HOUSE No. 150

By Representative Miranda of Boston and Senator Rausch, a joint petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 150) of Liz Miranda, Rebecca L. Rausch and others relative to the rights of persons experiencing homelessness. Children, Families and Persons with Disabilities.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court
(2019-2020)

An Act relative to the safety, dignity, and civil rights of persons experiencing homelessness.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 45 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 1
2 and inserting in place thereof the following section:-

3 Section 1. As used in this chapter, the following words shall, unless the context clearly
4 requires otherwise, have the following meanings:

5 (a) “Housing status” means a person’s current ability to access a fixed, regular, or
6 adequate nighttime residence.

7 (b) “Park” shall include a city or town common dedicated to the use of the public, or 8 appropriated to such use without interruption for a period of 20 years.

9 (c) “Persons experiencing homelessness” means persons who lack, or are perceived
10 to lack, a fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence. Persons experiencing homelessness
11 includes but is not limited to persons who:

(1) share the housing of other persons due to loss of housing, economic hardship or a similar reason;

(2) live in motels, hotels, trailer parks or campgrounds due to the lack of fixed, regular, and adequate nighttime residence;

(3) live in emergency or transitional shelters;

(4) are abandoned in hospitals;

(5) are awaiting foster care placement;

(6) have a primary nighttime residence that is a public or private place not designed for or ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for human beings;

(7) live in cars, parks, public spaces, abandoned buildings, bus or train stations or similar settings; or

(8) are transient and otherwise experiencing homelessness as described in this subsection.

(d) “Public space” means any real property that is owned, in whole or in part, by the Commonwealth or any municipality, or upon which there is an easement for public use, and is held open to the public. Public space includes but is not limited to plazas, courtyards, parking lots, sidewalks, public transportation facilities and services, public buildings, and parks. Public space does not include a private business establishment.

(e) “Recreational vehicle” has the meaning given that term in section 20 of chapter 90B of the general laws.

(f) “Rest” means the state of sleeping or not moving or the state of holding certain postures that include but are not limited to sitting, standing, leaning, kneeling, squatting or lying on the ground or other surface.

(g) “Town” shall not include city.

SECTION 2. Chapter 45 is hereby further amended by inserting after Section 25 the following section:

Section 26. Rights of Homeless Persons

(a) Persons experiencing homelessness shall have the right to:

(1) use public spaces in the same manner as any other person without discrimination based on their housing status;

(2) a reasonable expectation of privacy in any personal property belonging to the person, regardless of whether the personal property is located in a public space;

(3) interact with public officials, employees, and officers without harassment on the basis of their housing status;

(4) rest in public spaces and seek protection from adverse weather in a manner that does not obstruct human or vehicle traffic;

(5) eat, share, accept, or give food in any public space in which having food is not prohibited;

(6) pray, meditate, worship, or practice religion in public spaces without discrimination based on housing status; and

(7) occupy a motor vehicle or a recreational vehicle, provided that the vehicle is legally parked on public property or on private property with the express permission of the private property owner.

(b) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section pertaining to public spaces shall not apply if the public space is closed to the general public or requires a fee for entry. When practicable, public officials, employees, or officers shall clearly designate and provide an appropriate alternative place for persons experiencing homelessness to rest without time limitations in the near vicinity.

(c) It shall be an affirmative defense to a civil claim or criminal charge related to use of public spaces that a person experiencing homelessness was exercising any right set forth in this section.

SECTION 3. Section 1 of chapter 50 is hereby amended by inserting after the last sentence the following sentence:-

Lack of a fixed, permanent residence for a person experiencing homelessness shall not prohibit voter registration.
