The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court (2019-2020)

An Act establishing a commission on the status of children and youth.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 SECTION 1. Chapter 3 of the General Laws, as so appearing in the 2016 Official Edition,
- 2 is hereby amended by adding the following section:-

3	Section 71. (a) There shall be a permanent commission on the status of children and
4	youth to consist of 20 persons, 5 of whom shall be appointed by the governor, 4 of whom shall
5	be appointed by the speaker of the house of representatives, 4 of whom shall be appointed by the
6	president of the senate, one of whom shall be the child advocate and 6 of whom shall be
7	appointed by the student advisory council to the board of education established in section 1E of
8	chapter 15; provided, however, that not more than 2 such persons shall be from the same regional
9	student advisory council. Members of the commission shall be drawn from diverse racial,
10	ethnic, religious, sexual orientation and socio-economic backgrounds; provided, however, that no

- 11 member at the time of appointment or re-appointment shall be older than 21 years of age.

12 Members shall be subject to chapter 268A as it applies to special state employees.

13 (b) Members shall serve terms of 3 years and until their successors are appointed. A 14 vacancy in the membership of the commission shall be filled by the original appointing authority 15 for the remainder of the unexpired term. Appointments shall be made in consultation with 16 organizations that focus on children and youth including, but not limited to, the Massachusetts 17 Boys State program, the Massachusetts Girls State program, the YMCA Youth in Government 18 program, the Massachusetts Student Government Day program, the Boys and Girls Clubs of 19 Massachusetts, Teens Leading the Way, the Children's League of Massachusetts, Massachusetts 20 Citizens for Children, Generation Citizen, the Massachusetts Service Alliance, City Year, the 21 Robert F. Kennedy Children's Action Corps, the Children's Mental Health Campaign, the 22 Massachusetts Special Commission on Unaccompanied Homeless Youth, and the Mass 23 Mentoring Partnership. One member is to be a youth aging out of foster care. Terms of office 24 shall commence annually on October 1 and nominations for vacancies shall be solicited annually 25 between May 1 and June 16 of each year through an open application process using a uniform 26 application that is widely distributed throughout the state.

27 (c) The commission shall elect from among its members a chair, a vice chair, a treasurer28 and any other officers it deems necessary.

- 29 (d) The members of the commission shall serve without compensation but shall be 30 reimbursed for any usual and customary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.
- 31 (e) The commission shall conduct an ongoing study of all matters concerning children
  32 and youth and shall be guided by the tenets of the United Nations Convention on the Rights of

33 the Child and the Declaration and Plan of Action for the survival, development and protection of 34 children and youth adopted by the World Summit on Children in 1990. In furtherance of that 35 responsibility, the commission shall: (i) study, review and report on the status of children and 36 youth in the commonwealth; (ii) inform leaders of business, education, health care, state and 37 local governments and the communications media of issues pertaining to children and youth; (iii) 38 serve as a liaison between government and private interest groups concerned with issues 39 affecting children and youth; (iv) serve as a clearinghouse for information on issues pertaining to 40 children and youth; (v) identify and recommend qualified youth for appointive positions at all 41 levels of government, including boards and commissions, as the commission deems necessary 42 and appropriate; (vi) assess programs and practices in all state agencies as they affect children 43 and youth, as the commission deems necessary and appropriate; (vii) advise executive and 44 legislative bodies on the effect on children and youth of proposed legislation, as the commission 45 deems necessary and appropriate; (viii) promote and facilitate collaboration among local youth 46 commissions and youth organizations, as the commission deems necessary and appropriate; (ix) 47 organize programs to celebrate the positive contributions of children and youth including, but not 48 limited to, the observance of Youth Honor Day established in section 15G of chapter 6 and the 49 observance of Youth in Government Day established in section 15WW of said chapter 6; (x) 50 establish a commonwealth award for exemplary community service which shall be presented to a 51 graduating senior in each high school in cooperation with Massachusetts Secondary School 52 Administrators' Association; and (xi) encourage programs that enhance the civic knowledge and 53 engagement of youth in the democratic process with the goal of producing active and engaged 54 citizens. The commission shall annually, not later than June 2, report the results of its findings and activities of the preceding year and its recommendations to the governor and to the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives.

57 (f) The commission may: (i) use such voluntary and uncompensated services of private 58 individuals, agencies and organizations as may from time to time be offered and needed; (ii) 59 recommend policies and make recommendations to agencies and officers of state and local 60 governments to effectuate the purposes of subsection (e); (iii) select an executive director and 61 acquire adequate staff to perform its duties, subject to appropriation; (iv) establish and maintain 62 such offices as it deems necessary, subject to appropriation; (v) enact by-laws for its own 63 governance; (vi) hold regular, public meetings and fact-finding hearings and other public forums as it may consider necessary; (vii) exercise such other powers as it deems necessary to perform 64 65 its duties.

66 (g) The commission shall meet monthly, except for the months of July and August, at the 67 members' discretion. The governor, speaker of the house of representatives, president of the 68 senate and designated members of the senate and house of representatives shall be invited to 69 attend the monthly meetings on a rotating basis as determined by the commission.

70 (h) (1) The commission may request from state agencies such information and 71 assistance as the commission may require.

(2) The commission may accept and solicit funds, including any gifts, donations, grants, bequests and federal funds for the purposes of the commission. Such funds shall be deposited in a separate account with the state treasurer and shall be expended by the commission in accordance with law.

76 (i) There shall be an advisory council to the commission which shall serve co-77 terminously with the governor and shall consist of the commissioner of elementary and secondary education or a designee; the commissioner of early education and care or a designee; 78 79 the commissioner of higher education or a designee; the commissioner of youth services or a 80 designee; the chief justice of the juvenile court or a designee, the commissioner of juvenile 81 probation or a designee; the house and senate chairs of the joint committee on children, families 82 and persons with disabilities or their designees; and the house and senate chairs of the joint 83 committee on education or their designees. The governor shall additionally appoint members 84 from organizations that focus on children and youth; provided, however, that the governor shall 85 appoint 1 member from each of the following organizations from nominees submitted by the 86 Massachusetts Boys State program, the Massachusetts Girls State program, the YMCA Youth in 87 Government program, the Massachusetts Student Government Day program, the Boys and Girls 88 Clubs of Massachusetts, Teens Leading the Way, the Children's League of Massachusetts, 89 Massachusetts Citizens for Children, Generation Citizen, the Massachusetts Service Alliance, 90 City Year, the Robert F.
