

SENATE No. 2861

Senate, July 29, 2020 -- Text of the Senate amendment (Senator Creem) to the Senate Bill enabling partnerships for growth (Senate, No. 2842).

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court
(2019-2020)

1 by adding the following:-

2 SECTION 1. Chapter 209B of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out
3 sections 1 to 14, inclusive, as appearing in the 2016 Official Edition, and inserting in place
4 thereof the following 4 articles:-

5 ARTICLE 1. GENERAL PROVISIONS

6 Section 1-101. SHORT TITLE

7 This act may be cited as the Massachusetts Uniform Child-Custody Jurisdiction and 8 Enforcement Act.

9 Section 1-102. DEFINITIONS

10 As used in this chapter, the following words shall have the following meanings unless the 11 context clearly requires otherwise:

12 “Abandoned”, left without provision for reasonable and necessary care or supervision.

13 “Abuse”, (i) attempting to cause or causing physical harm; (ii) placing another in fear of 14 imminent serious physical harm; (iii) causing another to engage involuntarily in sexual relations
15 by force, threat or duress or engaging or threatening to engage in sexual activity with a 16 dependent child; (iv) engaging in mental abuse, which includes threats, intimidation or acts 17 designed to induce terror; (v) depriving another of medical care, housing, food or other 18 necessities of life; or (vi) restraining the liberty of another.

19 “Child”, an individual who has not attained 18 years of age.

20 “Child-custody determination”, a judgment, decree or other order of a court providing for 21 the legal custody, physical custody, parenting time or visitation with respect to a child. The term
22 shall include a permanent, temporary, initial and modification order. The term shall not include 23 an order relating to child support or other monetary obligations of an individual.

24 “Child-custody proceeding”, a proceeding in which legal custody, physical custody,
25 parenting time or visitation with respect to a child is an issue. The term shall include a 26 proceeding for divorce, separation, neglect, abuse, dependency, guardianship, paternity, 27 termination of parental rights and protection from domestic violence, in which the issue may 28 appear. The term shall not include a proceeding involving juvenile delinquency, contractual 29 emancipation or enforcement under article 3.

30 “Commencement”, the filing of the first pleading in a proceeding.

31 “Court”, an entity authorized under the law of a state to establish, enforce or modify a 32 child-custody determination.

33 “Dependent household member”,

34 (1) the spouse of the parent or person acting as a parent;

35 (2) an unmarried child of the parent or person acting as a parent who:

36 (A) is under 18 years of age; or

37 (B) is incapable of self-support because of mental or physical incapacity and is dependent 38 on the parent or person acting as a parent for more than ½ of the child's support;

39 (3) a parent, if the parent is in fact dependent on the parent or person acting as a parent 40 for more than ½ of the parent's support; or

41 (4) an unmarried person of any age who:

42 (A) is placed in the legal custody of the parent or person acting as a parent as a result of 43 an order of a court of competent jurisdiction in a state for a period of not less than 12 consecutive 44 months;

45 (B) is dependent on the parent or person acting as a parent for over ½ of the unmarried 46 person's support; or

47 (C) has resided with parent or person acting as a parent for not less than 12 consecutive 48 months.

49 “Domestic violence”, abuse committed by a parent or person acting as a parent against 50 the other parent or person acting as a parent or against a child who is the subject of a proceeding, 51 or against a dependent household member of the other parent or person acting as a parent, which 52 shall include a parent, step-parent, child, step-child, sibling, grandparent or grandchild or persons 53 in a guardianship relationship.

54 “Home state”, the state in which a child lived with a parent or a person acting as a parent
55 for not less than 6 consecutive months immediately before the commencement of a child-custody
56 proceeding. For a child less than 6 months of age, “home state” shall mean the state in which the 57 child lived from birth with any of the persons mentioned. A period of temporary absence of any 58 of the mentioned persons is part of the period.

59 “Initial determination”, the first child-custody determination concerning a particular 60 child.

61 “Issuing court”, the court that makes a child-custody determination for which 62 enforcement is sought under this act.

63 “Issuing state”, the state in which a child-custody determination is made.

64 “Modification”, a child-custody determination that changes, replaces, supersedes or is 65 otherwise made after a previous determination concerning the same child, whether or not it is 66 made by the court that made the previous determination.

67 “Person”, an individual, corporation, business trust, estate, trust, partnership, limited 68 liability company, association, joint venture, government, governmental subdivision, agency, or 69 instrumentality, public corporation or any other legal or commercial entity.

70 “Person acting as a parent”, a person, other than a parent, who:

71 (A) has physical custody of the child or has had physical custody for a period of 6 72 consecutive months, including any temporary absence, within 1 year immediately before the 73 commencement of a child-custody proceeding; and

74 (B) has been awarded legal custody by a court or claims a right to legal custody under the 75 law of the commonwealth.

76 “Physical custody”, the physical care and supervision of a child.

77 “State”, a state of the United States, the District of Columbia, Puerto Rico, the United 78 States Virgin Islands or any territory or insular possession subject to the jurisdiction of the 79 United States.

80 “Tribe”, an Indian tribe or band or Alaskan Native village that is recognized by federal 81 law or formally acknowledged by a state.

82 “Warrant”, an order issued by a court authorizing law enforcement officers to take 83 physical custody of a child.

