An Act relative to mobile wireless contracts and agreements.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 93 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2014 Official Edition,
2           is hereby amended by adding the following new section:-

3           Section 115. A contract agreement between a consumer and a mobile wireless carrier
4           shall not be binding upon or enforceable against any consumer who after purchasing a device
5           and the contract or agreement associated with it at any point during the contract loses wireless 6           service or falls under “dead zones” so called, for a period lasting thirty days or more at the 7           consumers’ primary residence or primary place of business or employment. Consumers who fall 8           under this section may cancel a contract or agreement with a mobile wireless carrier without any 9           penalty or further obligation. Consumers shall provide a reasonable proof of primary residency 10          or place of business or employment to the mobile wireless carrier pursuant to this section.
