78 (b) A city or town may adopt this section in the manner provided in section 4 of chapter 4 79 of the General Laws. The acceptance of this local option by a municipality shall take effect no 80 later than 180 days after such acceptance. A city or town may at any time revoke the acceptance 81 of this section in the manner provided in section 4 of chapter 4 of the General Laws. The 82 revocation shall not affect agreements relative to a tenants' right to purchase that have already 83 been asserted prior to the revocation. In addition, the ordinance or bylaw accepting this section 84 may contain provisions which establish:

85 (1) Tenancy protections for non-elderly tenant households that do not participate in the 86 Tenant Association; and

87 (2) exclusion of applicability to properties with fewer than a designated number of units; 88 different exclusion numbers may be adopted for owner-occupied properties and properties with 89 no owner occupancy; and 90 (3) criteria for qualified Designee; and

91 (4) Tenant Association's ability to exercise rights hereunder through a joint venture or 93 residential real estate or an entity that has the financial capacity to guaranty the financing of the 94 purchase transaction; and

95 (5) exclusion of classes of properties not enumerated in section (k) herein.

96 (c) In any city or town which votes to adopt the provisions of this section, an owner of a 97 residential building shall:

98 (1) notify the municipality and each tenant household, in writing by hand delivery and 99 US mail, of the owner's intention to sell the property, with copy of the municipality's prepared 100 summary of the ordinance adopted hereunder; and

101 (2) offer a Tenant Association with the Minimum Tenant Participation Percentage, an 102 opportunity to purchase the property prior to entering into an agreement to sell such property 103 pursuant to the time periods contained in this section, but no owner shall be under any obligation 104 to enter into an agreement to sell such property to the tenants.

105 (d) A Tenant Association with the Minimum Tenant Participation Percentage may select 106 a Successor entity or a Designee to act on its behalf as purchaser of the property and shall give 107 the owner and the municipality notice of its selection.

108 (e) A Tenant Association with the Minimum Tenant Participation Percentage, or its 109 Successor or Designee, may, within 30 days after receipt of the owner's intention to sell, submit 110 an offer to the owner to purchase the property. Failure to submit a timely offer shall constitute an 111 irrevocable waiver of the tenants' rights under this subsection (e) and the owner may enter into a 112 contract sell the property to a third party, subject to subsections (f) - (i). If the owner and the 113 Tenant Association, or its Successor, or its Designee, have not entered into an agreement within 114 30 days after receipt of the notice of the owner's intent to sell, the owner may enter into an 115 agreement to sell the property to a third party, subject to subsections (f)-(i).

116 (f) Upon execution of any purchase contract with a third party, the owner shall, within 7 117 days, submit a copy of the contract along with a proposed purchase contract for execution by 118 Tenant Association or its Successor, or Designee. If the Tenant Association, or its Successor or, 119 its Designee, elect to purchase the property, the Tenant Association, or its Successor, or its 120 Designee, shall within 30 days after the receipt of the third party purchase contract and the 121 proposed purchase contract, execute the proposed purchase contract or such other agreement as 122 is acceptable to both parties. The time periods set forth in this subsection may be extended by 123 agreement between the owner and the Tenant Association, its Successor or its Designee. Except 124 as otherwise specified in subsection (h), the terms and conditions of the proposed purchase 125 contract offered to the Tenant Association, Successor, or its Designee, shall be the same as those 126 of the executed third party purchase contract.

127 (g) After receipt of the third party purchase contract provided for in subsection (f), the 128 Tenant Association or its Successor or Designee may, within the 30 day time period prescribed 129 in said subsection (f), make a counteroffer by executing and submitting to the owner an amended 130 proposed purchase contract. Failure by the Tenant Association, Successor or its Designee, to 131 execute the purchase contract or submit a counteroffer within the 30 day period referenced in 132 subsection (f) shall constitute a waiver of the tenants' right to purchase under these subsections.
133 If the Tenant Association, Successor or its Designee, submits a counteroffer, the owner shall 134 have 30 days from the date it receives the amended proposed purchase contract to execute the 135 amended proposed purchase contract or reject, in writing, the counteroffer. However, if the 136 owner rejects a counteroffer, it may not subsequently enter into any purchase contract with a 137 third party on terms that are the same as, or materially more favorable to the proposed third party
138 purchaser, than the economic terms and conditions in the counteroffer proposed by the Tenant 139 Association, Successor, or its Designee, unless the owner first provides a copy of such new third 140 party purchase contract, along with a new proposed purchase contract for execution by the 141 Tenant Association, Successor, or its Designee, which shall contain the same terms and 142 conditions as the newly executed third party purchase contract, except as otherwise specified by

143 subsection (h), and the Tenant Association, Successor, or its Designee, shall have 30 days from 144 the date they receive the third party purchase contract and the proposed purchase contract to 145 execute the proposed purchase contract or such other agreement as is acceptable to the owner 146 and the Tenant Association, Successor, or its Designee.