84 Section 1-103. PROCEEDINGS GOVERNED BY OTHER LAW

85 This act does not govern an adoption proceeding or a proceeding pertaining to the 86 authorization of emergency medical care for a child.

87 Section 1-104. APPLICATION TO INDIAN TRIBES

88 (a) A child-custody proceeding that pertains to an Indian child as defined in the Indian 89 Child Welfare Act, 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq. is not subject to this act to the extent it is governed by 90 the Indian Child Welfare Act.

91 (b) A court of the commonwealth shall treat a tribe as if it were a state of the United 92 States for the purposes of applying articles 1 and 2.

93 (c) A child-custody determination made by a tribe under factual circumstances in 94 substantial conformity with the jurisdictional standards of this act shall be recognized and 95 enforced under article 3.

96 Section 1-105. INTERNATIONAL APPLICATION OF ACT

97 (a) A court of the commonwealth shall treat a foreign country as if it were a state of the 98 United States for the purposes of applying articles 1 and 2.

99 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a child-custody determination made in 100 a foreign country under factual circumstances in substantial conformity with the jurisdictional 101 standards of this act shall be recognized and enforced under article 3.

102 (c) The court of the commonwealth need not apply this act if the child custody law of a 103 foreign country violates fundamental principles of human rights.

104 Section 1-106. EFFECT OF CHILD-CUSTODY DETERMINATION

105 A child-custody determination made by a court of the commonwealth that had 106 jurisdiction under this act binds all persons who have been served in accordance with the laws of 107 the commonwealth or notified in accordance with section 1-108 or who have submitted to the 108 jurisdiction of the court, and who have been given an opportunity to be heard. As to those 109 persons, the determination is conclusive as to all decided issues of law and fact except to the 110 extent the determination is modified.

111 Section 1-107. PRIORITY

112 If a question of existence or exercise of jurisdiction under this act is raised in a child-
113 custody proceeding, the question, upon request of a party, shall be given priority on the calendar

114 and handled expeditiously. A hearing on the matter, allowing for telephonic appearance by the 115 out-of-state party, if requested under subsection (d) of section 1-111, shall occur not more than 116 60 days after the date of request. This court shall issue a written decision on the question of 117 jurisdiction not more than 15 calendar days after the date of the hearing.

118 Section 1-108. NOTICE TO PERSONS OUTSIDE STATE

119 (a) Notice required for the exercise of jurisdiction when a person is outside the 120 commonwealth may be given in a manner prescribed by the law of the commonwealth for the 121 service of process or by the law of the state in which the service is made. Notice shall be given in 122 a manner reasonably calculated to give actual notice but may be by publication if other means 123 are not effective.

124 (b) Proof of service may be made in the manner prescribed by the law of the 125 commonwealth or by the law of the state in which the service is made.

126 (c) Notice is not required for the exercise of jurisdiction with respect to a person who 127 submits to the jurisdiction of the court.

128 Section 1-109. APPEARANCE AND LIMITED IMMUNITY

129 (a) A party to a child-custody proceeding, including a modification proceeding, or a 130 petitioner or respondent in a proceeding to enforce or register a child-custody determination, is 131 not subject to personal jurisdiction in the commonwealth: (i) solely by reason of being physically 132 present to participate in a proceeding under this act; or (ii) solely by reason of having 133 participated, or of having been physically present for the purpose of participating, in another 134 proceeding.

135 (b) A person who is subject to personal jurisdiction in the commonwealth on a basis other 136 than physical presence is not immune from service of process in the commonwealth. A party
137 present in the commonwealth who is subject to the jurisdiction of another state is not immune 138 from service of process allowable under the laws of that state.

139 (c) The immunity granted by subsection (a) does not extend to civil litigation based on 140 acts unrelated to the participation in a proceeding under this act committed by an individual 141 while present in the commonwealth.

142 Section 1-110. COMMUNICATION BETWEEN COURTS

143 (a) A court of the commonwealth may communicate with a court in another state 144 concerning a proceeding arising under this act.

145 (b) The court may allow the parties to participate in the communication. If the parties are 146 not able to participate in the communication, they shall be given the opportunity to present facts 147 and legal arguments before a decision on jurisdiction is made.

148 (c) Communication between courts on schedules, calendars, court records and similar 149 matters may occur without informing the parties. A record need not be made of that 150 communication.

151 (d) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c), a record shall be made of the 152 communication under this section. The parties shall be informed promptly of the communication 153 and granted access to the record.

154 (e) For the purposes of this section, “record” shall mean information that is inscribed on a 155 tangible medium or that is stored in an electronic or other medium and is retrievable in 156 perceivable form.

157 Section 1-111. TAKING TESTIMONY IN ANOTHER STATE

158 (a) In addition to other procedures available to a party, a party to a child-custody 159 proceeding may offer testimony of witnesses who are located in another state, including 160 testimony of the parties and the child, by deposition or other means allowable in the 161 commonwealth for testimony taken in another state. The court on its own motion may order that 162 the testimony of a person be taken in another state and may prescribe the manner in which and 163 the terms upon which the testimony is taken.

164 (b) A court of the commonwealth may permit an individual residing in another state to be 165 deposed or to testify by telephone, audiovisual means or other electronic means before a
166 designated court or at another location in that state. A court of the commonwealth shall cooperate 167 with courts of other states in designating an appropriate location for the deposition or testimony.

168 (c) Documentary evidence transmitted from another state to a court of the commonwealth 169 by technological means that do not produce an original writing shall not be excluded from 170 evidence on an objection based on the means of transmission.

