[SIMILAR MATTER FILED IN PREVIOUS SESSION
SEE HOUSE, NO. 4852 OF 2017-2018.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court
(2019-2020)

An Act relative to mandated reporter reform.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. (a) There shall be a special commission to review existing mandated 2 reporter laws and regulations and to report and make recommendations on how to improve the 3 response to, and prevention of, child abuse and neglect. The report shall include, but not be 4 limited to, findings and recommendations on: (i) improving or adding training requirements for 5 employees, including employees of licensees or contracted organizations; and (ii) improving 6 accountability in the mandated reporter system, including procedures for a mandated reporter to 7 notify the person or designated agent in charge and responses to reports of intimidation and 8 retaliation.

9 (b) The commission shall consist of the child advocate, who shall serve as chair and the 10 following persons, or their designees: the secretary of health and human services; the secretary of 11 education; the secretary of public safety and security; the attorney general; the commissioner of 12 elementary and secondary education; the commissioner of early education and care; the 13 commissioner of children and families; the commissioner of the division of professional 14 licensure; the chief counsel of the committee for public counsel services; and a representative of 15 the Massachusetts district attorney association. The commission may consider input from any 16 relevant organization, including but not limited to: the Children’s League of Massachusetts, Inc., 17 the Massachusetts Children’s Alliance, Inc. and Children’s Trust Massachusetts.

18 (c) The commission shall review: (i) the agencies and employers responsible for training 19 mandated reporters; (ii) the frequency of mandated reporter training and continuing education;
20 (iii) whether agencies and employers follow best practices for mandated reporter training, 21 including profession-specific training for recognizing the signs of child sexual abuse and 22 physical and emotional abuse and neglect; (iv) how agencies notify mandated reporters of 23 changes to the General Laws and regulations; (v) responses by the department of children and 24 families to a written report filed under section 51A of chapter 119 of the General Laws, 25 including a listing of offenses requiring a report be referred to the district attorney; (vi) the 26 feasibility of the development of a confidential internal tracking system for all reports filed under 27 said section 51A of said chapter 119; (vii) whether employer, agency, and employee trainings 28 cover retaliation protections for mandated reporter filing; (viii) whether employer, agency and 29 employee trainings cover fines and penalties for failure to report pursuant to said section 51A of 30 said chapter 119; (ix) protocols related to reports filed under said section 51A of said chapter 31 119, including procedures for a mandated reporter to notify the person or designated agent in 32 charge and the required documentation; (x) the availability of information at schools regarding 33 the protocols for filing reports under said section 51A of said chapter 119; (xi) options for the

34 development of public service announcements to ensure the safety and well-being of children;
35 (xii) proposals to revise the definition of child abuse and neglect to ensure a standard definition
36 among state agencies that is consistent with appropriate federal authorities; and (xiii) proposals
37 to expand mandated reporting requirements under sections 51A to 51F, inclusive, of said chapter 38 119.

39 (d) The commission shall file a report of its findings and recommendations, together with 40 drafts of legislation necessary to carry those recommendations into effect, by filing the same
41 with the clerks of the senate and the house of representatives, the chairs of the senate and house 42 committees on ways and means and the chairs of the joint committee on children, families and 43 persons with disabilities not later than July 31, 2020.
