The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act relative to collective bargaining dues.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 10B of chapter 66 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2016
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following paragraph:-

3 The home address, personal email address and home or mobile telephone number of an 4 employee of an agency, executive office, department, board, commission, bureau, division or 5 authority of the commonwealth, or of a political subdivision thereof, or of an authority 6 established by the general court to serve a public purpose, in the custody of the governmental 7 entity which maintains records identifying persons as falling within those categories shall not be 8 public; provided, that the information may be disclosed only to an employee organization whose 9 written aims and objectives on file with the department of labor relations are to represent public 10 employees in collective bargaining under chapter 150E or under chapter 150A for employees of

11 a public authority subject to chapter 150A by chapter 760 of the acts of 1982, a nonprofit 12 organization for retired public employees under chapter 180, a criminal justice agency as defined 13 in section 167 of chapter 6 or as otherwise required by law. The home address, personal email 14 address and home or mobile telephone number of a family member of an employee, contained in 15 a record in the custody of a government agency which maintains records identifying employees 16 of an agency, executive office, department, board, commission, bureau, division or authority of 17 the commonwealth, or of a political subdivision thereof, or of an authority established by the 18 general court to serve a public purpose shall not be public; provided, that the information may be 19 disclosed as required by law.

20 SECTION 2. Section 5 of chapter 150E of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 21 amended by inserting after the first paragraph the following 3 paragraphs: -

22 Provided, however, that notwithstanding this or any other general or special law to the 23 contrary, the exclusive representative may require a non-member to pay for the reasonable costs 24 and fees, including arbitrator fees and related attorney fees for grieving or arbitrating a matter 25 that arises under an agreement negotiated pursuant to this section and is brought at the non-26 member's request. Employee organizations may require non-members to pay any anticipated 27 proportional costs and fees prior to a grievance or arbitration hearing. Failure to pay costs and 28 fees shall relieve the exclusive representative of further responsibility to the non-member 29 regarding the matter.

30 Notwithstanding this or any other general or special law to the contrary, an exclusive 31 representative's duty of fair representation to a public employee who is in the bargaining unit 32 shall be limited to the negotiation and enforcement of the terms of agreements with the public

33 employer. The laws of the commonwealth shall not be construed to prohibit an employee 34 organization from providing only to its members legal, economic or job-related services or 35 benefits outside of the collective bargaining agreement.

36 SECTION 3. Chapter 150E of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after 37 section 5 the following section: -

38 Section 5A. (a) Public employers shall provide to an employee organization access to 39 members of the bargaining unit that the employee organization exclusively represents. Access 40 shall include, but shall not be limited to, the following:

41 (i) the right to meet with individual employees on the premises of the public employer 42 during the work day to investigate and discuss grievances, workplace-related complaints and 43 other workplace issues;

44 (ii) the right to conduct worksite meetings during lunch and other non-work breaks, and 45 before and after the workday, on the employer's premises to discuss workplace issues, collective 46 bargaining negotiations, the administration of collective bargaining agreements, other matters 47 related to the duties of an exclusive representative and internal union matters involving the 48 governance or business of the employee organization; and

49 (iii) the right to meet with newly hired employees, without charge to the pay or leave 50 time of the employees, for a minimum of 30 minutes, not later than 10 calendar days after the 51 date of hire, during new employee orientations or, if the employer does not conduct new 52 employee orientations, at individual or group meetings. In the case of school employees, the 53 employer shall notify the exclusive representative of a hiring decision not later than 10 calendar

54 days after the date a prospective employee accepts an offer of employment, and shall provide to 55 the exclusive representative the employee contact information identified in subsection (b).

56 (b) Not later than 10 calendar days after the date a prospective school employee accepts 57 an offer of employment or after the date of hire for all other public bargaining unit employees, 58 public employers shall provide the following contact information to an exclusive representative 59 employee organization in spreadsheet file format or other format agreed to by the exclusive 60 representative employee organization: name, job, title, worksite location, home address, work 61 telephone numbers, home and personal cellular telephone numbers on file with the public 62 employer, date of hire, work email address and personal email address on file with the public 63 employer.

64 (c) Home addresses, phone numbers, email addresses, dates of birth, bargaining units and 65 groupings of employees and emails or other communications between employee organizations 66 and their members are not public records and are prohibited from disclosure except as provided 67 in clauses Twenty-sixth(o) and (p) of section 7 of chapter 4.

68 (d) The exclusive representative shall have the right to use the email system of a public 69 employer to communicate with bargaining unit members regarding official union-related matters 70 including, but not limited to, elections, results of elections, meetings and social activities;
71 provided, that the use does not create an unreasonable burden on network capability or system 72 administration.

