An Act providing for increased transparency in the prevailing wage.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. There is hereby established a Prevailing Wage Commission, the purpose of 2           which shall be to determine the effectiveness, practicality and usefulness in establishing fair
3           wage rates of Massachusetts Prevailing Wage Law, so-called, as contained in Chapters 149, 5, 4           71, and 121B of the general laws. In making such determinations the commission shall consider,
5           at a minimum, whether the provisions of the current law result in wage rates which accurately 6           reflect the actual market wage rates in the specific categories and geographic areas to which they 7           apply, and whether other methodologies, including but not limited to those employed by the 8           federal government, may yield rates which more accurately reflect prevailing market rates. Said 9           commission shall consist of the Commissioner of Labor and Industries, whom shall serve as its 10          chair, two members appointed by the Speaker of the House, one of which shall represent the 11 minority party, two members appointed by the Senate President, one of whom shall represent the 12 minority party, and seven members appointed by the governor, three of whom shall represent 13 organized labor, three of whom shall represent employers of union and non-union employees in 14 the commonwealth, and one member from a list of three names submitted by the Massachusetts

15 Municipal Association.

16 SECTION 2. The Department of Labor Standards within the Executive Office of Labor 17 and Workforce Development is hereby authorized and directed to provide information on its 18 website that details the current prevailing wage rates, the methodology by which the rates are 19 determines, and any actions that have been taken within the last twelve months to modify one or 20 more rates.

21 SECTION 3. The Department of Labor Standards within the Executive Office of Labor
22 and Workforce Development shall conduct at least one public hearing per year on issues relating 23 to the prevailing wage law, notice of which shall be promulgated as extensively as possible, and 24 specifically provided to the municipalities and other political subdivisions of the commonwealth, 25 and to the extent possible, organizations representing employers engaged in public projects and 26 organizations representing organized labor in the commonwealth.
