HOUSE No. 971

By Mr. Finn of West Springfield, a petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 971) of Michael J. Finn relative to insurance coverage of mobile integrated health. Financial Services.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to insurance coverage of mobile integrated health.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 32A of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 2 section 17O the following section:-

3 "Section 17P. The group insurance commission and any carrier as defined in section 1 of 4 chapter 176O or other entity which contracts with the commission to provide health benefits to 5 eligible employees and retirees and their eligible dependents shall not decline to provide 6 coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services solely on the basis that those services 7 were delivered by a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in 8 a mobile integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to 9 chapter 111O. Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved 10 mobile integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were 11 provided in a health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of 12 payments for otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services
13 were delivered by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health

14 care program. A contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a
15 deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care 16 provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the 17 deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance
18 applicable to delivery of the same services within a health care facility."

19 SECTION 2. Chapter 118E of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 20 inserting after section 10J the following section:-

21 "Section 10K. The division and its contracted health insurers, health plans, health 22 maintenance organizations, behavioral health management firms and third party administrators
23 under contract to a Medicaid managed care organization, the Medicaid primary care clinician 24 plan, or an accountable care organization shall not decline to provide coverage for medical,
25 behavioral or health care services solely on the basis that those services were delivered by a 26 health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile integrated 27 health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter 111O.
28 Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile integrated 29 health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a health care
30 facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for otherwise covered 31 services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered by a health care 32 provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A contract that 33 provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible, copayment or 34 coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care provider participating in an 35 approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the deductible, copayment or

36 coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to delivery of 37 the same services within a health care facility."

38 SECTION 3. Chapter 175 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 39 inserting after section 47II the following section:-

40 "Section 47JJ. Any policy, contract, agreement, plan or certificate of insurance issued, 41 delivered or renewed within the commonwealth, shall not decline to provide coverage for 42 medical, behavioral or health care services solely on the basis that those services were delivered 43 by a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile
44 integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter
45 111O. Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile
46 integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a
47 health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for 48 otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered
49 by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A
50 contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible,
51 copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care provider
52 participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the deductible,
53 copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable
54 to delivery of the same services within a health care facility."

55 SECTION 4. Chapter 176A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 56 inserting after section 8KK the following section:-

57 "Section 8LL. Any contract between a subscriber and the corporation under an individual 58 or group hospital service plan which is delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth 59 shall not decline to provide coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by 60 a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile
61 integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter
62 111O. Medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile
63 integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a
64 health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for
65 otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered
66 by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A
67 contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible,
68 copayment or coinsurance requirement for a service provided by a health care provider
69 participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the deductible,
70 copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable
71 to delivery of the same services within a health care facility."

72 SECTION 5. Chapter 176B of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 73 inserting after section 4KK the following section:-

74 "Section 4LL. Any subscription certificate under an individual or group medical service 75 agreement delivered, issued or renewed within the commonwealth shall not decline to provide 76 coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by a health care provider, as 77 defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile integrated health care program 78 approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter 111O. Medical, behavioral or 79 health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile integrated health care program shall

80 be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a health care facility, as defined in 81 section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for otherwise covered services shall not be 82 reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered by a health care provider participating 83 in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A contract that provides coverage for care 84 delivered may contain a provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance requirement for a 85 service provided by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health 86 care program as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the 87 deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to delivery of the same services within a health 88 care facility."

89 SECTION 6. Chapter 176G of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 90 inserting after section 4CC the following section:-

91 Section 4DD. Any individual or group health maintenance contract that is issued or 92 renewed shall not decline to provide coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services
93 delivered by a health care provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a 94 mobile integrated health care program approved by the department of public health pursuant to
95 chapter 111O. Medical, behavioral, or health care services delivered by way of an approved
96 mobile integrated health care program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were
97 provided in a health care facility, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of
98 payments for otherwise covered services shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services
99 were delivered by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health
100 care program. A contract that provides coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a
102 provider participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program as long as the

103 deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance
104 applicable to delivery of the same services within a health care facility.

105 SECTION 6. Chapter 176I of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 106 inserting after section 12 the following section:-

107 "Section 13. An organization entering into a preferred provider contract shall not decline 108 to provide coverage for medical, behavioral or health care services delivered by a health care
109 provider, as defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, participating in a mobile integrated health care 110 program approved by the department of public health pursuant to chapter 111O. Medical, 111 behavioral, or health care services delivered by way of an approved mobile integrated health care 112 program shall be covered to the same extent as if they were provided in a health care facility, as 113 defined in section 1 of chapter 111O, and the rates of payments for otherwise covered services
114 shall not be reduced on the grounds that those services were delivered by a health care provider
115 participating in an approved mobile integrated health care program. A contract that provides 116 coverage for care delivered may contain a provision for a deductible, copayment or coinsurance
117 requirement for a service provided by a health care provider participating in an approved mobile 118 integrated health care program as long as the deductible, copayment or coinsurance does not 119 exceed the deductible, copayment or coinsurance applicable to delivery of the same services 120 within a health care facility."
