An Act to guarantee housing stability during the COVID-19 emergency and recovery.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to establish forthwith ongoing stabilization of the housing market for renters and homeowners during the COVID-19 emergency and recovery, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety and convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1           SECTION 1. Section 6 of chapter 62 of the General Laws, as appearing in the 2018
2 Official Edition, is hereby amended by adding the following subsection:-

3           (w)(1) A taxpayer engaged in the business of renting residential dwelling units in the 4 commonwealth shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter to the extent 5 provided for in this subsection for rental losses during the state of emergency concerning the 6 novel coronavirus disease outbreak declared by the governor on March 10, 2020.

7           (2) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection the amount of credit shall be the 8 difference between the cumulative amount of rents owed on a monthly basis pursuant to the 9 rental agreement covering each occupied dwelling unit minus the tenant's rental obligation, for

10 those months occurring during the state of emergency concerning the novel coronavirus disease
11 outbreak declared by the governor on March 10, 2020.

12 (3) The secretary of housing and economic development, in consultation with the 13 commissioner of revenue, shall promulgate regulations for an application process for the credit
14 and shall receive applications for the credit. The application for the credit by the owner or 15 owners of the rental property shall include the amount of the credit requested, which shall be
16 based upon the cumulative monthly rent owed by tenants pursuant to the rental agreement
17 covering each occupied dwelling unit during each month of the state of emergency concerning 18 the novel coronavirus disease outbreak declared by the governor on March 10, 2020, and the 19 actual monthly rent collected during each respective month of the state of emergency, to be 20 allocated by the secretary. The application shall also include the tenant's name and mailing
21 address for each dwelling unit for which credit is sought. The applicant shall have the burden of 22 providing sufficient proof to the secretary for review and determination. The application shall 23 contain sufficient information to identify each such dwelling unit and the taxpayer or taxpayers
24 with respect to each such dwelling unit, and such other information as the secretary, in 25 consultation with the commissioner, shall prescribe. The secretary shall develop procedures for 26 verifying the tenant's rental obligation for the tax credit benefit period.

27 (4) While the application is pending, the applicant shall not issue a notice to quit or 28 commence a summary process action to recover possession of the dwelling unit for the non-29 payment of rent, which is the subject of the application.

30 (5) Subject to the availability of credits, the amount of the credit available for each
31 dwelling unit shall be the actual difference between the monthly lease amounts for occupied

32 units minus the tenant's rental obligation and the actual amount of monthly rent collected, as 33 determined by the commissioner. Upon approval of the credit to an owner, the owner shall 34 release the occupants of the dwelling unit from any liability for the non-payment of rent that is 35 the subject of the credit.

36 (6) Owners shall not be eligible for credit: (i) if such owner has received property tax 37 relief, rental voucher assistance or any other federal, state or locally funded benefit intended to 38 pay, abate or compensate the owner for unpaid rent: (ii) if the owner has commenced a 39 proceeding to recover possession of the property for the non-payment of rent, which is the 40 subject of the application; or (iii) another owner, co-owner or applicant has applied for tax
41 credits for the unpaid rent of the same units.

42 (7) The secretary shall prioritize credit applications for dwelling units whose rent is at or 43 below the fair market rent as most recently calculated by the United States Department of 44 Housing and Urban Development for the area in which the dwelling unit is located.

45 (8) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year exceeds 46 the taxpayer's tax liability for that tax year the taxpayer may carry forward and apply in any 47 subsequent taxable year, the portion, as reduced from year to year of those credits, which exceed 48 the tax for the taxable year.

49 (9) This section shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2020.

50 SECTION 2. Chapter 63 of the General Laws, as so appearing, is hereby amended by 51 inserting after section 38HH the following section:-

52           Section 38II. (a) A taxpayer engaged in the business of renting residential dwelling units 53 in the commonwealth shall be allowed a credit against the taxes imposed by this chapter to the 54 extent provided for in this subsection for rental losses during the state of emergency concerning 55 the novel coronavirus disease outbreak declared by the governor on March 10, 2020.

56           (b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection the amount of credit shall be the 57 difference between the cumulative amount of rents owed on a monthly basis pursuant to the 58 rental agreement covering each occupied dwelling unit minus the tenant's rental obligation, for
59 those months occurring during the state of emergency concerning the novel coronavirus disease
60 outbreak declared by the governor on March 10, 2020.

61           (c) The secretary of housing and economic development, in consultation with the 62 commissioner of revenue, shall promulgate regulations for an application process for the credit
63 and shall receive applications for the credit. The application for the credit by the owner or 64 owners of the rental property shall include the amount of the credit requested, which shall be
65 based upon the cumulative monthly rent owed by tenants pursuant to the rental agreement
66 covering each occupied dwelling unit during each month of the state of emergency concerning
67 the novel coronavirus disease outbreak declared by the governor on March 10, 2020, and the 68 actual monthly rent collected during each respective month of the state of emergency, to be
69 allocated by the secretary. The application shall also include the tenant's name and mailing
70 address for each dwelling unit for which credit is sought. The applicant shall have the burden of 71 providing sufficient proof to the secretary for review and determination. The application shall 72 contain sufficient information to identify each such dwelling unit and the taxpayer or taxpayers
73 with respect to each such dwelling unit, and such other information as the secretary, in

74 consultation with the commissioner, shall prescribe. The secretary shall develop procedures for 75 verifying the tenant's rental obligation for the tax credit benefit period.

76 (d) While the application is pending, the applicant shall not issue a notice to quit or 77 commence a summary process action to recover possession of the dwelling unit for the non-
78 payment of rent, which is the subject of the application.