171 (d) If, at any time, an out-of-state party contests the jurisdiction of the court under section 172 2-202 or 2-208 or raises a claim that the court is an inconvenient forum under section 2-207, the 173 party may request to participate electronically or by telephone in a hearing on the issue of 174 jurisdiction or the inconvenience of the forum. In making the request for the electronic or 175 telephonic participation, the party shall provide a reason for the request that shall include, but not

176 be limited to, whether domestic violence or financial hardship prohibits that party from attending 177 a hearing in the commonwealth.

178 If an out-of-state party contests the jurisdiction of the court under section 2-202 or 2-208
179 or raises a claim that the court is an inconvenient forum under section 2-207, the court shall first 180 hold a preliminary hearing at which the requesting party shall be permitted to appear 181 electronically or by telephone to present evidence about the reasons for the inability to attend a 182 hearing in person and whether there are remedial orders that the court may issue that would 183 enable the person to attend a hearing in person.

184 If after a preliminary hearing, the court denies the request made under subsection (d), the 185 court may enter orders necessary to ensure the safety of the child and of the party who made the 186 request. The court may also require another party to pay reasonable and necessary travel and 187 other expenses of the party who made the request.

188 Section 1-112. COOPERATION BETWEEN COURTS; PRESERVATION OF 189 RECORDS

190 (a) A court of the commonwealth may request the appropriate court of another state to:

191 (1) hold an evidentiary hearing;

192 (2) order a person to produce or give evidence pursuant to procedures of that state;

193 (3) order that an evaluation be made with respect to the custody of a child involved in a 194 pending proceeding;

195 (4) forward to the court of the commonwealth a certified copy of the transcript of the 196 record of the hearing, the evidence otherwise presented and any evaluation prepared in 197 compliance with the request; and

198 (5) order a party to a child-custody proceeding or a person having physical custody of the 199 child to appear in the proceeding with or without the child.

200 (b) Upon request of a court of another state, a court of the commonwealth may hold a 201 hearing or enter an order described in subsection (a).

202 (c) Travel and other necessary and reasonable expenses incurred under subsections (a)
203 and (b) may be assessed against the parties according to the law of the commonwealth.

204 (d) A court of the commonwealth shall preserve the pleadings, orders, decrees, records of 205 hearings, evaluations and other pertinent records with respect to a child-custody proceeding until 206 the child attains 18 years of age. Upon appropriate request by a court or law enforcement official 207 of another state, the court shall forward a certified copy of those records.

208 ARTICLE 2. JURISDICTION

209 Section 2-201. INITIAL CHILD-CUSTODY JURISDICTION

210 (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-204, a court of the commonwealth has 211 jurisdiction to make an initial child-custody determination only if:

212 (1) the commonwealth is the home state of the child on the date of the commencement of 213 the proceeding or was the home state of the child within 6 months before the commencement of 214 the proceeding and the child is absent from the commonwealth but a parent or person acting as a 215 parent continues to live in the commonwealth;

216 (2) a court of another state does not have jurisdiction under paragraph (1) or a court of the 217 home state of the child has declined to exercise jurisdiction on the ground that the 218 commonwealth is the more appropriate forum under section 2-207 or 2-208 and:

219 (A) the child and the child's parents, or the child and at least 1 parent or a person acting 220 as a parent, have a significant connection with the commonwealth other than mere physical 221 presence; and

222 (B) substantial evidence is available in the commonwealth concerning the child's care, 223 protection, training and personal relationships;

224 (3) all courts having jurisdiction under paragraph (1) or (2) have declined to exercise
225 jurisdiction on the ground that a court of the commonwealth is the more appropriate forum to 226 determine the custody of the child under section 2-207 or 2-208; or

227 (4) no court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in 228 paragraph (1), (2) or (3).

229 (b) Subsection (a) is the exclusive jurisdictional basis for making a child-custody
230 determination by a court of the commonwealth.

231 (c) Physical presence of, or personal jurisdiction over, a party or a child is not necessary
232 or sufficient to make a child-custody determination.

233 Section 2-202. EXCLUSIVE, CONTINUING JURISDICTION

234 (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-204, a court of the commonwealth that has 235 made a child-custody determination consistent with section 2-201 or 2-203 has exclusive, 236 continuing jurisdiction over the determination until:

237 (1) a court of the commonwealth determines that neither the child, nor the child and 1
238 parent, nor the child and a person acting as a parent have a significant connection with the 239 commonwealth and that substantial evidence is no longer available in the commonwealth
240 concerning the child's care, protection, training and personal relationships;

241 (2) a court of the commonwealth or a court of another state determines that neither the 242 child nor a parent or any person acting as a parent presently resides in the commonwealth;

243 (3) the court finds that a parent or person acting as a parent who resides in the 244 commonwealth has engaged in domestic violence against the other parent or person acting as a
245 parent or against the child who is the subject of the proceeding or against a dependent household
246 member of the parent or person acting as a parent; provided, however, that if the court so finds, it 247 shall be presumed that the commonwealth does not have continuing, exclusive jurisdiction over 248 the determination unless the victim or victim's custodial parent or guardian consents to 249 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction; or

250 (4) the parties mutually agree in writing that the commonwealth shall no longer have 251 continuing, exclusive jurisdiction and the agreement has been approved by the court.

