HOUSE No. 1525

By Mr. Moran of Lawrence, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1525) of Frank A. Moran and others relative to access to community corrections. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court
(2019-2020)

An Act relative to access to community corrections.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 211F of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following definition:-

3 “Re-entry services program”, any program that is operated by a state, local or private
4 service agency that the office of community corrections has deemed appropriate for a person
5 previously released from custody, provided, however, that re-entry service programs shall be a 6 separate track of programming from community correction programs offered under section 3 of 7 this chapter; provided further, that sanctions under said section 3 shall not be applicable to the re-
8 entry service program track.

9 SECTION 2. Section 2 of said chapter 211F, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 10 inserting after the word “of”, in line ?, the following words:- re-entry and.

11 SECTION 3. Said section 2 of said chapter 211F, as so appearing, is hereby further 12 amended by inserting the word “developing” in line ?, the following words:- re-entry and.

13 SECTION 4. Said section 2 of said chapter 211F, as so appearing, is hereby further 14 amended by inserting after the word “corrections” in line ?, the following words:- and re-entry.

15 SECTION 5. Section 3 of Chapter 211F of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
16 Official Edition, is hereby amended by striking out the final paragraph and inserting in place
17 thereof:-

18 (e) An offender’s eligibility for sentencing to a community corrections program cannot be 19 based solely on a charge or conviction for a specific offense.

20 SECTION 6. Chapter 211F of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018 Official
21 Edition, is hereby amended by inserting after Section 3B the following section:-

22 Section 3C. Utilization of re-entry programs offered through community corrections
23 program for persons released from any correctional institution of the commonwealth.

24 (a) The re-entry programs offered by community corrections may be utilized by any 25 person released from any correctional institution for the commonwealth provided (i) there is 26 available space; and (ii) their application is approved by the Office of Community Corrections.

27 (b) The parole status of any released person shall not affect eligibility for re-entry 28 services.

29 (c) The Department of Probation may consider allowing third parties to provide re-
30 entry services through evidence based, effective, and innovative programs.

31 (d) The Department of Probation may work to house the re-entry services in different
32 locations from the sanctions and corrections programs it administers at Community Corrections
33 Centers.

34 SECTION 7. Notwithstanding any general or special law or rule or regulation to the 35 contrary, the Department of Corrections and Houses of Corrections and Jails shall furnish 36 government identification to each leaving prisoner, along with information about re-entry
37 services available through Community Corrections Centers and any other re-entry program of 38 note.