147 (h) Any purchase contract offered to, or proposed by, the Tenant Association, its 148 Successor or its Designee shall provide at least the following terms:

149 (i) the earnest money deposit shall not exceed the lesser of:

150 (1) the deposit in the third party purchase contract;

151 (2) 5 percent of the sale price; or 152 (3) $250,000; provided, however, that the owner and the Tenant Association, or its 153 Successor, or its Designee, may agree to modify the terms of the earnest money deposit; 154 provided, further, that the earnest money deposit shall be held under commercially-reasonable 155 terms by an escrow agent selected jointly by the owner and the Tenant Association, its Successor

156 or its Designee;

157 (ii) the earnest money deposit shall be refundable for not less than 90 days from the date 158 of execution of the purchase contract or such greater period as provided for in the third party 159 purchase contract; provided, however, that if the owner unreasonably delays the buyer's ability to 160 conduct due diligence during the 90 day period, the earnest money deposit shall continue to be 161 refundable for a period greater than 90 days. After the expiration of the specified time period, the 162 earnest money deposit shall be forfeited and the right to purchase of the Tenant Association, its 163 Successor or Designee shall be irrevocably waived.

164 (i) The Tenant Association or its Successor, or Designee, shall have one hundred and 165 sixty days from execution of the purchase and sale agreement to perform all due diligence, 166 secure financing for and close on the purchase of the building. Failure to exercise the purchase 167 option within 160 days shall constitute a waiver of the purchase option by the Tenant 168 Association, its Successor or, or its Designee.

169 (j) Any notice required by this section shall be deemed to have been provided when 170 delivered in person or mailed by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, to the party 171 to whom notice is required. Notice shall be deemed to have been provided when either: (1) the 172 notice is delivered in hand to the tenant or an adult member of the tenant's household; or (2) the 173 notice is sent by first class mail and a copy is left in or under the door of the tenant's dwelling 174 unit. A notice to the affected municipality shall be sent to the chief executive officer.

175 (k) This section shall not apply to the following:

176 (1) property that is the subject of a government taking by eminent domain or a negotiated 177 purchase in lieu of eminent domain;

178 (2) a proposed sale to a purchaser pursuant to terms and conditions that preserve 179 affordability, as determined by the Department;

180 (3) any sale of publicly-assisted housing, as defined in section 1 of chapter 40T of the 181 General Laws;

182 (4) rental units in any hospital, skilled nursing facility, or health facility;

183 (5) rental units in a nonprofit facility that has the primary purpose of providing short term 184 treatment, assistance, or therapy for alcohol, drug, or other substance abuse provided that such 185 housing is incident to the recovery program, and where the client has been informed in writing of 186 the temporary or transitional nature of the housing;

187 (6) rental units in a nonprofit facility which provides a structured living environment that 188 has the primary purpose of helping homeless persons obtain the skills necessary for independent 189 living in a permanent housing and where occupancy is restricted to a limited and specific period 190 of time of not more than twenty-four months and where the client has been informed in writing 191 of the temporary or transitional nature of the housing at its inception;

192 (7) public housing units managed by the local housing authority;

193 (8) federal public housing units that are subsidized and regulated under federal laws, to 194 the extent such applicable federal laws expressly preempt the provisions of this section;

195 (9) any residential property where the owner is a natural person who owns six (6) or 196 fewer residential rental units in the municipality and who resides in the Commonwealth of 197 Massachusetts;

198 (10) any unit that is held in trust on behalf of a disabled individual who permanently 199 occupies the unit, or a unit that is permanently occupied by a disabled parent, sibling, child, or 200 grandparent of the owner of that unit; or

201 (11) any rental unit that is owned or managed by a college or university for the express 202 purpose of housing students.

203 (l) The Tenant Association, Successor or its Designee must ensure that their purchase of 204 the property will not result in the displacement of any Elderly Tenant households that choose not 205 to participate in the purchase of the property.

206 (m) Short-sales.

207 (1) An owner shall give notice to each tenant household of a housing accommodation of 208 the intention to sell the housing accommodation by way of short-sale to avoid foreclosure. Such 209 notice shall be mailed by regular and certified mail, with a simultaneous copy to the attorney 210 general, the director of housing and community development, and to the municipality adopting 211 this Section within two (2) business days of the owner's submission of a request or application to 212 the mortgagee for permission to sell the housing accommodation by way of short-sale or to 213 accept a deed in lieu. This notice shall also include a notice of the rights provided by this section.

