The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to greater fairness in insurance.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 226 is added to the General Laws of Massachusetts, Chapter 175

2 INSURANCE to read:

3 Section 226.

(a) If a policy, contract, certificate, or agreement offered, issued, delivered, or renewed, whether or not in Massachusetts, that provides, backs up, reinsures, or funds, in whole or in part, life insurance, health insurance, annuities, accident insurance, long term care insurance, or disability insurance coverage for any Massachusetts resident contains a provision that reserves discretionary authority to the insurer, or an agent of the insurer, to determine eligibility for benefits or coverage, to interpret the terms of the policy, contract, certificate, or agreement, or to 10 provide standards of interpretation or review that are inconsistent with the laws of this state, that 11 provision is void and unenforceable.

(b) For purposes of this section, "renewed" means continued in force on or after thepolicy's anniversary date.

(c) For purposes of this section, the term "discretionary authority" means a policy provision that has the effect of conferring discretion on an insurer or other claim administrator to determine entitlement to benefits or interpret policy language that, in turn, could lead to a deferential standard of review by any reviewing court.

(d) Nothing in this section prohibits an insurer from including a provision in a contract that informs an insured that as part of its routine operations the insurer applies the terms of its contracts for making decisions, including making determinations regarding eligibility, receipt of benefits and claims, or explaining policies, procedures, and processes, so long as the provision could not give rise to a deferential standard of review by any reviewing court.

(e) The Commissioner of Insurance ("Commissioner") shall not approve any health, life or disability policy for issuance or delivery in Massachusetts in any of the following circumstances:

If it includes a provision that reserves discretionary authority, as defined by Section 226, to the insurer, or an agent of the insurer, to determine eligibility for benefits or coverage or to interpret the terms of the policy; or if it provides standards of interpretation or review that are inconsistent with the laws of Massachusetts; or if it contains or incorporates by reference, where the incorporation is otherwise permissible, any inconsistent, ambiguous, or misleading clauses or exceptions and conditions that deceptively affect the risk purported to be assumed in the general coverage of the contract; or if it has any title, heading, or other indication of its provisions that is misleading; or if it is printed or otherwise reproduced in a manner that renders any provision of the form substantially illegible; or if it fails to conform in any respect with any law of Massachusetts.

(f) If any provision of this Section or its application to any person or circumstance is held to be illegal, invalid, or unenforceable, no other provisions or applications of this Section that can be given effect without the illegal, invalid or unenforceable provision or application shall be affected; and to this end the provisions of this Section are severable.
