2 out (a) “any such election” and place therein “any state or federal election.”

3 SECTION 2. Chapter 51 of the General Laws in hereby amended by inserting after 4 section 1F the following section:-

5 Section 1G. Voting for Citizens 16 years of age and older in city or town elections

6 Every citizen sixteen years of age or older, not being a person under guardianship or 7 incarcerated in a correctional facility due to a felony conviction, and not being temporarily or 8 permanently disqualified by law because of corrupt practices in respect to elections, who is a 9 resident in the city or town where they claim the right to vote at the time they register, and who 10 resides in a city or town where the city council, town meeting, selectboard, or other form of town
11 governance granted right to vote by majority vote, and who has complied with the requirements 12 of this chapter, may have their name entered on the list of voters in such city or town, and may

13 vote therein in any such municipal, or except insofar as restricted in any town in which a 14 representative town meeting form of government has been established, in any meeting held for 15 the transaction of town affairs. Notwithstanding any special law to the contrary, every such 16 citizen who resides within the boundaries of any district, as defined in section one A of chapter 17 forty-one, may vote for district officers and in any district meeting thereof, and no other person 18 may so vote.