214 (2) No mortgagee may accept any third party offers or deem the owner's application for 215 short-sale submitted for review unless and until the mortgagee receives documentation in a form 216 approved by the attorney general demonstrating that the tenants of the housing accommodation 217 have been informed of the owner's intent to seek a short-sale or deed in lieu and the tenants have 218 expressed their interest in exercising a right of first refusal within 60 days, assigning that right of 219 first refusal, or the tenants have waived those rights. If tenants have not affirmatively expressed 220 their interest in exercising a right of first refusal or in assigning that right within 60 days, or have 221 not affirmatively waived that right within 60 days, the tenants' rights are deemed waived.

222 (3) Before a housing accommodation may be transferred by short-sale or deed-in-lieu, the 223 owner shall notify each tenant household, with a simultaneous copy to the attorney general and 224 the director of housing and community development, and the municipality adopting this Section, 225 by regular and certified mail, of any bona fide offer that the mortgagee intends to accept. Before 226 any short-sale or transfer by deed-in-lieu, the owner shall give each tenant household such a 227 notice of the offer only if households constituting at least fifty-one percent of the households

228 occupying the housing accommodation notify the owner, in writing, that they collectively desire 229 to receive information relating to the proposed sale. Tenants may indicate this desire within the 230 same notice described in paragraph (2). Any notice of the offer required to be given under this 231 subsection shall include the price, calculated as a single lump sum amount and of any promissory 232 notes offered in lieu of cash payment.

233 (4) A tenant group representing at least fifty-one percent of the households occupying the 234 housing accommodation which are entitled to notice under paragraph (3) shall have the 235 collective right to purchase, in the case of a third party offer that the mortgagee intends to accept, 236 provided it

237 (i) submits to the owner reasonable evidence that the tenants of at least fifty-one percent 238 of the occupied units in the housing accommodation have approved the purchase of the housing 239 accommodation,

240 (ii) submits to the owner a proposed purchase and sale agreement on substantially 241 equivalent terms and conditions within sixty days of receipt of notice of the offer made under 242 paragraph (3),

243 (iii) obtains a binding commitment for any necessary financing or guarantees within an 244 additional ninety days after execution of the purchase and sale agreement, and

245 (iv) closes on such purchase within an additional ninety days after the end of the ninety-
246 day period under clause (iii).

247 No owner shall unreasonably refuse to enter into, or unreasonably delay the execution or 248 closing on a purchase and sale with tenants who have made a bona fide offer to meet the price

249 and substantially equivalent terms and conditions of an offer for which notice is required to be 250 given pursuant to paragraph (3). Failure of the tenants to submit such a purchase and sale 251 agreement within the first sixty day period, to obtain a binding commitment for financing within 252 the additional ninety day period or to close on the purchase within the second ninety-day period, 253 shall serve to terminate the rights of such tenants to purchase. The time periods herein provided 254 may be extended by agreement. Nothing herein shall be construed to require an owner to provide 255 financing to such tenants. A group or association of tenants which has the right to purchase 256 hereunder, at its election, may assign its purchase right hereunder to the city or town in which the 257 housing accommodation is located, or the housing authority of the city or town in which the 258 housing accommodation is located, or an agency of the commonwealth, nonprofit, community 259 development corporation, affordable housing developer, or land trust, for the purpose of 260 continuing the use of the housing accommodation as permanently affordable rental housing.

261 (5) The right of first refusal created herein shall inure to the tenants for the time periods 262 hereinbefore provided, beginning on the date of notice to the tenants under paragraph (1). The 263 effective period for such right of first refusal shall begin anew for each different offer to 264 purchase that the mortgagee intends to accept. The right of first refusal shall not apply with 265 respect to any offer received by the owner for which a notice is not required pursuant to said 266 paragraph (3).

267 (6) In any instance where the tenants are not the successful purchaser of the housing 268 accommodation, the mortgagee shall provide evidence of compliance with this section by filing 269 an affidavit of compliance with the attorney general, the director of housing and community 270 development, and the official records of the county where the property is located within seven 271 days of the sale.

272 (7) It is illegal for the owner to evict a tenant or tenants in order to avoid application of 273 this law.

274 (8) Aggrieved tenants may seek damages under chapter 93A and may file a complaint
275 with the attorney general. Tenants may seek damages including a percentage of the sales price 276 and/ or injunctive relief in the form of specific performance to compel transfer of property.
277 Nothing in this act shall be construed to limit or constrain in any way the rights tenants currently 278 have under applicable laws, including but not limited to chapters 186 and 186A. At all times, all 279 parties must negotiate in good faith.

280 (9) The attorney general shall enforce this section and shall promulgate rules and 281 regulations necessary for enforcement. The attorney general may seek injunctive, declaratory,
282 and compensatory relief on behalf of tenants and the commonwealth in a court of competent
283 jurisdiction. The attorney general shall post a sample intent to sell notice, sample proof of notice
284 to tenants, sample notice of offer, and other necessary documents.

