HOUSE No. 138

By Ms. Khan of Newton, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 138) of Kay Khan and others for legislation to increase the rate of reimbursement for certain human services providers. Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to fair pay for comparable work.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 6A of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 2016 Official
2 Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

3

4 Section 105. (a) As used in this section, the following words shall, unless the 5 context clearly requires otherwise, have the following meanings:

6

7 “human service provider,” a community-based human services organization with a
8 human services program funded by the executive office of health and human services, the 9 executive office of elder affairs, the department of housing and community development or the 10 department of early education and care.

11

12 “human services worker,” an employee of a human service provider who provides
13 treatment, support, or services to clients or their families.

14

15 “disparity amount,” the monetary calculation of the average difference in salary
16 between human service workers and direct support workers or other comparable employees
17 employed by the commonwealth’s state-operated programs for human services.

18

19 “rate,” the reimbursement rate paid by the executive office of health and human
20 services, the executive office of elder affairs, the department of housing and community
21 development or the department of early education and care to a human service provider to 22 deliver services to clients on the commonwealth’s behalf.

23

24 (b) Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, the executive office
25 of health and human services, the executive office of elder affairs, the department of housing and 26 community development or the department of early education and care shall increase shall 27 increase the rate of reimbursement for human services providers by an amount that reduces the 28 disparity amount, as defined by subsection (a), to:

29

30 (1) 50 percent on or before July 1, 2021;

31

32 (2) 35 percent on or before July 1, 2022;

33

34 (3) 20 percent on or before July 1, 2023;

35

36 (4) 5 percent on or before July 1, 2024; and

37

38 (5) 0 percent on or before July 1, 2025, and shall remain at 0 percent thereafter.

39

40 (c) All increases in the rate of reimbursement provided for in this section shall be
41 used to increase the compensation of human services workers.

42 (d) The executive office of health and human services, the executive office of 43 administration and finance, the executive office of elder affairs, the department of housing and
44 community development, and the department of early education and care shall adopt regulations
45 to implement this section.

46

47 (e) Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit the elimination of the 48 disparity amount prior to July 1, 2025.

49 SECTION 2. On or before January 1, 2020, the executive office of health and
50 human services, the executive office of administration and finance, the executive office of elder

51 affairs, the department of housing and community development, and the department of early
52 education and care, in collaboration with the Massachusetts Council of Human Service
53 Providers, Inc., shall provide a report to the senate and house committees on ways and means
54 that includes recommendations to strengthen recruitment and retention of human services
55 workers, as defined in subsection (a) of section 105 of chapter 6A of the General Laws,
56 employed by human services providers, as defined in subsection (a) of section 105 of chapter 6A
57 of the General Laws, that have contracts with the state.

58

59 SECTION 3. On or before July 1, 2020, the executive office of health and human
60 services, the executive office of elder affairs, the department of housing and community
61 development or the department of early education and care, in collaboration with the 62 Massachusetts Council of Human Service Providers, Inc., shall provide a report to the senate and
63 house committees on ways and means, the joint committee on children, families and persons
64 with disabilities, the joint committee on elder affairs, the joint committee on health care
65 financing, the joint committee on mental health, substance use, and recovery, the joint committee
66 on public health, and the joint committee on state administration and regulatory oversight that
67 includes the following information:

68

69 (1) the current disparity amount, as defined in subsection (a) of section 105 of 70 chapter 6A of the General Laws, between the salaries of human services workers, as defined in
71 subsection (a) of section 105 of chapter 6A of the General Laws, employed by human service
72 providers, as defined in subsection (a) of section 105 of chapter 6A of the General Laws, and

73 direct support workers or other comparable employees employed by the commonwealth's state-
74 operated programs for human services; and

75

76 (2) the amount of annual increases in the rate of reimbursement, as defined in
77 subsection (a) of section 105 of chapter 6A of the General Laws, to human service providers
78 necessary to reduce and eliminate the disparity amount by July 1, 2025.
