SENATE No. 21

By Mr. Lewis (by request), a petition (accompanied by proposal for constitutional amendment, Senate, No. 21) of Norma Powell for a legislative amendment to the Constitution relative to the term of judicial officers. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

Proposal for a legislative amendment to the Constitution relative to the term of judicial officers.

A majority of all the members elected to the Senate and House of Representatives, in joint session, hereby declares it to be expedient to alter the Constitution by the adoption of the following Article of Amendment, to the end that it may become a part of the Constitution [if similarly agreed to in a joint session of the next General Court and approved by the people at the state election next following]:

ARTICLE OF AMENDMENT.

1 Article I of Chapter III of Part the Second of the Constitution of Massachusetts is hereby 2 annulled and the following Article is adopted in place thereof:-

3 Article I. The tenure, that all commissioned officers shall by law have in their offices, 4 shall be expressed in their respective commissions. All judicial officers, duly appointed,
5 commissioned and sworn, shall hold their offices during good behavior, for a period of seven 6 years, excepting such concerning whom there is different provision made in this Constitution.
7 After the expiration of the initial seven-year term, the judicial officer shall be eligible for 8 reappointment; provided, however, that such reappointment shall be by majority vote of the 9 council, after due notice and a public hearing. If the judicial officer fails to receive a majority

10 vote of the council, they shall not be eligible for reappointment to any judicial position. Should 11 the judicial officer receive a vote of affirmation by the council, they shall be eligible for 12 reappointment in like manner every seven years thereafter; provided, however, that the governor, 13 with the consent of the council, may remove them upon the address of both houses of the 14 legislature; and provided, further, that the governor, with the consent of council may, after due 15 notice and hearing, retire them because of advanced age or mental or physical disability. Upon 16 attaining seventy years of age said judges shall be retired. Such retirement shall be subject to any 17 provisions made by law as to pensions or allowances payable to such officers upon their 18 voluntary retirement.