252 (b) A court in the commonwealth that has exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this 253 section may decline to exercise its jurisdiction if the court determines that it is an inconvenient 254 forum under section 2-207.

255 (c) A court of the commonwealth that has made a child-custody determination and does 256 not have exclusive, continuing jurisdiction under this section may modify that determination 257 only if it has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under section 2-201.

258 Section 2-203. JURISDICTION TO MODIFY DETERMINATION

259 Except as otherwise provided in section 2-204, a court of the commonwealth shall not 260 modify a child custody determination made by a court of another state unless a court of the 261 commonwealth has jurisdiction to make an initial determination under clause (1) or (2) of 262 subsection (a) of section 2-201 and:

263 (1) the court of the other state determines it no longer has exclusive, continuing 264 jurisdiction under section 2-202 or that a court of the commonwealth would be a more 265 convenient forum under section 2-207;

266 (2) a court of the commonwealth or a court of the other state determines that the child, the 267 child's parents and any person acting as a parent do not presently reside in the other state; or

268 (3) the parents or all persons acting as parents have mutually agreed in writing that the 269 commonwealth shall have the authority to modify a determination and the agreement has been 270 approved by the court.

271 Section 2-204. TEMPORARY EMERGENCY JURISDICTION

272 (a) A court of the commonwealth has temporary emergency jurisdiction if the child is 273 present in the commonwealth and the child has been abandoned or it is necessary in an 274 emergency to protect the child because the other parent or person acting as a parent or a child 275 who is the subject of the proceeding or a dependent household member of the other parent or 276 person acting as a parent is subjected to or threatened with mistreatment or abuse.

277 (b) If there is no previous child-custody determination that is entitled to be enforced
278 under this act and a child-custody proceeding has not been commenced in a court of a state

279 having jurisdiction under sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive, a child-custody determination made 280 under this section remains in effect until an order is obtained from a court of a state having 281 jurisdiction under said sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive. If a child-custody proceeding has not 282 been or is not commenced in a court of a state having jurisdiction under sections 2-201 to 2-203,
283 inclusive, a child-custody determination made under this section becomes a final determination, 284 if it so provides and the commonwealth becomes the home state of the child.

285 (c) If there is a previous child-custody determination that is entitled to be enforced under 286 this act or a child-custody proceeding has been commenced in a court of a state having 287 jurisdiction under sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive, any order issued by a court of the 288 commonwealth under this section shall specify in the order a period that the court considers 289 adequate to allow the person seeking an order to obtain an order from the state having 290 jurisdiction under said sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive. The order issued in the commonwealth 291 remains in effect until an order is obtained from the other state within the period specified or the 292 period expires.

293 (d) A court of the commonwealth that has been asked to make a child-custody 294 determination under this section, upon being informed that a child-custody proceeding has been 295 commenced in, or a child-custody determination has been made by, a court of a state having 296 jurisdiction under sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive, shall immediately communicate with the 297 other court. A court of the commonwealth that is exercising jurisdiction pursuant to sections 2-298 201 to 2-203, inclusive, upon being informed that a child-custody proceeding has been 299 commenced in, or a child-custody determination has been made by, a court of another state under 300 a statute similar to this section shall immediately communicate with the court of that state to

301 resolve the emergency, protect the safety of the parties and the child and determine a period for 302 the duration of the temporary order.

303 Section 2-205. NOTICE; OPPORTUNITY TO BE HEARD; JOINDER

304 (a) Before a child-custody determination is made under this act, notice and an opportunity
305 to be heard in accordance with the standards of section 1-108 shall be given to all persons 306 entitled to notice under the law of the commonwealth as in child-custody proceedings between 307 residents of the commonwealth, any parent whose parental rights have not been previously 308 terminated and any person having physical custody of the child.

309 (b) This act shall not govern the enforceability of a child-custody determination made 310 without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

311 (c) The obligation to join a party and the right to intervene as a party in a child-custody
312 proceeding under this act are governed by the law of the commonwealth as in child-custody
313 proceedings between residents of the commonwealth.

314 Section 2-206. SIMULTANEOUS PROCEEDINGS

315 (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-204, a court of the commonwealth shall not 316 exercise its jurisdiction under article 2 if, at the time of the commencement of the proceeding, a 317 proceeding concerning the custody of the child has been commenced in a court of another state 318 having jurisdiction substantially in conformity with this act, unless the proceeding has been 319 terminated or is stayed by the court of the other state because a court of the commonwealth is a 320 more convenient forum under section 2-207.

321 (b) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-204, a court of the commonwealth, before
322 hearing a child-custody proceeding, shall examine the court documents and other information
323 supplied by the parties pursuant to section 2-209. If the court determines that a child-custody 324 proceeding has been commenced in a court in another state having jurisdiction substantially in 325 accordance with this act, the court of the commonwealth shall stay its proceeding and 326 communicate with the court of the other state. If the court of the state having jurisdiction 327 substantially in accordance with this act does not determine that the court of the commonwealth
328 is a more appropriate forum, the court of the commonwealth shall dismiss the proceeding.

329 (c) In a proceeding to modify a child-custody determination, a court of the 330 commonwealth shall determine whether a proceeding to enforce the determination has been 331 commenced in another state. If a proceeding to enforce a child-custody determination has been 332 commenced in another state, the court may:

333 (1) stay the proceeding for modification pending the entry of an order of a court of the 334 other state enforcing, staying, denying or dismissing the proceeding for enforcement;

335 (2) enjoin the parties from continuing with the proceeding for enforcement; or 336 (3) proceed with the modification under conditions it considers appropriate.

