The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act allowing Robert G. Gaynor to continue to serve in the position of Special Police Officer for the town of Halifax.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, Robert G.
2 Gaynor, a member of the police department of the Town of Halifax, may continue to serve in the 3 position of Special Police Officer until September 7, 2026, the date of his retirement or the date
4 on which he is relieved of his duties by the Chief of Police, whichever occurs first: provided,
5 however that he mentally and physically capable of performing the duties of the position. The 6 Board of Selectmen, may at its own expense, require that Robert G. Gaynor be examined by an
7 impartial physician designated by the board, to determine such capability. No further deductions
8 shall be made from the regular compensation of Robert G. Gaynor pursuant to chapter 32 of the 9 General Laws for service subsequent to the date on which he reaches 65 years of age, and upon
10 retirement, Robert G. Gaynor shall receive a superannuation retirement allowance equal to that 11 which would have been entitled had he reached the age of 65.

SECTION 2. This act should take effect upon passage.
