An Act relative to sealing of records pursuant to Section 100C of Chapter 276.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 100C of Chapter 276, as appearing in the 2018 Official Edition, is 2 hereby amended in the third paragraph by adding the following after “political subdivision 3 thereof”:-

4           ; nor shall such sealed records be admissible in evidence or used in any way in any court 5 proceedings or hearings before any boards or commissions, except in imposing sentence in 6 subsequent criminal proceedings to the extent provided in the second sentence of the fifth 7 paragraph of this section, and except that in any proceedings under sections 1 to 39I, inclusive, 8 of chapter 119, sections 2 to 5, inclusive, of chapter 201, chapters 208, 209, 209A, 209B, 209C, 9 or sections 1 to 11A, inclusive, of chapter 210, a party having reasonable cause to believe that 10 information in a sealed criminal record of another party may be relevant to (1) an issue of 11 custody or visitation of a child, (2) abuse, as defined in section 1 of chapter 209A or (3) the 12 safety of any person may upon motion seek to introduce the sealed record into evidence. The judge shall first review such records in camera and determine those records that are potentially relevant and admissible. The judge shall then conduct a closed hearing on the admissibility of those records determined to be potentially admissible; provided, however, that such records shall not be discussed in open court and, if admitted, shall be impounded and made available only to the parties, their attorneys and court personnel who have a demonstrated need to receive them.

SECTION 2. Chapter 276 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out sections 100Q and 100T, as created by section 195 of chapter 69 of the acts of 2019, and inserting in place thereof the following 2 sections:-

Section 100Q. Unless otherwise provided by law, no person shall make records sealed pursuant to section 100A, section 100B or section 100C available for inspection in any form by any person. No person shall make records expunged pursuant to section 100F, section 100G, section 100H or section 100K available for inspection in any form by any person.

Section 100T. Upon sealing a record pursuant to section 100A, section 100B or section 100C or upon receipt of an order of expungement pursuant to section 100F, section 100G, section 100H or section 100K the commissioner of the department shall notify the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Department of Justice of said sealing or expungement and shall request said Federal Bureau of Investigation and the United States Department of Justice seal or expunge the record.