337 SECTION 2-207. INCONVENIENT FORUM

338 (a) A court of the commonwealth that has jurisdiction under this act to make a child-
339 custody determination may decline to exercise its jurisdiction at any time if it determines that it
340 is an inconvenient forum under the circumstances and that a court of another state is a more

341 appropriate forum. The issue of inconvenient forum may be raised upon motion of a party, the 342 court's own motion or request of another court.

343 (b) Before determining whether it is an inconvenient forum, a court of the commonwealth
344 shall consider whether it is appropriate for a court of another state to exercise jurisdiction. For 345 this purpose, the court shall allow the parties to submit information and shall consider all 346 relevant factors including:

347 (1) whether domestic violence has occurred and which state could best protect the parties
348 and the child;

349 (2) the length of time the child has resided outside the commonwealth;

350 (3) the distance between the court in the commonwealth and the court in the state that 351 would assume jurisdiction;

352 (4) the relative financial circumstances of the parties;

353 (5) an agreement of the parties as to which state should assume jurisdiction;

354 (6) the nature and location of the evidence required to resolve the pending litigation,
355 including testimony of the child;

356 (7) the ability of the court of each state to decide the issue expeditiously and the 357 procedures necessary to present the evidence; and

358 (8) the familiarity of the court of each state with the facts and issues of the pending 359 litigation.

360 (c) If a court of the commonwealth determines that it is an inconvenient forum and that a
361 court of another state is a more appropriate forum, it shall stay the proceedings upon condition
362 that a child-custody proceeding be promptly commenced in another designated state and may 363 impose any other condition the court considers just and proper.

364 (d) A court of the commonwealth may decline to exercise its jurisdiction under this act if 365 a child-custody determination is incidental to an action for divorce or another proceeding while 366 still retaining jurisdiction over the divorce or other proceeding.

367 Section 2-208. JURISDICTION DECLINED BY REASON OF CONDUCT

368 (a) Except as otherwise provided in section 2-204 or by another law of the 369 commonwealth, if a court of the commonwealth has jurisdiction under this act because a person 370 seeking to invoke its jurisdiction has engaged in unjustifiable conduct, the court shall decline to 371 exercise its jurisdiction unless:

372 (1) the parents and all persons acting as parents have acquiesced in the exercise of 373 jurisdiction;

374 (2) a court of the state otherwise having jurisdiction under sections 2-201 to 2-203,
375 inclusive, determines that the commonwealth is a more appropriate forum under section 2-207; 376 or

377 (3) no court of any other state would have jurisdiction under the criteria specified in 378 sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive.

379 (b) If a court of the commonwealth declines to exercise its jurisdiction pursuant to 380 subsection (a), it may fashion an appropriate remedy to ensure the safety of the child and prevent

381 a repetition of the unjustifiable conduct, including staying the proceeding until a child-custody
382 proceeding is commenced in a court having jurisdiction under sections 2-201 to 2-203, inclusive.

383 (c) If a court dismisses a complaint or a petition or stays a proceeding because it declines
384 to exercise its jurisdiction under subsection (a), it shall assess against the party seeking to invoke 385 its jurisdiction necessary and reasonable expenses including costs, communication expenses, 386 attorney's fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses and child care during 387 the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees are sought establishes that the 388 assessment would be clearly inappropriate. The court shall not assess fees, costs or expenses 389 against the commonwealth unless authorized by law other than this act.

390 Section 2-209. INFORMATION TO BE SUBMITTED TO COURT

391 (a) Subject to local law providing for the confidentiality of procedures, addresses and 392 other identifying information, in a child-custody proceeding, each party, in its first pleading or in 393 an attached affidavit, shall give information, if reasonably ascertainable, under oath as to the 394 child's present address or whereabouts, the places where the child has lived during the last 5 395 years and the names and present addresses of the persons with whom the child has lived during 396 that period. The pleading or affidavit shall state whether the party:

397 (1) has participated, as a party or witness or in any other capacity, in any other 398 proceeding concerning the custody of, the parenting time of, or visitation with the child and, if 399 so, identify the court, the case number and the date of the child-custody determination, if any;

400 (2) knows of any proceeding that could affect the current proceeding, including 401 proceedings for enforcement and proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders,

402 termination of parental rights and adoptions and, if so, identify the court, the case number and 403 the nature of the proceeding; and

404 (3) knows the names and addresses of any person not a party to the proceeding who has 405 physical custody of the child or claims rights of legal custody or physical custody of, parenting
406 time of or visitation with, the child and, if so, the names and addresses of those persons.

407 (b) If the information required by subsection (a) is not furnished, the court, upon motion 408 of a party or its own motion, may stay the proceeding until the information is furnished.

409 (c) If the declaration as to any of the items described in clauses (1) to (3), inclusive, of 410 subsection (a) is in the affirmative, the declarant shall give additional information under oath as 411 required by the court. The court may examine the parties under oath as to details of the 412 information furnished and other matters pertinent to the court's jurisdiction and the disposition of 413 the case.

414 (d) Each party has a continuing duty to inform the court of any proceeding in the 415 commonwealth or any other state that could affect the current proceeding.

