The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the One Hundred and Ninety-First General Court
(2019-2020)

An Act to require pre-foreclosure mediation and judicial oversight.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. Notwithstanding any general or special law to the contrary, there shall be a
2 two-year moratorium on the non-judicial foreclosure of any 1-6 unit residential property where
3 the property is the sole real property of its owner.

4 Section 2. Said moratorium shall take effect as of the date of enactment of this Act, and
5 shall renew for an additional two-year term on each anniversary of its effective date to a
6 maximum of ten (10) years.

7 Section 3. If the following criteria are met in any calendar year during the moratorium,
8 the legislature may terminate it as of the end of the applicable two-year period:

9 a. The percentage of foreclosures of “certain mortgages,” as defined in section 35B
10 of chapter 244 of the General Laws, which qualify as predatory is less than a quarter of all 11 foreclosures; and

b. The percentage of foreclosures of mortgages where more than one assignment is recorded, or which section 14 of chapter 244 of the General Laws requires to be recorded, is less than one fifth of all foreclosures.

Section 4. The courts of the commonwealth will continue to have jurisdiction to determine foreclosures by action under chapter 244, section 1 of the General Laws, and as modified in the following five subsections:

(a) In addition to applicable Superior Court rules of service, if service is not effected in hand, then it must be effected both by posting in a prominent place on the property and by certified mailing;

(b) A defendant-mortgagor may raise all legal and equitable claims and defenses against the mortgagee or any predecessor in interest, assignee, agent or any person or entity acting on behalf of such mortgagee.

(c) The court shall have the authority to modify the mortgage or grant any other appropriate relief as to the mortgagor;

(d) Nothing in this section shall affect the rights of tenants or any legal occupants residing in the property;

(e) The court may set aside a default judgment for good cause shown; and

(f) Foreclosure by court action pursuant this Act shall be available only if pre-foreclosure mediation has not resulted in a commercially-reasonable, mutually agreeable resolution.

31 (i) Concurrently with the mailing of the notice of the right to cure period prescribed in 32 section 35A of chapter 244 of the General Laws, the mortgagee shall mail to the mortgagor by 33 certified mail a notification of opportunity to seek resolution of any breach of the mortgage.

34 (ii) This will commence a mediation in accordance with a program yet to be established
35 by the Commonwealth. Said program's design shall reflect best practices as to successful loan
36 modification mediation programs similar to that described as the Massachusetts Foreclosure
37 Mediation Program in legislation presently pending in the General Court.

38 (iii) Said Program shall include issuance of a Certificate of Mediation Completion to any 39 party that participates in good faith should mediation not yield a mutually acceptable resolution.

40 (iv). Said Program will include a regular reporting of outcomes and percentages of party
41 compliance.

42 Section 5. The Division of Banks shall promulgate regulations to aid in the administration
43 and enforcement of the above sections.

44 Section 6. The Division of Banks shall, in consultation with the Attorney General,
45 provide an Annual Foreclosure Crisis Report to the joint committee on financial services within 46 ninety (90) days of the end of each calendar year on:

Number of such documents that append a copy of each business record or other document, or else make reference to where such documents are available on the public record, as required of affidavits pursuant to Massachusetts and Federal Rules of Evidence Rule 803, and which include the certification by an attorney required under section 5B of chapter 183 of the General Laws;

(e) Number of recorded documents that are denominated as Foreclosure Deeds;