79 (e) Subject to the availability of credits, the amount of the credit available for each
80 dwelling unit shall be the actual difference between the monthly lease amounts for occupied
81 units minus the tenant's rental obligation and the actual amount of monthly rent collected, as 82 determined by the commissioner. Upon approval of the credit to an owner, the owner shall 83 release the occupants of the dwelling unit from any liability for the non-payment of rent that is 84 the subject of the credit.

85 (f) Owners shall not be eligible for credit: (i) if such owner has received property tax
86 relief, rental voucher assistance or any other federal, state or locally funded benefit intended to 87 pay, abate or compensate the owner for unpaid rent: (ii) if the owner has commenced a
88 proceeding to recover possession of the property for the non-payment of rent, which is the 89 subject of the application; or (iii) another owner, co-owner or applicant has applied for tax
90 credits for the unpaid rent of the same units.

91 (g) The secretary shall prioritize credit applications for dwelling units whose rent is at or 92 below the fair market rent as most recently calculated by the United States Department of 93 Housing and Urban Development for the area in which the dwelling unit is located.

94 (h) If the amount of the credit allowed under this subsection for any taxable year exceeds

96 subsequent taxable year, the portion, as reduced from year to year of those credits, which exceed
97 the tax for the taxable year.

98 (i) This section shall apply to taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 2020.

99 SECTION 3. Chapter 186 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding the 100 following section:-

110 of the unit by a member of the owner’s family as a primary residence.

111 (b) A city or town that adopts this section in the manner provided in section 4 of chapter 112 4 may require that any summary process action for a residential dwelling unit, except an owner-113 occupied dwelling with 4 or fewer units in said city or town, is for just cause.

114 SECTION 4. Item 7004-9316 of section 2 of chapter 41 of the acts of 2019 is hereby 115 amended by adding the following words:- ; provided further, that households with a median 116 income of no more than 100 per cent of median income and are at risk of becoming homeless 117 due to a significant reduction of income or increased expenses due to the inability to pay rent for

118 a residential dwelling unit caused by the outbreak of the 2019 novel coronavirus, also known as 119 COVID-19, or the effects of the governor's March 10, 2020 emergency declaration shall be 120 eligible for rental assistance pursuant to this item and that such assistance shall be remitted by 121 voucher to the renter's landlord.

122 SECTION 5. Chapter 65 of the acts of 2020 is hereby amended by inserting after section 123 3 the following 2 sections:-

127 except that housing authorities and landlords with tenants whose rent payments are partially or

129 or other contract shall be against public policy and shall be void. This section shall not apply to 130 owner-occupied buildings composed of 4 or fewer rental units.

131 SECTION 3B. Notwithstanding any general or special law, rule, regulation or order to 132 the contrary, no court having jurisdiction of a summary process action or any other trial court

135 a summary process or civil action where the plaintiff seeks non-payment of rent from a period 136 beginning with the COVID-19 emergency and for 1 year after the termination of the state of 137 emergency; provided, further, that such information shall be impounded and shall remain 138 permanently unavailable for public inspection or publication, except to the parties to the action

140 SECTION 6. Section 5 of said chapter 65 is hereby amended by striking out subsection 141 (b) and inserting in place thereof the following subsection:-

142 (b) A creditor or mortgagee shall grant forbearance to a mortgagor of a mortgage loan for 143 a residential property as defined in section 35B of said chapter 244 if the mortgagor submits a

145 impact from COVID-19. The request may be made in any form, written or oral, and the 146 forbearance shall be granted regardless of the mortgagor's delinquency status. The forbearance 147 shall last 180 days, although at the mortgagor's request, the period of forbearance may begin in 148 an increment shorter than 180 days and then extended at the mortgagor's request. The 149 forbearance shall be extended for an additional 180 days at the mortgagor's request. Fees, 150 penalties or interest beyond the amounts scheduled and calculated as if the mortgagor made all 151 contractual payments on time and in full under the terms of the mortgage contract shall not 152 accrue during the period of forbearance granted under this subsection. A payment subject to the 153 forbearance, including any escrow payments required to be paid in the mortgage contract, shall 154 be added to the end of the term of the loan unless otherwise agreed to by the mortgagor and 155 mortgagee. Nothing in this subsection shall prohibit a mortgagor and mortgagee from entering

159 reduce a mortgagor's rights under the federal Coronavirus Aid, Relief, and Economic Security 160 Act, as applied to federally backed mortgage loans.

161 SECTION 7. Said section 5 of said chapter 65 is hereby further amended by adding the 162 following 2 subsections:-

165 by a nonprofit entity or an affiliate or agent of the non-profit entity or a mortgagor, including 166 affiliates and agents, that owns 15 or fewer residential apartments, if the mortgagor submits a 167 request to the mortgagor's servicer affirming that the mortgagor has experienced a financial 168 impact from the COVID-19 emergency. The forbearance shall last 180 days; provided, that at the 169 mortgagor's request, the period of forbearance may begin in an increment shorter than 180 days 170 and then extended at the mortgagor's request, may be extended an additional 180 days at the 171 mortgagor's request, and shall be offered on the same terms and conditions in subsection (b).

173 (b) or (d) shall for each month of the mortgage forbearance period, waive and forever hold 174 tenants harmless from the obligation to pay that month's rent for each rental unit located on the 175 property that is secured by the mortgage and which is occupied by a household who resided 176 lawfully in the unit as of March 10, 2020, except if the mortgagor demonstrates by clear and 177 convincing evidence that the tenant's failure to pay rent did not result from a loss of income or 178 other change in economic circumstances caused directly or indirectly by the COVID-19 179 emergency.

180 SECTION 8. Said chapter 65 is hereby further amended by striking out sections 6 to 8,