416 (e) If a party alleges in an affidavit or a pleading under oath that the health, safety or 417 liberty of a party or child would be jeopardized by disclosure of identifying information, the 418 information shall be sealed and shall not be disclosed to the other party or the public unless the 419 court orders the disclosure to be made after a hearing in which the court takes into consideration 420 the health, safety or liberty of the party or child and determines that the disclosure is in the 421 interest of justice.

422 Section 2-210. APPEARANCE OF PARTIES AND CHILD

423 (a) In a child-custody proceeding in the commonwealth, the court may order a party to 424 the proceeding who is in the commonwealth to appear before the court in person with or without 425 the child. The court may order any person who is in the commonwealth and who has physical 426 custody or control of the child to appear in person with the child.

427 (b) Subject to subsection (d) of section 1-111, if a party to a child-custody proceeding
428 whose presence is desired by the court is outside the commonwealth, the court may order that a
429 notice given pursuant to section 1-108 include a statement directing the party to appear in person
430 with or without the child and informing the party that failure to appear may result in a decision 431 adverse to the party.

432 (c) The court may enter any orders necessary to ensure the safety of the child and of any 433 person ordered to appear under this section.

434 (d) If a party to a child-custody proceeding who is outside the commonwealth is directed 435 to appear under subsection (b) or desires to appear personally before the court with or without 436 the child, the court may require another party to pay reasonable and necessary travel and other 437 expenses of the party so appearing and of the child.

438 ARTICLE 3. ENFORCEMENT

439 Section 3-301. DEFINITIONS

440 As used in article 3, the following words shall have the following meanings unless the 441 context clearly requires otherwise:

442 “Plaintiff” or “Petitioner”, a person who seeks enforcement of an order for return of a 443 child under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction or 444 enforcement of a child-custody determination.

445 “Defendant” or “Respondent”, a person against whom a proceeding has been commenced
446 for enforcement of an order for return of a child under the Hague Convention on the Civil 447 Aspects of International Child Abduction or enforcement of a child-custody determination.

448 Section 3-302. ENFORCEMENT UNDER HAGUE CONVENTION.

449 Under article 3, a court of the commonwealth may enforce an order for the return of the 450 child made under the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction 451 as if it were a child-custody determination.

452 Section 3-303. DUTY TO ENFORCE

453 (a) A court of the commonwealth shall recognize and enforce a child-custody
454 determination of a court of another state if the latter court exercised jurisdiction in substantial 455 conformity with this act or the determination was made under factual circumstances meeting the 456 jurisdictional standards of this act and the determination has not been modified in accordance 457 with this act.

458 (b) A court of the commonwealth may utilize any remedy available under other law of 459 the commonwealth to enforce a child-custody determination made by a court of another state.
460 The remedies provided in article 3 are cumulative and shall not affect the availability of other 461 remedies to enforce a child-custody determination.

462 Section 3-304. TEMPORARY VISITATION

463 (a) A court of the commonwealth that does not have jurisdiction to modify a child-464 custody determination may issue a temporary order enforcing:

465 (1) a parenting plan or visitation schedule made by a court of another state; or

466 (2) the parenting plan or visitation provisions of a child-custody determination of another 467 state that does not provide for a specific visitation schedule.

468 (b) If a court of the commonwealth makes an order under clause (2) of subsection (a), it 469 shall specify in the order a period that it considers adequate to allow the petitioner to obtain an 470 order from a court having jurisdiction under the criteria specified in article 2. The order remains 471 in effect until an order is obtained from the other state or the period expires.

472 Section 3-305. REGISTRATION OF CHILD-CUSTODY DETERMINATION

473 (a) A child-custody determination issued by a court of another state may be registered in 474 the commonwealth, with or without a simultaneous request for enforcement, by sending to the 475 appropriate court in the commonwealth:

476 (1) a letter or other document requesting registration;

477 (2) 2 copies, including 1 certified copy, of the determination sought to be registered and a
478 statement under penalty of perjury that to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person 479 seeking registration the order has not been modified; and

480 (3) except as otherwise provided in section 2-209, the name and address of the person
481 seeking registration and any parent or person acting as a parent who has been awarded custody, 482 parenting time or visitation in the child-custody determination sought to be registered.

483 (b) (1) On receipt of the documents required by subsection (a), the registering court shall 484 cause the determination to be filed as a foreign judgment, together with 1 copy of any 485 accompanying documents and information, regardless of their form.

486 (2) The person seeking registration shall serve notice upon the persons named pursuant to 487 clause (3) of subsection (a) and provide them with an opportunity to contest the registration in 488 accordance with this section.

489 (c) The notice required by clause (2) of subsection (b) shall state that:

490 (1) a registered determination is enforceable as of the date of the registration in the same
491 manner as a determination issued by a court of the commonwealth;

492 (2) a hearing to contest the validity of the registered determination shall be requested 493 within 20 days after service of notice; and

494 (3) failure to contest the registration shall result in confirmation of the child-custody 495 determination and preclude further contest of that determination with respect to any matter that 496 could have been asserted.

497 (d) A person seeking to contest the validity of a registered order shall request a hearing
498 within 20 days after service of the notice. At that hearing, the court shall confirm the registered 499 order unless the person contesting registration establishes that:

500 (1) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under article 2;

501 (2) the child-custody determination sought to be registered has been vacated, stayed or 502 modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under article 2; or

503 (3) the person contesting registration was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in 504 accordance with the standards of section 1-108, in the proceedings before the court that issued
505 the order for which registration is sought.