285 (n) Foreclosures.

286 (1) When a mortgagee seeks judicial determination of the right to foreclose, then the 287 mortgagee shall provide a copy of the complaint by regular and certified mail to the tenants of 288 the housing accommodation and to the municipality adopting this Section. The mortgagee shall 289 also provide tenants and the municipality, by regular and certified mail, with a copy of any Order 290 of Notice issued by the Land Court, if applicable, within five (5) days of issuance.

291 (2) The mortgagee shall provide each tenant household and the municipality adopting this 292 Section, by regular and certified mail, a copy of any and all Notices of Sale published pursuant to 293 Section 14 of chapter 244. A copy should be provided simultaneously with the successive 294 publication notices.

295 (3) No later than five (5) business days before the auction of a housing accommodation, 296 the tenants shall inform the mortgagee, in writing, if a group of tenants representing at least fifty-297 one percent of the households occupying the housing accommodation or an entity to which they 298 have assigned their right of first refusal intend to exercise their right of first refusal at auction 299 and desire to receive information relating to the proposed auction.

300 (4) A group of tenants representing at least fifty-one percent of the households occupying 301 the housing accommodation or their assignee may exercise their collective right to purchase the 302 housing accommodation, in the event of a third party offer at auction that the mortgagee 303 receives, provided that the group of tenants

304 (i) submits to the mortgagee reasonable evidence that the tenants of at least fifty-one 305 percent of the occupied homes in the housing accommodation have approved the purchase of the 306 housing accommodation,

307 (ii) submits to the mortgagee a proposed purchase and sale agreement on substantially 308 equivalent terms and conditions to that received by the mortgagee in the third party offer within 309 sixty days of receipt of notice of the bid made under paragraph (3) of this section,

310 (iii) obtains a binding commitment for any necessary financing or guarantees within an 311 additional ninety days after execution of the purchase and sale agreement, and

312 (iv) closes on such purchase within an additional ninety days after the end of the ninety-
313 day period under clause (iii).

314 No mortgagee shall unreasonably refuse to enter into, or unreasonably delay the 315 execution or closing on a purchase and sale with tenants who have made a bona fide offer to 316 meet the price and substantially equivalent terms and conditions of a bid received at auction.
317 Failure of the tenants to submit such a purchase and sale agreement within the first sixty day 318 period, to obtain a binding commitment for financing within the additional ninety day period or 319 to close on the purchase within the second ninety-day period, shall serve to terminate the rights 320 of such tenants to purchase. The time periods herein provided may be extended by agreement.

321 Nothing herein shall be construed to require a mortgagee to provide financing to such 322 tenants. A group or association of tenants which has the right to purchase hereunder, at its 323 election, may assign its purchase right hereunder to the city, town, housing authority, or agency 324 of the commonwealth, nonprofit, community development corporation, affordable housing 325 developer, or land trust for the purpose of continuing the use of the housing accommodation as 326 permanently affordable rental housing.

327 If there are no third party bids at auction for the housing accommodation, the tenants 328 shall have a right of first refusal whenever the mortgagee seeks to sell the housing 329 accommodation. The tenants shall be notified of any offers the mortgagee intends to accept and 330 shall be given an opportunity to meet the price and substantially the terms of a third-party offer 331 based on the same time line described in paragraph (4).

332 (5) The right of first refusal created herein shall inure to the tenants for the time periods
333 herein before provided, beginning on the date of notice to the tenants under paragraph (1).

334 (6) In any instance where the tenants are not the successful purchaser of the housing 335 accommodation, the seller of such unit shall provide evidence of compliance with this section by 336 filing an affidavit of compliance with the attorney general, the director of housing and 337 community development, and the official records of the county where the property is located 338 within seven days of the sale.

339 (7) It is illegal for the owner to evict a tenant or tenants in order to avoid application of 340 this law.

341 (8) Aggrieved tenants may seek damages under General Law Chapter 93A and may file a 342 complaint with the attorney general. Tenants may seek damages including a percentage of the 343 sales price and/or injunctive relief in the form of specific performance to compel transfer of 344 property. Nothing in this Act shall be construed to limit or constrain in any way the rights tenants 345 currently have under applicable laws, including but not limited to chapters 186 and 186A. At all 346 times, all parties must negotiate in good faith.

347 (9) The attorney general shall enforce this section and shall promulgate rules and 348 regulations necessary for enforcement. The attorney general may seek injunctive, declaratory,
349 and compensatory relief on behalf of tenants and the Commonwealth in a court of competent
350 jurisdiction. The attorney general shall post a sample intent to sell notice, sample proof of notice
351 to tenants, sample notice of offer, and other necessary documents."
