An Act relative to unlawful suppressors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           Section 10A of Chapter 269 of the Massachusetts General Laws is hereby amended by
2 deleting the section in its entirety and inserting in its place the following:

3           Section 10A.

4           Any person found to be in possession of a firearm suppressor who is:

5           (a) a prohibited person under section 131 of chapter 140;

6           (b) in the commission of a violent crime or felony;

7           (c) in the commission of a crime of violence against a family member;

8           (d) conducting sales or has possession of controlled substances as defined in chapter 94C;

9           shall be punished by imprisonment for not more than ten years in state prison or for not
10 more than two and one-half years in a jail or house of correction.

11           For the purposes of this section the term “firearm suppressor” shall have the same
12 meaning as Federal law 18 USC 921(24): The terms “firearm suppressor” mean any device for 13 silencing, muffling, or diminishing the report of a portable firearm, including any combination of 14 parts, designed or redesigned, and intended for use in assembling or fabricating a firearm silencer
15 or firearm muffler, and any part intended only for use in such assembly or fabrication.