506 (e) If a timely request for a hearing to contest the validity of the registration is not made,
507 the registration is confirmed as a matter of law and the person requesting registration and all 508 persons served shall be notified of the confirmation.

509 (f) Confirmation of a registered order, whether by operation of law or after notice and 510 hearing, precludes further contest of the order with respect to any matter that could have been 511 asserted at the time of registration.

512 Section 3-306. ENFORCEMENT OF REGISTERED DETERMINATION

513 (a) A court of the commonwealth may grant any relief normally available under the law 514 of the commonwealth to enforce a registered child-custody determination made by a court of 515 another state.

516 (b) A court of the commonwealth shall recognize and enforce, but shall not modify,
517 except in accordance with article 2, a registered child-custody determination of a court of another 518 state.

519 Section 3-307. SIMULTANEOUS PROCEEDINGS

520 If a proceeding for enforcement under article 3 is commenced in a court of the 521 commonwealth and the court determines that a proceeding to modify the determination is 522 pending in a court of another state having jurisdiction to modify the determination under article
523 2, the enforcing court shall immediately communicate with the modifying court. The proceeding

524 for enforcement continues unless the enforcing court, after consultation with the modifying 525 court, stays or dismisses the proceeding.

526 Section 3-308. EXPEDITED ENFORCEMENT OF CHILD-CUSTODY
527 DETERMINATION

528 (a) A complaint or petition under this article shall be verified. Certified copies of all 529 orders sought to be enforced and of any order confirming registration shall be attached to the 530 petition. A copy of a certified copy of an order may be attached instead of the original.

531 (b) A complaint or petition for enforcement of a child-custody determination shall state:

532 (1) whether the court that issued the determination identified the jurisdictional basis it 533 relied upon in exercising jurisdiction and, if so, what the basis was;

534 (2) whether the determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated, stayed 535 or modified by a court whose decision shall be enforced under this act and, if so, identify the 536 court, the case number and the nature of the proceeding;

537 (3) whether any proceeding has been commenced that could affect the current 538 proceeding, including proceedings relating to domestic violence, protective orders, termination 539 of parental rights and adoptions and, if so, identify the court, the case number and the nature of 540 the proceeding;

541 (4) the present physical address of the child and the defendant or respondent, if known;

542 (5) whether relief in addition to the immediate physical custody of the child and 543 attorney's fees is sought, including a request for assistance from law enforcement officials and, if 544 so, the relief sought; and

545 (6) if the child-custody determination has been registered and confirmed under section 3-
546 305, the date and place of registration.

547 (c) Upon the filing of a complaint or petition, the court shall issue an order directing the 548 defendant or respondent to appear with or without the child at a hearing and may enter any 549 orders necessary to ensure the safety of the parties and the child. The hearing shall be held on the 550 next judicial day after service of the order unless that date is impossible. In that event, the court 551 shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day possible. The court may extend the date of the 552 hearing at the request of the plaintiff or petitioner.

553 (d) An order issued under subsection (c) shall state the time and place of the hearing and 554 shall advise the defendant or respondent that at the hearing the court will order that the plaintiff
555 or petitioner may take immediate physical custody of the child and the payment of fees, costs
556 and expenses under section 3-312 and may schedule a hearing to determine whether further relief 557 is appropriate, unless the defendant or respondent appears and establishes that:

558 (1) the child-custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under section 559 3-305 and that:

560 (A) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under article 2;

561 (B) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated,
562 stayed or modified by a court having jurisdiction to do so under article 2; or

563 (C) the defendant or respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in 564 accordance with the standards of section 1-108, in the proceedings before the court that issued
565 the order for which enforcement is sought; or

566 (2) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and
567 confirmed under section 3-304, but has been vacated, stayed or modified by a court of a state
568 having jurisdiction to do so under article 2.

569 Section 3-309. SERVICE OF COMPLAINT OR PETITION AND ORDER

570 Except as otherwise provided in section 3-311, the complaint or petition and order shall 571 be served, by any method authorized by the law of the commonwealth, upon the respondent and 572 any person who has physical custody of the child.

573 Section 3-310. HEARING AND ORDER

574 (a) Unless the court enters a temporary emergency order pursuant to section 2-204, upon 575 a finding that a plaintiff or petitioner is entitled to immediate physical custody of the child, the 576 court shall order that the plaintiff or petitioner may take immediate physical custody of the child 577 unless the defendant or respondent establishes that:

578 (1) the child-custody determination has not been registered and confirmed under section
579 3-305 and that:

580 (A) the issuing court did not have jurisdiction under article 2;

581 (B) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought has been vacated,
582 stayed or modified by a court of a state having jurisdiction to do so under article 2; or

583 (C) the defendant or respondent was entitled to notice, but notice was not given in 584 accordance with the standards of section 1-108, in the proceedings before the court that issued
585 the order for which enforcement is sought; or

586 (2) the child-custody determination for which enforcement is sought was registered and
587 confirmed under section 3-305 but has been vacated, stayed or modified by a court of a state
588 having jurisdiction to do so under article 2 or federal law.

589 (b) The court shall award the fees, costs and expenses authorized under section 3-312 and 590 may grant additional relief, including a request for the assistance of law enforcement officials, 591 and set a further hearing to determine whether additional relief is appropriate.

