An Act creating a special commission to study the participation of minority business enterprises and women business enterprises in public construction projects.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the 2   contrary, there shall be established a special commission to investigate, study, and make 3   legislative recommendations on the adequacy and efficiency of laws and regulations governing 4   the participation of minority business enterprises and women business enterprises on public 5   construction projects. The commission shall consist of 21 members, 1 of whom shall be 6   appointed by the governor who shall serve as the co-chairman of the commission; 1 of whom 7   shall be appointed by the attorney general, 3 of whom shall be members of the senate, 2 of whom 8   shall be appointed by the president of the senate, of which 1 shall serve as co-chairman of the 9   commission and 1 of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader of the senate; 3 of whom 10   shall be members of the house of representatives, 2 of whom shall be appointed by the speaker of 11   the house, of which 1 shall serve as co-chairman of the commission and 1 of whom shall be 12   appointed by the minority leader of the house of representatives; the chair of the Massachusetts 13   Black and Latino Legislative Caucus or their designee; the commissioner of the department of 14 capital asset management and maintenance; the inspector general; the chairperson or their 15 designee of the Massachusetts Municipal Association; the president or their designee of the 16 Massachusetts Building Trades Council; the president or their designee of the Associated 17 General Contractors of Massachusetts; the president or their designee of the Building Trades 18 Employers Association; the president or their designee of Associated Subcontractors of 19 Massachusetts; the president or their designee of Construction Industries of Massachusetts; the 20 president or their designee of the Massachusetts AFL-CIO; a representative of the Massachusetts 21 Minority Contractors Association, a representative of the National Association of Women and 22 Construction, and a representative of The Policy Group on Tradeswomen's issues. The 23 commission shall file a report on the results of its study, together with its recommendations, if 24 any, and any legislation necessary to carry such recommendations into effect, with the clerks of 25 the house of representatives and the senate not later than December 31, 2020.