73 (e) The exclusive representative shall have the right to use government buildings and 74 other facilities that are owned or leased by government entities to conduct meetings with unit 75 members regarding bargaining negotiations, the administration of collective bargaining

76 agreements, the investigation of grievances, other workplace-related complaints and issues and 77 internal union matters involving the governance or business of the union; provided, that the use 78 does not interfere with governmental operations. Meetings conducted in government buildings 79 pursuant to this section shall not be for a purpose prohibited by section 13 and section 14 of 80 chapter 55. An exclusive representative conducting a meeting in a government building or other 81 government facility pursuant to this section may be charged for maintenance, security and other 82 costs related to the use of the government building or facility that would not otherwise be 83 incurred by the government entity.

84 (f) Nothing in in this section shall be construed to diminish the obligations of an 85 employer to comply with a collective bargaining agreement that provides greater access and 86 orientation rights than the rights established by this law.

87 (g) A public employer's failure to comply with subsections (a) to (e), inclusive, shall 88 constitute a violation of section 10(a)(5).

89 (h) For the purposes of this section, "exclusive representative" means an employee 90 organization which has been designated as the exclusive representative of employees in a 91 collective bargaining unit as defined in section 3 of chapter 150E.

92 SECTION 4. Section 26 of chapter 161A of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby 93 amended by adding the following 3 paragraphs: -

94 A labor organization representing employees may act for and negotiate agreements 95 covering all employees in the unit and shall be responsible for representing the interests of all 96 such employees without discrimination and without regard to employee organization 97 membership. Provided, however, that notwithstanding this or any other general or special law to

98 the contrary, the exclusive representative may require a non-member to pay for the reasonable 99 costs of advancing a grievance on the non-member's behalf to arbitration, including arbitrator
100 fees and the fees of the attorney representing the employee organization. Employee 101 organizations may require non-members to pay anticipated costs and fees prior to a grievance or 102 arbitration hearing. Failure to pay costs and fees shall relieve the exclusive representative of 103 further responsibility to the non-member regarding the grievance or arbitration matter.

104 Notwithstanding this section or any other general or special law to the contrary, an 105 exclusive representative's duty of fair representation to a public employee who is in the 106 bargaining unit shall be limited to the negotiation and enforcement of the terms of agreements 107 with the public employer. The laws of the commonwealth shall not be construed to prohibit an 108 employee organization from providing only to its members legal, economic or job-related 109 services or benefits outside of the collective bargaining agreement.

110 An employee may present a grievance to that employee's employer and have the 111 grievance heard without intervention by the exclusive representative of the employee 112 organization representing the employee; provided, that the exclusive representative is afforded 113 the opportunity to be present at conferences and that any adjustment made shall not be 114 inconsistent with the terms of an agreement then in effect between the employer and the 115 exclusive representative.

116 SECTION 5. Chapter 180 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out 117 sections 17A, 17C, 17E and 17G and inserting in place thereof the following section: -

118 Section 17A. Deductions on payroll schedules may be made from the salary of an 119 employee of an amount that the employee may specify in writing to that employee's public

120 employer or its representative under chapter 150E or to an employer made subject to chapter 121 150A by chapter 760 of the acts of 1982, for the payment of union dues or fees to a labor 122 organization or employee organization. The authorization for payroll deduction may be 123 irrevocable pursuant to the terms of that authorization for a period of not longer than 1 year after 124 the anniversary of the authorization and shall be revocable solely pursuant to the terms of 125 revocation specified in the employee authorization. An authorization consistent with the terms of 126 this section shall be accepted by the employer or public employer. The treasurer of the labor 127 organization or employee organization or relief association shall notify the office of the 128 employer or public employer responsible for implementing payroll deductions of an 129 authorization revocation not later than 15 days after it is received.

130 If an authorization for payroll deduction does not specify the terms for revocation, then 131 the authorization may be withdrawn by the employee by giving not less than 60 days' notice in 132 writing of that withdrawal to that employee's employer or public employer responsible for 133 implementing payroll deductions and by filing a copy of the notice with the treasurer of the labor 134 organization or employee organization.

135 The state treasurer or the treasurer of the employer or public employer that employs the 136 employee shall deduct from the salary of that employee the amount of union dues or fees 137 certified to that treasurer on the payroll, and transmit the sum so deducted to the treasurer of the 138 labor organization or employee organization; provided, that the state treasurer or the treasurer of 139 the employer or public employer, as applicable, is satisfied that the treasurer of the employee 140 organization or labor organization has given the employee organization or labor organization a 141 bond, in a form approved by the commissioner of revenue, for the faithful performance of that 142 treasurer's duties, in a sum and with such surety or sureties as are satisfactory to the state

143 treasurer or treasurer of the employer or public employer. Whenever a labor organization or 144 employee organization is certified or obtains consent recognition under chapter 150A or chapter 145 one 150E, such deductions shall be made for dues or fees only to the certified or recognized 146 labor organization or employee organization.

147 This section shall be effective in a county, city or town which has accepted it in the 148 manner provided by section 2 of chapter 740 of the acts of 1950 or which accepts this section in 149 the following manner: (i) in a county, by vote of the county commissioners; (ii) in a city having a 150 Plan D or Plan E charter, by majority vote of its city council; (iii) in any other city, by vote of 151 city council, approved by the mayor; and (iv) in a town, by vote of the board of selectmen.
