The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act providing for third party expert evaluation of scope of practice legislation.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section
2 38C the following section:-

3 Section 38D.

4 (a) For the purposes of this section, the term “scope of practice proposal” shall mean any 5 general or special legislation that would change the authority of a health care provider to provide 6 certain health services or otherwise alter the procedures, actions and processes that a healthcare 7 practitioner is permitted to undertake in keeping with the terms of their professional license.

8 (b) Joint committees of the general court and the house and senate committees on ways
9 and means may refer to the clerk of the house and senate any bills containing a scope of practice

10 proposal originally referred to the committee, who shall then require a review and evaluation
11 from the health policy commission with a cost benefit analysis from the center for health 12 information and analysis be provided to the referring committee.

13 (c) Upon receiving the request of a joint standing committee of the general court having 14 jurisdiction or the house or senate committees on ways and means, the health policy commission 15 shall conduct a review and evaluation of the scope of practice proposal in accordance with this 16 section within 180 days of the request. (d) The health policy commission shall review and 17 evaluate the scope of practice proposal and shall accept written testimony submitted by 18 interested parties. The commission may take into consideration any additional data and research 19 it deems relevant when conducting the review and evaluation. Such review and evaluation shall 20 include, but not be limited to: (i) an assessment of any public health and safety benefits or risks 21 that may be associated with the request; (ii) whether the request may enhance equitable access to 22 health care services; (iii) an assessment of relevant scope of practice standards and legal 23 restrictions, both in the commonwealth and in other states, including whether the request 24 appropriately enhances the ability of a profession to practice to the accepted level of the 25 profession's education and training under current standards; (iv) availability of applicable 26 education and training programs; (v) availability of sufficiently trained providers to deliver the 27 subject health care services; (vi) existence or necessity of appropriate safeguards in other statutes
28 or the legislation; (vii) nationally or internationally recognized standards for the subject health 29 care providers; and (viii) analysis conducted by the center for health information and analysis
30 pursuant to subsection (e) of this section. The commission, when carrying out the duties
31 prescribed in this section, shall seek input on the scope of practice proposal from the department
32 of public health, the Betsy Lehman center for patient safety and medical error reduction and such

33 other entities as the commission determines necessary in order to provide its written findings as 34 described in subsection (f) of this section.

35 (d) The center for health information and analysis shall conduct a cost benefit analysis.
36 Said analysis shall include, but not be limited to: (i) whether the request enhances access to 37 affordable health care, including how the proposal will impact costs, prices and cost trends in 38 public and private health care, with particular attention to factors that contribute to cost growth 39 within the commonwealth's health care system; and (ii) an analysis on the potential change to the 40 reimbursement rate due to an expanded scope of practice and certification of a medical 41 professional.

42 (e) At the conclusion of its review and evaluation of the scope of practice proposal, the 43 health policy commission shall provide a written report of its findings to the committee which 44 initiated the request. The health policy commission shall include with its written findings all 45 materials that were presented to the commission and center for review and consideration during 46 the review process. The health policy commission shall make a recommendation that the scope 47 of practice proposal is positive, negative or neutral.
