July 31, 2020.

301 amended by striking out the words “and until July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 3 of said
302 chapter 159, and inserting in place thereof the following words:- and until July 31, 2020.

303 SECTION 27. Section 15 of said chapter 494 is hereby amended by striking out the 304 words “and until July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 4 of said chapter 159, and inserting in place 305 thereof the following words:- and until July 31, 2020.

306 SECTION 28. The first paragraph of section 9 of chapter 277 of the acts of 1986 is 307 hereby amended by striking out the words “and until July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 5 of said
308 chapter 159, and inserting in place thereof the following words:- and until July 31, 2020.

309 SECTION 29. The first sentence of the first paragraph of section 3 of chapter 114 of the 310 acts of 1991 is hereby amended by striking out the words “and until July 31, 2019”, inserted by 311 section 6 of said chapter 159, and inserting in place thereof the following words:- and until July 312 31, 2020.

313 SECTION 30. The last paragraph of said section 3 of said chapter 114 is hereby 314 amended by striking out the words “July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 7 of said chapter 159, and 315 inserting in place thereof the following words:- July 31, 2020.

316 SECTION 31. The first paragraph of section 4 of said chapter 114 is hereby amended by 317 striking out the words “and until July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 8 of said chapter 159, and 318 inserting in place thereof the following words:- and until July 31, 2020.

319 SECTION 32. The last paragraph of said section 4 of said chapter 114 is hereby 320 amended by striking out the words “July 31, 2019”, inserted by section 9 of said chapter 159, and
