HOUSE . . . . . No. 1217

By Mr. Gordon of Bedford, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 1217) of Kenneth I. Gordon and others for legislation to require the annual filing of fiscal health and stability reports by certain colleges and universities. Higher Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to higher education transparency.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 16 of chapter 15A of the General Laws is amended by inserting the following 2 section:

3 Section 4B. The Board of Higher Education shall require all Massachusetts colleges and 4 universities that are authorized to issue associates degrees and/or bachelor’s degrees, public and 5 private, (“Institution”) to produce annually a report on their fiscal health and stability. The 6 Board of Higher Education shall issue regulations, determine the process for submitting said
7 report, and establish deadlines. Failure to submit such report by the date due shall result in a 8 $100 per day fine. Said report shall include at least the following: size of endowment; size of 9 annual operating budget; percentage of administration that has resigned or been terminated in the 10 past year; percentage of annual operating budget spent on teacher and faculty compensation; 11 breakdown of teachers and faculty identifying numbers of those with tenure, on tenure track, and 12 numbers employed as full-time, salaried contingent faculty, part-time, salaried contingent

13 faculty, adjunct faculty, and graduate student instructors, as well as additional breakdowns for 14 each category identifying how many teach online; disclosure of any plans that have been 15 presented to any formal panel within the Institution to close programs or majors that could affect 16 incoming classes; faculty to student ratio, including any changes in this ratio from the previous 17 year; in-class course hours per course credit, including any changes in this ratio from the 18 previous year; tuition, fees, and other costs for students; graduation rate; transfer rate; and other 19 data as determined by the Board of Higher Education. The Board of Higher Education shall 20 make this information available on its website and in other formats.