592 (c) If a party called to testify refuses to answer on the ground that the testimony may be 593 self-incriminating, the court may draw an adverse inference from the refusal.

594 (d) A privilege against disclosure of communications between spouses and a defense of 595 immunity based on the spousal relationship or parent and child relationship shall not be invoked
596 in a proceeding under article 3.

597 Section 3-311. WARRANT TO TAKE PHYSICAL CUSTODY OF CHILD

598 (a) Upon the filing of a complaint or petition seeking enforcement of a child-custody
599 determination, the plaintiff or petitioner may file a verified application for the issuance of a
600 warrant to take physical custody of the child if the child is immediately likely to suffer serious 601 physical harm or be removed from the commonwealth.

602 (b) If the court, upon the testimony of the plaintiff or petitioner or other witness, finds 603 that the child is imminently likely to suffer serious physical harm or be removed from the 604 commonwealth, it may issue a warrant to take physical custody of the child. The complaint or 605 petition shall be heard on the next judicial day after the warrant is executed unless it is 606 impossible on that date. In that event, the court shall hold the hearing on the first judicial day

607 possible. The application for the warrant shall include the statements required by subsection (b)
608 of section 3-308.

609 (c) A warrant to take physical custody of a child shall:

610 (1) recite the facts upon which a conclusion of imminent serious physical harm or 611 removal from the jurisdiction is based;

612 (2) direct law enforcement officers to take physical custody of the child immediately; and 613 (3) provide for the placement of the child pending final relief.

614 (d) The defendant or respondent shall be served with the complaint or petition, warrant 615 and order immediately after the child is taken into physical custody.

616 (e) A warrant to take physical custody of a child is enforceable throughout the 617 commonwealth. If the court finds on the basis of the testimony of the plaintiff or petitioner or 618 other witness that a less intrusive remedy is not effective, it may authorize law enforcement
619 officers to enter private property to take physical custody of the child. If required by the 620 exigency circumstances of the case, the court may authorize law enforcement officers to make a 621 forcible entry at any hour.

622 (f) The court may impose conditions upon placement of a child to ensure the appearance
623 of the child and the child's custodian.

624 Section 3-312. COSTS, FEES, AND EXPENSES

625 (a) The court shall award the prevailing party, including a state, necessary and reasonable 626 expenses incurred by or on behalf of the party, including costs, communication expenses,

627 attorney's fees, investigative fees, expenses for witnesses, travel expenses and child care during 628 the course of the proceedings, unless the party from whom fees or expenses are sought 629 establishes that the award would be clearly inappropriate.

630 (b) The court shall not assess fees, costs or expenses against a state unless authorized by 631 law other than this act.

632 Section 3-313. RECOGNITION AND ENFORCEMENT

633 A court of the commonwealth shall accord full faith and credit to an order issued by 634 another state and consistent with this act that enforces a child-custody determination by a court 635 of another state unless the order has been vacated, stayed or modified by a court having 636 jurisdiction to do so under article 2.

637 Section 3-314. APPEALS

638 An appeal may be taken from a final order in a proceeding under article 3 in accordance 639 with expedited appellate procedures in other civil cases. Unless the court enters a temporary 640 emergency order under section 2-204, the enforcing court shall not stay an order enforcing a 641 child-custody determination pending appeal.

642 Section 3-315. ROLE OF PROSECUTOR OR PUBLIC OFFICIAL

643 (a) In a case arising under this act or involving the Hague Convention on the Civil 644 Aspects of International Child Abduction, the prosecutor or other appropriate public official may 645 take any lawful action, including resort to a proceeding under article 3 or any other available
646 civil proceeding to locate a child, to obtain the return of a child or enforce a child-custody 647 determination if there is:

- 648 (1) an existing child-custody determination;
- 649 (2) a request to do so from a court in a pending child-custody proceeding;
- 650 (3) a reasonable belief that a criminal statute has been violated; or
- 651 (4) a reasonable belief that the child has been wrongfully removed or retained in violation
- 652 of the Hague Convention on the Civil Aspects of International Child Abduction.
- 653 (b) A prosecutor or appropriate public official acting under this section acts on behalf of
- 654 the court and shall not represent any party.

655 Section 3-316. ROLE OF LAW ENFORCEMENT

656 At the request of a prosecutor or other appropriate public official acting under section 3-

657 315, a law enforcement officer may take any lawful action reasonably necessary to locate a child

658 or a party and assist a prosecutor or appropriate public official with responsibilities under said

659 section 3-315.

660 Section 3-317. COSTS AND EXPENSES

661 If the defendant or respondent is not the prevailing party, the court may assess against the

662 defendant or respondent all direct expenses and costs incurred by the prosecutor or other 663 appropriate public official and law enforcement officers under section 3-315 or 3-316.

664 ARTICLE 4. MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

665 Section 4-401. APPLICATION AND CONSTRUCTION

666 In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration shall be given to the need to 667 promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

668 Section 4-402. SEVERABILITY CLAUSE

669 If any provision of this act or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid,
670 the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this act that can be given effect 671 without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the provisions of this act are 672 severable.

673 SECTION 2. A motion or other request for relief made in a child-custody proceeding or 674 to enforce a child custody determination that was commenced before the effective date of this act
675 shall be governed by the law in effect at the time the motion or other request was made.

676 SECTION 3. This act shall take effect on January 1, 2021.
